The Journal of Proceedings SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE The United Methodist Church Organized 1972

Continuing the South Carolina Conference (1785) and the South Carolina Conference (1866)

Sunday, May 31 – Wednesday, June 3, 2009
Florence Civic Center
Florence, South Carolina
Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor, Presiding

Conference Theme:
“Rejoice in Hope”

The First Day – Sunday Afternoon May 31, 2009

Lay Orientation. An Orientation Session was conducted for the Lay Members of the Annual Conference by the Board of Laity at 5:00 p.m. in the Arena of the Florence Civic Center. The session began with an overview and welcome by Dr. Joseph E. Heyward, Conference Lay Leader. Barbara Ware offered an opening devotional. An opening hymn was sung. All lay members present were provided information and instruction by the Conference Lay Leader and others concerning the agenda, movement, procedures and parliamentary process of the 2009 Annual Conference, with special attention given to the proposed constitutional amendments. Announcements were made concerning the ordination service, the Laity Luncheon and the Laity Convocation. An opportunity was provided for Lay Members to ask questions. The session was adjourned at 6:00 p.m.

Clergy Session. The Clergy Session was called to order by Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor at 5:00 p.m. in the Exhibit Hall, and the session began with a prayer. Bishop Taylor then called on the Reverend Ted Walter to present the report of the Administrative Review Committee. Rev. Walter reported that the committee had reviewed the process followed in relation to the recommendation of Involuntary Leave of Absence, and had found that the process had been followed properly and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. The Reverend Kenneth Nelson, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, was then called upon. Rev. Nelson recognized and thanked the members of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the members of the district committees on ordained ministry for their work. Rev. Nelson then briefly reviewed the work of the Board since the last session of Annual Conference. When all members of the session had received copies of the Business Questions, he called upon the Reverend Anthony Hodge, Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry, to present the Business Questions on behalf of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Rev. Hodge presented the full report and noted certain corrections to the report.

Business Questions 19, 20, 22, 23, 24, 37-38, 40-41, 46e, 47, and 49 were presented for information and moved to record, as no vote was required. Bishop Taylor reminded the clergy session that on Board of Ordained Ministry matters, only Deacons and Elders in full connection are eligible to vote. The Consent Calendar, which included Questions 25, 26, 29, 30, 34, 35, 36, 39, 43, 44, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, and 57-59 (statistical data questions calculated after clergy session) was presented on behalf of the Board of Ordained Ministry by the Reverend Hodge as Motion 1 of the Clergy Session Memorandum. The Consent Calendar was perfected and approved by more than two-thirds vote of the clergy session. The clergy session acted to approve each of the following Business Questions separately: 21, 27, 28, 31, 32, 33, 42, 45, 46, 48, 50, 76 and 80. Questions 32, 33, 50, and 80 were approved by a two-thirds majority. Question 76 was approved by a three-fourths majority. (Those newly approved as local pastors, together with those elected to associate, provisional, and full membership are listed in the record of the Ordination Service.) Following the reading of the names of clergy who had died during the past year, as listed under Question 48, Bishop Taylor offered a prayer in remembrance and appreciation of their service to the Annual Conference. Prior to action on Question 50, the session voted unanimously to waive the 90 day notice requirement in relation to the recommendation for Involuntary Leave of Absence for Rev. Roger W. Pearce. The recommendations for Involuntary Leave of Absence for both Rev. Ethel G. Jefferson and Rev. Roger W. Pearce were approved upon a counted, recorded vote by more than a two-thirds majority. When action on all Business Questions was completed Motion 2 was approved, authorizing the Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry and Coordinator of Clergy Services to make editorial changes to the business questions where necessary in preparing them for the Annual Conference Journal. Rev. Hodge then moved the adoption of the report as a whole. The motion was seconded and approved.

There being no further business, several announcements were made, Bishop Taylor reminded the members of the evening worship session, thanked them for their presence and participation, and declared the clergy session adjourned.

The Business Session continued with remarks by Dr. Charles Teague, President of Spartanburg Methodist College, who brought greetings on behalf of the United Methodist-related colleges in South Carolina. Dr. Teague thanked the conference for the opportunity to serve as president of Spartanburg Methodist College, and then introduced Dr. Colleen Keith, his successor as president of Spartanburg Methodist College. He introduced representatives of the other South Carolina United Methodist-related colleges: Dr. Henry Tisdale, President of Claflin University, Dr. Ron White of Columbia College, and Dr. Ron Robinson, chaplain of Wofford College, highlighting accomplishments of the four institutions over the course of the past year. Dr. Teague concluded by inviting the members of the annual conference to attend the President's Luncheon later that day.

The Reverend Joe Cate, pastor of Pointe Hope UMC, Mt. Pleasant, led the Annual Conference in a Bible Study, followed by Holy Communion celebrated by The Reverend Janice Frederick-Watts.

The Annual Conference was in adjournment until 10:20 a.m.

At 10:20 a.m., the Conference returned from recess in order to debate and vote on the Constitutional Amendments. The Bishop reminded the members of the Annual Conference of the bar of the Conference and of those who are eligible to vote: lay delegates and clergy in full connection. For the Constitutional Amendments to be passed, a 2/3 majority of the aggregate votes of all of the Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church must be reached. Bishop Taylor explained the process that would be followed: amendments would be debated separately, in the order in which they were printed. Normal rules governing debate would be followed. No amendments are allowed. Voting would be by written ballot. Ballots would be distributed at the end of all debate, and each ballot would include a place to vote on each amendment.

The Bishop then opened debate on the amendments, inviting debate on Amendment I and following amendments as noted below:

Amendment I. Toni White, Clergy, Suber Marshall, spoke in favor of the amendment. Terry Fleming, Clergy, Ellore-Jerusalem Charge, spoke in opposition to the amendment. Willie Teague, Clergy, Conference Council on Ministries Director, spoke in favor of the amendment. Albert Cox, Retired Clergy, Chapin, spoke in opposition to the amendment. Sandy Warren, Lay, Hockory Grove Charge, spoke in favor of the amendment. Emily Rogers, Lay, Central (Florence), spoke in opposition of the amendment.

Amendment II. Jim Knowles-Tuell, Clergy, Conference Treasurer, spoke in opposition to the amendment. Wade Everett, Clergy, Langley Charge, spoke in opposition to the amendment.

Amendment VI. There was no debate on Amendment VI.

Amendment VIII. Don Clendaniel, Clergy, Grace (Charleston), spoke in opposition to the amendment. Kathy James, Clergy, Congregational Specialist, spoke in favor of the amendment.

Amendments III, IV, V, VII, X, XI, XII, XIII, XIV, XVI, XVIII, XX, XXI, XXIII, XXIV, XXV, XXVI, XXVII, XXVIII, XXIX, XXX, XXXI, XXXII (Worldwide Nature of the Church) were treated as a single item for the purposes of the debate. Lois Helms, Clergy, Hendersonville Charge (Walterboro District), spoke in opposition to the amendments. Jeff Cila, Ellore Charge, spoke in opposition to the amendments. George Holler, Clergy, Antioch Charge, Conway (Marion District), spoke in favor of the amendments. Bob Howell, Clergy, Bethany, Summerville (Charleston District), spoke in opposition to the amendments. Clayton Childers, Clergy, Woodruff Charge, Board of Church and Society, spoke in favor of the amendments. Judy Irby, Lay, New Beginnings, Greenville, spoke in favor of the amendments.

In preparation to vote, the Bishop reminded the Annual Conference that those eligible to vote were Lay Members and Full Clergy Members, restated the bar of the conference and stated that those outside the bar would not be allowed to vote, and reviewed the balloting process. The Tellers distributed the ballots and voting commenced. The ballots were then collected and the voting was declared closed. Bishop Taylor informed the house that the results of the vote would be announced when the Tellers completed the count.

A United Methodist Homes video presentation highlighted the ministries of The Oaks (Orangeburg), Epworth Children's Home (Columbia), the United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee (Florence), Wesley Commons (Greenwood), and Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry.

Sara A. White, Rock Hill District Superintendent, highlighted the Report of the Epworth Study Committee. The recommendations were: 1) That Epworth continue to solicit support independently rather than becoming an apportioned item; 2) That the goal of a minimum of $6.00 per member per year be encouraged, that district superintendents promote Epworth at charge conferences, and that Epworth develop resources (such as a DVD) to be widely distributed to local church representatives and pastors; and 3) That local congregations and leadership hold themselves accountable to tell the story of Epworth's life changing ministries by using materials and resources that are available through Epworth Children's Home, selecting a Local Church Representative in each congregation who is equipped to tell the story and by working with mission committees to discover ways to share ministry with the children of Epworth. Bob Huggins, Clergy, Trio Charge, spoke in favor of the recommendations, offering a friendly amendment to have the committee report to the Annual Conference in 2010 as to the progress of these recommendations. Rev. White accepted the amendment on behalf of the study committee. The recommendations were approved by the annual conference.

Announcements were made and the session was adjourned at 12:00 p.m.

At the close of the service, the session was in recess for 30 minutes.

The afternoon session resumed at 3:43 PM.

Dr. John Holler brought greetings from Epworth Children's Home, and then shared a brief video presentation.

The report of the Board of Ordained Ministry was then presented by The Reverend Ken Nelson, Chair. He expressed his appreciation for the 2004-08 Board, under the leadership of the Reverend Patricia Parrish, chairperson during that quadrennium. Rev. Nelson noted the following goals currently before the current board: 1) To strengthen continuing education for clergy, moving all clergy toward excellence in ministry and responding to those who are ineffective, 2) Recruitment and retention of young clergy, 3) Strengthening the relationship between the Board of Ordained Ministry and candidates from the South Carolina Annual Conference currently enrolled in seminary, and 4) Continuing to assist candidates to fund their theological education.

Rev. Nelson then presented the proposed, revised Policy Guidelines of the Board of ordained Ministry. Rev. Nelson highlighted the major changes. Many changes were editorial in nature, bringing the Policy Guidelines in-line with the language of the 2008 Book of Discipline. The most significant change was to change the provisional period from a three-year period to a two-year period.

Rev. Nelson reported that thirty-one seminary students, attending twelve different theological schools, received financial assistance totaling $119,800 from the Ministerial Education Fund.

Rev. Nelson then read the names of those who were ordained and commissioned for service in the South Carolina Annual Conference during the Ordination and Commissioning Service the previous night. These persons were invited to stand and were recognized by the Annual Conference. Appreciation was then expressed to Rev. Tim Rogers and Mrs. Bonnie Speas for their work in the Office of Clergy Services.

Rev. Nelson responded the response to Business Question 17, "Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration?" with the answer, "Yes, with the exceptions that have been noted and acted upon in the clergy session held on Sunday, May 31, 2009."

Rev. Nelson then moved the adoption of the Policy Guidelines. The motion carried. The report was then accepted as a whole, and the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry was completed.

The Report of the Committee on Nominations was presented for review by the Rev. Mike Bowers, Chairperson. The main report was provided in the registration materials. Reverend Bowers requested that editorial corrections be submitted in writing. Rev. Bowers announced several additional nominations, and several changes in nominations, on behalf of the Committee on Nominations. He then highlighted several vacancies remaining to be filled. Some nominations were offered from the floor to fill vacancies in the report of the Committee on Nominations. There were no nominations from the floor for any position for which the Committee on Nominations had already offered a name. The report of the Committee on Nominations was presented to the conference for information only, and was to be acted upon by the Conference on Wednesday. The final report of the Committee on Nominations, reflecting the officers elected by the Annual Conference, including any amendments to the report made on the floor, will be printed in final form in the Conference Journal.

Rev. Tim Rogers presented the Consent Calendar found in the pre-conference materials and directed attention to the Petition to Remove items from the Consent Calendar, reminding the body that the items on the Consent Calendar are scheduled to be voted on during the business session of Tuesday morning.

The Report of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, was presented for information by The Reverend Ed McDowell, Chairperson of the Council. Rev. Jim Knowles-Tuell, Conference Treasurer, presented several corrections to the Funds Summary for Equitable Compensation. The changes were: the Year-to-date Apportioned Income was increased from $344,806 to $496,658; Other Income was increased from $13,670 to $19,606; Actual Expense was increased from $472,061 to $622,007; and the Current Balance was increased from $40,022 to $47,864. That correction having been offered, final action to adopt the budget was scheduled for Wednesday.

Betty Walker, chair of Committee on Resolutions and Appeals, reported that there were no pre-conference resolutions. She reminded the body that any resolutions must be submitted before the end of the afternoon session and also reminded the body that any person offering a resolution was responsible for providing enough copies to distribute to the members of the annual conference. Any such resolution would be distributed at the beginning of the following day's session. The Committee was scheduled to meet following the close of the current session (Monday afternoon).

The Commission on Equitable Compensation report was presented by Dr. Kenneth Mufuka, chairperson of the Commission. The commission recommended a minimum cost of living raise of $600 for all full-time clergy for 2010. The recommendation was approved by a vote of the body. Dr. Mufuka directed the attention of the conference to Report Number 4, highlighting the increasing number of clergy receiving equitable compensation, and the accompanying increase in costs.

Dr. Mufuka then invited Rev. Robert Cannon to present the proposal for Ministry with Hispanic/Latino People (Section F in the Report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation). He began with editorial changes: adding an "e" to "Report Number 3, Part 3" in line 14 of the report in the pre-conference materials, making the corrected notation, "Report Number 3e, Part 3", and adding "In limited circumstances" to line 51 making the corrected sentence, "In limited circumstances, equitable compensation shall provide up to a yearly maximum of $4,000 to supplement the support provided by the district."

Dean Maples, Lay Member, Pickens Charge, (Anderson District) asked what impact this proposal might have the direct billing expense for other churches. Rev. Cannon responded that he foresees no real impact on other churches. Mr. Maples asked how this proposal would be funded. Rev. Cannon responded that it would be funded through the Equitable Compensation apportionment. There being no further debate, Bishop Taylor called for a vote, and Section F of the Equitable Compensation report was adopted. The report was concluded, and the report as a whole was received by the body.

The Reverend Ed McWilliams, Chair, presented the report of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Bill Newhart from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits was recognized.

The Pension Section (Reports 1-3) was presented to the body. There were no corrections to the report. An opportunity for questions was given; none were asked. The recommendations of the Board were approved by the body.

The Group Insurance Section (Reports 1-6) was presented to the body. Rev. Don Clendaniel, Clergy, Grace (Charleston District) asked about a denominational healthcare plan. Mr. Newhart said this was considered by a committee at the 2008 General Conference and it was deemed unfeasible. Rev. Noble Miller, Retired Clergy, asked about premium increase in 2010. Rev. Anderson said that there is a 10% increase in premium for retired clergy for 2010. The recommendations of the Group Insurance Section were adopted by the body.

The Reverend David Anderson, Administrator of Conference Benefits Office, presented a Special Report on the Mail Order Pharmacy. The report was received by the body. Anita Bozardt, Clergy, Kershaw Charge stated that Medco in relation to insulin by mail has been a concern of hers. Mr. Anderson responded that this concern will be relayed to the general board.

Rev. Anderson presented a second special report, the Retiree Health Liability Funding Plan. Rev. Anderson noted that the development of this plan was required of all annual conferences by the 2008 General Conference. He made an editorial change to his report changing the years on lines 53 and 54 to 2015 and 2016 respectively.

David Braddon, Lay Member, Bethany, Summerville (Charleston District) proposed an amendment to paragraph seven changing the word "surcharge" to "fair-share apportionment" and adjusting the effective dates by delaying the start to 2013 and each year following by one year.

Rev. George Olive, Antioch, Conway (Marion District) spoke in opposition to the amendment. Mr. John Redmond, Lay, Buncombe St. (Greenville District) asked for a cost comparison between the Board's proposal and the Braddon amendment. Rev. Anderson said the total cost to the Annual Conference will be the same with either proposal, and gave some further information about the costs related to either the original proposal or the Braddon amendment.

Rev. Jim Knowles-Tuell spoke in favor of the Braddon amendment.

The discussion was tabled at 5:43 PM, announcements made, and the session was adjourned at 5:46 PM.

A Resolution Designating Fork Creek United Methodist Church a United Methodist Historic Site

Whereas, The Fork Creek United Methodist Church was organized in 1784 as Knight's Meeting House, and is therefore one of the oldest Methodist congregations in South Carolina, and

Whereas, Fork Creek's congregation has met on its present site since 1792, and

Whereas, The Fork Creek Church was responsible for the founding of several churches in Chesterfield County, and has played a central role in the life of western Chesterfield County, and

Whereas, Fork Creek was the site of Bishop William Capers' conversion and acceptance of his call to ministry, and

Whereas, For all of these reasons, the Commission on Archives and History of the South Carolina Annual Conference recommends that the Fork Creek United Methodist Church be designated a historic site of the South Carolina Conference, now, therefore, the Board of Pensions to hold regional or district meetings prior to the 2010 Annual Conference, and directing the Board to present 3 clear options to the annual conference in 2010. The motion was seconded. Rev. Roger Gramling, Columbia, raised a Point of Order, suggesting that the Houston motion was actually a motion to defer. Rev. Houston amended his motion, presenting it as a motion to defer to 2010 Annual Conference, together with a direction to the Board of Pensions to hold regional meetings and present three options to the 2010 annual conference. The revised motion was seconded. Bob Huggins, Clergy, Trio Charge, spoke in favor of the Houston motion to defer. Frank Buie, Retired Clergy, spoke in favor of the motion to defer. Rev. Carol Cannon brought the report of the Board of Church and Society. Rev. Cannon introduced the Rev. Clayton Childers of the General Board of Church and Society, who brought greetings to the annual conference and recognized Rev. Ernest Etheredge, one of the Directors of the Board. Rev. Cannon then presented “A Resolution Calling for the South Carolina Annual Conference to Begin Combating Human Trafficking”. Rev. Cannon moved the adoption of the resolution. Rev. Paul Gasque, Trinity/Berea Charge, Marion District, spoke in favor of the resolution, offering a friendly amendment to the resolution in the resources section by adding the agency International Justice Mission (www.ijm.org). Rev. Cannon accepted the amendment on behalf of the Board. The resolution was adopted as amended, and is as follows:

Be it Resolved, By the South Carolina Annual Conference, meeting in Florence, South Carolina, June 2009, that Fork Creek United Methodist Church is hereby designated a historic site of the South Carolina Conference, to be registered with the General Commission on Archives and History.

A Resolution Calling for the South Carolina Annual Conference to Begin Combating Human Trafficking

Whereas, Human trafficking is defined as a modern-day form of slavery, in which victims are subjected to force, fraud, or coercion for the purpose of sexual exploitation or forced labor (U.S. Department of Health & Human Services “Human Trafficking Fact Sheet”); and

Whereas, Human trafficking generates $9.5 billion annually and is the fastest-growing type of criminal activity in the world today (U.S. State Department’s Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons; The Polaris Project); and

Whereas, As many as 27 million people in the world today are victims of human trafficking (Sociologist Kevin Bales, “Disposable People”); and

Whereas, Some 600,000 to 800,000 victims are trafficked annually across international borders worldwide, with about 14,500 to 17,500 of those trafficked into the United States (U.S. Department of State); and

Whereas, An estimated 200,000 American children are at high risk for trafficking into the sex industry each year (The Polaris Project); and

Whereas, All people are created by God and in the image of God (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, God is a God of justice (Isaiah 61:8), who calls on His people to work for justice and to defend the oppressed (Isaiah 1:17), and blesses those who work for justice (Psalm 106:3); and

Whereas, God hears the cries of the oppressed (Psalm 10:17-18); and

Whereas, Jesus Christ defined His mission as ministering to the poor, the captive, the ill and the oppressed (Luke 4:18-19); and

Whereas, The General Board of Church and Society of the United Methodist Church has studied the issue of human trafficking while participating in the U.N. Commission on the Status and Role of Women; and has endorsed and promoted the “Rescue and Restore” initiative of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; and has publicized the Trafficking Information and Referral Hotline: 1-888-3737-888; and

Whereas, The United Methodist Church’s 2008 Book of Resolutions calls us to educate ourselves about this issue and work for its eradication; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church encourage its members and churches to join in fighting against all forms of human trafficking, in working to rescue and restore its victims, in promoting vigorous laws and prosecution of perpetrators, and in working to reduce the demand for trafficked persons. And be it further

Resolved, That the following action steps are suggested:

- Educate yourself and others. Resources include the following:
- U.S. State Dept. Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons: www.state.gov/g/tip
- U.S. Dept of Health and Human Services: www.acf.hhs.gov/trafficking/
- International Justice Mission: www.ijm.org
- Coalition Against Trafficking in Women: www.catwinternational.org/
- The Polaris Project: www.polarisproject.org/
- ECPAT International: www.ecpat.net
- Not For Sale: www.notforsalecampaign.org/
- Pray for victims to be freed and restored, for demand to be reduced, and for perpetrators to stop their evil deeds.

- Work with other churches and denominations in supporting the provision of safe houses for victims of human trafficking.
- Call on all people to recognize their particular responsibility to raise awareness of the issues involved in human trafficking.
- Observe the "National Day of Human Trafficking Awareness" on the Sunday before January 11 each year.
- identify advocacy groups and consider contributing financially to the work of freeing victims of human trafficking.
- Determine what services are available locally for runaway teens (who are particularly vulnerable to traffickers) and how you can support these services.

Next, the Rev. Ed McDowell, Chair, brought the report of Council on Finance and Administration, moving the adoption of the 2010 budget, with corrections made during the Monday session. Rev. Mike Bruce, Aldersgate, Greenville moved to amend Report Number 7 by removing "both" from the first sentence and adding "and the Methodist Homes Residents Assistance Fund has been reduced by 6.7% compared to the 2009 budget." He also moved to remove "Both of" from the second sentence. Finally, he moved to remove "in the amount of $223,690" from the final sentence. The Bishop called for a vote and the amendment was supported by the body.

Rev. Roger Grambling, Columbia, asked for an update on the repayment of the loan from the Permanent Reserve Fund, taken in order to purchase a new Episcopal Residence. He also asked if the Episcopal residence is being inspected annually. Rev. Jim Knowles-Tuell responded that over the course of the past three years $50,000 per year has been restored to the Reserve Fund. He reported that another $50,000 will be repaid at the end of 2009, which will finish repaying the $200,000 loan. Rev. McDowell reported that the annual inspection was made last year, but has not yet been done in 2009. No other questions or speeches being offered, the entire budget was moved for adoption, and was approved by the body.

Jeff Barham, Conference Chancellor, expressed appreciation for the opportunity for continuing legal education and networking opportunities with other Annual Conference Chancellors. He lifted up the importance of incorporating local churches and frequent review of insurance policies. Mr. Barham moved the adoption of "A Resolution to Create a Cemetery Endowment for the Perpetual Care of the Cemetery of the Discontinued Asbury Clark United Methodist Church", on behalf of the Trustees of the Annual Conference. There was no discussion. The Bishop called for a vote and the resolution was adopted and reads as follows:

A RESOLUTION TO CREATE A CEMETERY ENDOWMENT FOR THE PERPETUAL CARE OF THE CEMETERY OF THE DISCONTINUED
ASBURY CLARK UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Whereas, The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church (the "Conference") discontinued Asbury Clark United Methodist Church ("Asbury Clark UMC"), of the Anderson District and located in Anderson County, South Carolina, during its annual session in 1988; and

Whereas, The discontinuation resolution of the Conference directed, among other things, that the Board of Trustees (the "Board") of the Conference assume control of the property, that the Board create a cemetery association for the care of the cemetery of the discontinued local church, and that the Board make disposition of the property; and

Whereas, The Board has sold two parcels of land from the property of the discontinued local church and deposited the net proceeds from the sales with the Treasurer of the Conference as the Custodian of funds entrusted to the Board; and

Whereas, The Board has determined that the creation of a cemetery association by the Board is neither feasible nor in the best interest of the Conference; however; the Board believes the cemetery can best be cared for by the establishment of a cemetery endowment for the care and maintenance of the cemetery and by the selection of a volunteer caretaker church in the local area; and

Whereas, Sufficient funds are available from the sales of the two parcels of property to create a permanent endowment for the perpetual care of the cemetery and to prevent a financial burden to the caretaker of the cemetery; and

Whereas, The Board recommends that a permanent cemetery endowment be established through the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation; and

Whereas, The Board recommends conveying the cemetery and the residual property adjacent to the cemetery (collectively referred to herein as the "Cemetery Property") to a volunteer caretaker church; and

Whereas, Until the selection of a volunteer caretaker church, the Board will continue to act as the caretaker for the Cemetery Property; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Board is hereby authorized to take any and all actions necessary to establish a permanent endowment with the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation for the care and maintenance of the Cemetery Property; and be it further

Resolved, That the Board is authorized to direct the transfer of $125,000.00 to the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation to establish the corpus of the cemetery endowment; and be it further

Resolved, That the Board is authorized to convey the Cemetery Property to a volunteer caretaker church; and be it further

Resolved, That any two officers of the Board are authorized to execute any and all documents necessary to effectuate the creation of a cemetery endowment for the care and maintenance of the Cemetery Property and to convey the Cemetery Property to a volunteer caretaker church.

Mr. Barham then moved the adoption of "A Resolution Approving the Discontinuation of Cainhoy Methodist Church and the Disposition of its Property", on behalf of the Trustees of the Annual Conference. There was no discussion. The Bishop called for a vote and the resolution was adopted by the body, and reads as follows:

A RESOLUTION APPROVING THE DISCONTINUATION OF CAINHOY METHODIST CHURCH AND THE DISPOSITION OF ITS PROPERTY
Berkeley County, South Carolina
Charleston District, South Carolina Conference

Whereas, The history of Cainhoy Methodist Church ("Cainhoy Church"), as reflected in the archives of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church ("South Carolina Conference"), is uncertain; and

Whereas, Cainhoy Church appears on an 1895 district map of the Charleston District but may have been closed by 1900. In 1934, the church was reopened as part of the Charleston Mission. In 1938, Cainhoy Church was shifted to the McClellanville Charge of the Kingstree District. In 1941, Cainhoy Church and Mt. Pleasant Church were placed on the Mt. Pleasant Charge. In 1942, the Mt. Pleasant Church was moved to the Charleston District, but no mention is made in the Conference Journal for that year of Cainhoy Church. No other information is known; and

Whereas, The archives of the South Carolina Conference do not show that Cainhoy Church was ever closed by official action of the annual conference; and

Whereas, It has come to the attention of the Board of Trustees for the Charleston District and the Board of Trustees for the South Carolina Conference ("Conference Board") that there is a parcel of land, approximately one acre in size, with a cemetery in Berkeley County, South Carolina, which is believed to be the remaining property of Cainhoy Church ("Cainhoy Property"). No buildings are on the Cainhoy Property; and

Whereas, It is appropriate that official action be taken with regard to the existence of Cainhoy Church and with regard to the disposition the Cainhoy Property; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That, to the extent that Cainhoy Church was never discontinued by official action of the annual conference, Cainhoy Church is hereby discontinued; and be it further

Resolved, That, to the extent that the South Carolina Conference has a property interest in the Cainhoy Property, the South Carolina Conference authorizes the Conference Board to make disposition of the Cainhoy Property; and be it further

Resolved, That the South Carolina Conference hereby authorizes any two officers of the Conference Board to execute any and all documents necessary to effectuate the disposition of the Cainhoy Property.

Mr. Barham then moved adoption of "A Resolution Regarding the Disposition of the Property of the Discontinued Center Methodist Episcopal Church, South," on behalf of the Trustees of the Annual Conference. The Rev. James Ellis Griffith, Spartanburg District, asked about the plans for the cemetery. Mr. Barham responded that he thinks there is every intention on the part of the Board to preserve the integrity of the cemetery. There being no further discussion, the Bishop called for a vote and the resolution was adopted by the body, and reads as follows:

A RESOLUTION REGARDING THE DISPOSITION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE DISCONTINUED
CENTER METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH
Oconee County, South Carolina
Anderson District, South Carolina Conference

Whereas, In 1934, Center Methodist Episcopal Church, South ("Center Church"), located in Oconee County, South Carolina, near the Oakway Community, was discontinued by a predecessor annual conference of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church ("South Carolina Conference"); and

Whereas, The Conference discontinued Center Church but made no direction concerning the disposition of the property of the discontinued Center Church (the "Property") other than to "place the property under the care of the Townville Quarterly Conference"; and

Whereas, While the Townville Quarterly Conference is no longer in existence, no provision for the disposition of the Property was apparently made; and

Whereas, Very little is known about the history of the property since 1934; however, various volunteers and local churches have apparently provided upkeep to the Property through the years; and

Whereas, The Property has approximately two and one-half (2.5) acres of land, a one-room, wooden frame church building, and a cemetery; and

Whereas, A visit to the Property by members of the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Conference (the "Conference Board") reveals that deceased persons have been buried in the cemetery since 1934, including within the last several years; and

Whereas, It is appropriate that the South Carolina Conference take whatever action may be necessary with regard to the Property; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That, to the extent that the South Carolina Conference has a property interest in the Property, the South Carolina Conference authorizes the Conference Board to make disposition of the Property; and be it further

Resolved, That the South Carolina Conference hereby authorizes any two officers of the Conference Board to execute any and all documents necessary to effectuate the disposition of the Property.

With the adoption of the resolution, Mr. Barham concluded his report.

The Rev. Smoke Kanipe, Vice-Chair of the Board of Camps and Retreats Ministries, brought greetings on behalf of the board and staff of Camps and Retreats. Rev. Kanipe invited participation at the dedication of the new and revitalized facilities at Asbury Hills, June 7, 2009, and participation in the online survey regarding Camp Sewee (found at www.surveymonkey.com/sewee) until June 15, 2009. Rev. Kanipe invited the members of the annual conference to continue enjoying Asbury Hills. He then presented a video from Camps and Retreats Ministries.

After announcements, the body entered into a lunch recess at 12:12 PM.

The Fourth Day – Wednesday Afternoon June 3, 2009

The session resumed at 2:08 PM. The Bishop requested that the Annual Conference Secretary send a note to the Rev. Jim Gadsden noting that he was missed and wishing him well. She then recognized delegates who have been attending Annual Conference for fifty or more years and those who attended for the first time this year.

Dr. Joseph E. Heyward, Annual Conference Lay Leader, presented the report of the Board of Laity. Dr. Heyward expressed appreciation for the members of the Board of Laity, particularly the seven newly minted District Lay Leaders. He told the body that The Hope for the Children of Africa Choir will be in South Carolina July 1-12, 2009 and churches are being solicited to host them for a concert. Dr. Heyward offered a motion that all churches be asked to take up a love offering on July 5, 2009 in support of their orphanage. Checks should be sent to the Conference Office. It was seconded. There was no discussion. The Bishop called for a vote and the motion carried. Dr. Heyward asked that his written and oral report be ordered to record, and it was so ordered.

Dr. Carolyn Briscoe called attention to the fact that Dr. Heyward was elected President of the Association of Southeastern Jurisdiction Lay Leaders. The annual conference expressed appreciation for Dr. Heyward's work.

Reverend Quay Adams, Dean of the Cabinet, began the Report of the Cabinet by thanking Bishop Taylor for her leadership. Reverend Adams stated that the Cabinet feels that the members of the South Carolina Annual Conference must be faithful and bold, rethinking church, in order to respond to God's call for us to make disciples for Jesus Christ. A video about "rethinking Church" was presented. Rev. Adams noted that these are economically-challenging times and said it is the Cabinet's prayer that the economy will not be an excuse to refrain from ministry, but will serve as a challenge to congregations to minister in creative ways. Rev. Adams affirmed local churches and conference staff for service in ministry, particularly the development of the Congregational Specialists ministry and the increase in apportionment giving. The Cabinet has been investing time and energy in continued development for the purposes of continually improving their shepherding in order that they may continue to superintend faithfully. The report was received by the body.

The Reverend Tim McClendon presented Chargeline Changes. These changes are reported in Business Question 16 in the 2009 Journal. These changes were received by the body.

Rev. McClendon offered resolutions to discontinue three churches within the conference. "A Resolution to Discontinue Bethel United Methodist Church" was presented, and the body expressed gratitude for the ministries of Bethel church, and recognized those in attendance with connections to that congregation. Report No. 4

- A. The compensation for the District Superintendents for the year 2010 will be set at $88,200.
- B. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% ($13,230) of the district superintendent's salary for the year 2010 as allocated for parsonage utilities and maintenance, not including maid service and such expenses as paid by the district.
- C. The District Administration Fund will be handled as follows:
 - 1) The item "Office Expense" in the District Administration Fund will be for the operation of the District Office to pay such items as secretary, postage, and supplies and will be set at $21,000 per district.
 - 2) Exceptions: Inasmuch as the Columbia District Office must be in The United Methodist Center, one-half of that office rent will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund. Inasmuch as the Columbia District superintendent is designated as the Cabinet secretary, one-half of the salary and benefits of the secretary in that office will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund.
 - 3) The funds for program in each district are based on the membership of the district, beginning with a base of $3,500 for the smallest membership district and adding $100 for each one thousand (1,000) members, or major fraction thereof, above 15,000. The schedule for 2010 will be as follows:

	Membership	Amount
Anderson	15,259	$3,500
Charleston	25,278	$4,500
Columbia	31,980	$5,200
Florence	19,180	$3,900
Greenville	20,871	$4,100
Greenwood	16,576	$3,700
Hartsville	19,965	$4,000

- 4) Travel (in and out-of-district) is set at $138,000 for the total of all districts, plus $6,000 for the common lodging and meal expenses of retreats. In addition, insurance & pensions is set at $288,000 ($24,000 per district), and continuing education at $500 per superintendent.
- 5) Vouchers for continuing education must be approved by the District Committee on Continuing Education prior to payment. The unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance may be carried forward from year to year during a district superintendent's tenure, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's Continuing Education allocation. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when a district superintendent leaves the superintendency. It does not carry forward to the new district superintendent. However, by application to the CF&A in advance of leaving the superintendency, the district superintendent may within a reasonable length of time use the unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance to take training that would assist in his/her return to the parish ministry or other appointment. For the year in which there is a move, one-half of the Continuing Education allowance will be available for each superintendent.

- D. Each District Board of Trustees shall administer all funds for the District Parsonage Fund, which provides funds for parsonage payments, repairs, insurance and furnishings (not to include parsonage utility payments). The moving expenses of an in-coming district superintendent may also be paid from the District Parsonage Fund, not to include more than $350 packing expenses. Each district office shall provide its trustees with regular reports of all receipts and expenditures of the District Parsonage Fund.

Report No. 5

- A. We call attention to the "Special Days" designated by the Book of Discipline and recommend that they be observed with appropriate free-will offerings and that the following special observances be a part of the program of each local church.
- Human Relations Day – January 17, 2010
 - Golden Cross Sunday – February 7, 2010
 - One Great Hour of Sharing – March 14, 2010
 - Native American Awareness Sunday – April 18, 2010
 - Peace with Justice Sunday – May 30, 2010
 - Epworth Children's Home
 - Mothers' Day – May 9, 2010
 - Work Day – September 12, 2010
 - Church school offering first Sunday each month
 - Aldersgate Special Needs Sunday – August 8, 2010
 - Youth Service Fund Sunday – September 19, 2010
(youth offering)
 - World Communion Sunday – October 3, 2010
 - Conference Advance Specials Sunday – November 7, 2010
 - United Methodist Student Day – November 28, 2010
 - Global AIDS Awareness Sunday – December 5, 2010
- B. An offering may be taken to support the Bessie Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund as a part of the observance of Women in the Pulpit Sunday, March 7, 2010.
- C. We offer the following recommendations:
- 1) That all boards, commissions and committees receiving funds from the conference treasurer shall submit with each voucher adequate supporting data (receipts, bills, contemporaneous travel log, etc.).
 - 2) That boards, agencies and conference institutions which are allowed to withdraw lump sums from the conference treasurer shall submit an annual audit (with management letter) by a certified public accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration, along with evidence of fidelity insurance coverage.
 - 3) That all boards, commissions and agencies of the conference reimburse persons at a rate of 24 cents per mile when traveling on conference business. In order to encourage car pooling, we recommend that if a car contains two persons traveling on church business, the mileage rate be increased to 32 cents; if a car contains three or more persons all traveling on church business, the rate be increased to 40 cents per mile. Pastors who are members of such agencies should submit reimbursement requests to their appointed church or charge for the difference between their conference reimbursement and the approved IRS mileage rate, since participation in the ministries of the district and conference is an expected responsibility of all appointed pastors. Conference employees will be reimbursed at the approved IRS mileage rate for 2010 when traveling on church business. We recommend that other expenses for travel on church business be paid. We also recommend that the guideline amount paid to a person for meals shall be $4.00 for breakfast, $6.00 for lunch and $10.00 for the evening meal.

- 4) That each charge place in its budget an amount of at least $500 per year to be used by the pastor as a continuing education fund, and that if the full amount is not used in a given year, the unused portion may be carried forward from year to year during the tenure of a pastor, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's continuing education allowance. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when there is a change of pastor. It is also recommended that the health insurance premium be paid by the local church directly to the Office of Ministerial Affairs; if it is done on a salary reduction basis, the amount must be included in the charge conference worksheet which itemizes compensation and benefits for 2010.
- 5) That the balance held for each board, commission, committee or agency on the books of the conference treasurer shall be carried forward from one year to the next and that this shall be taken into consideration in the subsequent budget request.
- 6) That conference boards and agencies may not spend in excess of funds received on budget for the given conference year, except that funds carried forward may be spent in addition to funds received in the current year if such carryover funds were included in the budget presented to CFA. Any expenses beyond the combination of anticipated receipts (based on previous-year percentage of payment) plus budgeted carryover funds will not be paid by the treasurer.
- 7) That "average net funds" as used in the calculation of 2010 apportionments shall mean for each church the four-year average of net funds in the years 2005, 2006, 2007, and 2008. When a church has declined for two consecutive years in "net funds," the term "average net funds" shall mean the average of the last two years only; the first year net funds increases, a three-year average will be used, and the following year the normal four-year average. Newly organized churches will be treated in the same manner as other churches of the conference. A four-year average of net funds will be used, but for the years prior to the organization of the new church, the net funds figure will be zero.
- 8) That "net funds" be defined as the total of figures reported on lines 64 through 72 (inclusive) of Table II.
- 9) That once the apportionments are calculated from Table II statistics for any given year, those apportionments cannot be altered. Needed corrections can be made on Table II reports for use in future year calculations.
- 10) That the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Homes Residents' Assistance (item 12, Report No. 1) be divided 50% to Methodist Oaks (Orangeburg), 35% to Wesley Commons (Greenwood), 15% to Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee (Florence); that the funds received on the apportionment for Senior College Scholarship Fund (item 9, Report No. 1) be divided in three equal parts, one-third each going to Wofford College, Columbia College and Claflin College; that the funds received on the apportionment for Camps and Retreat Ministries (item 7, Report No. 1) be distributed to the various Camps and Retreat Ministries as determined by the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina United Methodist Camps and Retreat Ministries.
- 11) That the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to grant amounts up to $7,500 from the Conference Contingency Fund to meet any individual emergency or unanticipated need.
- 12) That the salaries and fixed essential expenses of the Conference Council on Ministries (section A-4 of the Conference Benevolences budget) be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund; the remainder of that budget will be funded at the percentage paid on the line item.
- 13) That the salaries and benefits portion of the Campus Ministry budget be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund; the remainder of that budget will be funded at the percentage paid on the line item.
- 14) That the budgets of the Director of Administrative Services, the Conference Archivist Contract and the Coordinator of Clergy Services be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund.
- 15) The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% of the salary for each conference clergy staff for the year 2010, exclusive of a designated housing allowance as allocated for utilities and maintenance, not including maid service.
- 16) That local churches of the conference incorporate, as recommended in The Discipline. A brochure prepared by the Conference Chancellor and the Cabinet is available from the district office to assist in this process. After incorporation, churches should take care to maintain with the Secretary of State, an accurate, up-to-date record of the name and address of their registered agent.

Report No. 6

A major reconstruction/repair project for the dam at Lake Junaluska was approved by the 2004 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference and has been undertaken by the SEJ Council on Finance and Administration. By action of the SEJ, each member conference had been asked to raise $.50 per member over a four year period. In 2008, the SEJ extended this request for another four years, due to cost overruns in the project. South Carolina's share would be approximately $121,000, or $30,250 per year. We ask each church within the South Carolina Conference to contribute $.125 per member during 2010, based on the membership as reported in the 2005 Report to the Annual Conference (statistical report).

Report No. 7

Due to the uncertainties of the economy, the recommended apportioned budgets for the Senior College Scholarship Fund and Spartanburg Methodist College have been reduced by 10% compared to the 2009 budget, and the Methodist Homes Residents' Assistance Fund has been reduced by 6.7% compared to the 2009 budget. These causes are significant ministries. Therefore, we ask those churches with sufficient resources to contribute what would have been asked for these funds if no reduction had been made. A voluntary asking calculated on the normal apportionment formula will be indicated on the bottom of the conference remittance form.

Report No. 8

Following is a listing of the 2008 Average Net Funds for each district for the total Conference. These are the figures used in the calculation of 2010 apportionments.

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The Council on Connectional Ministries is being intentional about its role of implementing our vision and purpose by following a process that focuses exclusively on mobilizing all resources of the conference to equip congregations to make disciples for Jesus Christ.

We have in place Guidelines for chairpersons that include their responsibilities such as: timeline for meetings; required meetings; responsibilities of chairperson; the basic responsibility of the board or agency; relationship with connectional ministry staff; funding cycle and some basic tips on how to run a meeting. This document was designed by several congregational specialists and presented as a training tool with chairpersons at the organizational meeting for boards and agencies.

Chairpersons are to complete grant requests forms by answering the following questions: Why is this program necessary? How does this program strengthen local United Methodist congregations? How does this program enhance the connectional bonds of the United Methodist Church? And what will take place if this program is successfully completed? These forms can be completed on line and submitted to the Grant Funding Committee for approval, then recommended to connectional ministries for approval.

Evaluation forms are placed on line for all chairpersons to evaluate programs that were implemented. The Grant Funding Committee will use these evaluations to help determine the effectiveness of programs in meeting the needs of congregations.

Our Congregational Specialists have been and are very busy as they strive to complete the many requests they are receiving from local churches for assistance. Most specialists have scheduled appointments months in advance and over the last two years they have had contact with more than 50% of our congregations. This is an indication that our churches are very receptive to our willingness to listen to their needs and provide needed assistance.

The 2008 session of the Annual Conference approved the request made by the African American Committee for a full time Congregational Specialists for African American Ministries. As a result of this action Rev. Ken Nelson has been appointed to this new position. Cathy Joens has been hired as a new Congregational Specialist.

As we continue to redirect our emphasis to equip local churches we move to become more effective in connecting local churches to ministries beyond themselves.

Earline Haywood Ulmer, Chairperson

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board of Church and Society continues to serve The United Methodist Church in South Carolina both as an advocacy arm and as a resource for local churches in coping with the many issues confronting them in their communities. Our task is to confront and change the obstacles that impede our efforts to make disciples for Christ for the transformation of the world.

Because quality education for the children of our state has been a major focus of this Board for some time, we have continued to keep education as one of our primary areas of advocacy for this year. In order for our citizens to be prepared to cope with the demands of the modern world, we believe a quality education should be available for everyone. We, therefore, support Goodbye Minimally Adequate, and we have applied for and received a grant to assist them in their efforts to communicate this need to the citizens of South Carolina. An inadequate education is a significant obstacle to fulfilling our mission of making disciples for Christ.

We also have an ongoing concern about the issue of payday lending and the destruction that it causes in the lives of the already struggling poor in our state. Engaging in ministry with the poor is one of the four areas of focus for the United Methodist Church, and the conditions which payday lending encourages are a definite obstacle in this ministry. We, therefore, continue to work with the United Methodist Women and other organizations to change the lending policies of our state. Current lending practices take advantage of our poorest citizens in order to benefit wealthier individuals. In order to address our church's area of focus on poverty, we must change the practices that perpetuate poverty.

In addition to these areas of advocacy, the Board has recently begun to address the issue of human trafficking. To that purpose, we have presented a resolution to this Annual Conference to address our concerns. Human slavery for whatever reason is unacceptable for any one of God's children. The church will have to face this objectification of human beings in order to bring Christ to both those who are buying and selling God's children and the individuals who are being used in such a manner.

In order to be the best possible resource for churches in the South Carolina Conference, the Board brought Rev. Clayton Childers, Director of Annual Conference Relations for the General Board of Church and Society, to provide training for its members. Members of the Board have now been trained to conduct workshops for local churches. In addition, Rev. Mike Vandiver, the Peace with Justice Coordinator, and Dr. Mary Lynn Polk, Chair of Board, along with 77 other chairs and coordinators from 48 conferences participated in an intense training session prior to attending the Quadrennial Training session in Jacksonville at the end of January.

There is much work to be done for God's people in the state of South Carolina, and the current economic climate makes that work even more challenging. The Board of Church and Society, however, is striving to address these tasks, and we look forward to continued work with local churches and other Boards and organizations to fulfill our mission of making disciples for Jesus for the transformation of the world.

Mary Lynn C. Polk, Chair

THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Conference Board of Education's Vision is: To be a vital resource for churches in the South Carolina Conference, to bring fresh, workable, and enabling ideas and challenges to equip churches to be places of learning, spiritual growth, and service in our world, while celebrating and fostering diversity and inclusiveness in support of making disciples for the world.

Throughout the year the Board of Education has attempted to become more a more hands on committee as we transition from activities led by conference staff with participation by Board of Education members toward a working board with minimal support from conference staff. The current board consists of the Children's Council, eChristianEd, Ministries with Families, and Older Adult Council. It has been discussed that we, the Board of Education, research the possibility and the need of reorganizing a Singles Council. Sentiment of continuing board members is that a singles ministry is needed and that a new board should undertake to reorganize the Singles Council or similar singles ministry.

The board provided scholarships equal to 80 percent of the registration fee for Bible study training offered by Cokesbury (Disciple, Christian Believer, etc.).

Board members also participated in conference wide implementation of the Safe Sanctuaries resolution, which took affect January 1st. That effort was spearheaded and fully supported by Willie Teague and the Council on Connectional Ministries.

The Board of Education heard reports from the Board of Camps and Retreats Ministries at each meeting and commended the board for its stewardship and plans for the future. The Board of Education also approved the nominees to the Board of Camps and Retreats Ministries.

A board which meets only twice a year with members from around the state will continue to struggle so long as adequate conference staff resources are not provided. At a time when Cokesbury has reduced its training events and Christian education is so important in the local church, we believe that the board should be resource helping churches to become leaders in knowing, understanding, and informing their people about effective Christian education materials and teaching methods at all age levels, and with the present resources available to the board, that is extremely challenging if not impossible.

A new quadrennium has brought with it new members, a new chairperson, and a fresh approach to dealing with the responsibilities of the Board of Education. We thank all members of the Board of Education for their faithful work this year and single out for special thanks the leaders of the councils: Dawn Compton, Ruth Arant, Bart Sistare, Betty Shuler, and Judson King, our congregational specialist Cathy Joens, our vice-chairperson Rhonda Jones, and our recording secretary Carol Singletary.

We thank and praise God for the extensive and effective efforts of the council chairpersons and their colleagues that made so many ministries and programs so successful this year. We are optimistic that the Board of Education indeed will become a more effective resource as it moves forward.

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

*Point your kids in the right direction –
When they're old they won't be lost.
(Proverbs 22:6, The Message)*

The goal of the Conference Council on Children's Ministries is to provide resources and support for local churches as they strive to point the children in their congregations and communities in the right direction - as followers of Jesus Christ. This year we have focused on two different areas. The first area was Vacation Bible School Training. We offered 9 total trainings throughout the conference. Some of these trainings covered the Camp EDGE literature from Cokesbury, some covered the On The Move literature from Cokesbury and some trainings covered both. Through these trainings we were able to reach nearly 300 people and provide assistance as they prepared for Vacation Bible School for the summer of 2009. We feel very positive that these trainings have been well received and are providing a needed ministry to help churches in this important aspect of Children's Ministry.

The second area we focused on this year has been weekday ministries with children. We have heard that there is a great need to help churches with this area, those who already have ministries in place and those that want to start these ministries. We begin the process of helping churches with weekday ministries by conducting a survey of congregations that have or are planning on having weekday programs and finding out the contact person for these ministries at the different churches. We have now moved to the second stage for this area and our council is in the process of contacting these people directly to discuss the various needs the ministries have in an effort to determine what needs appear most often. Once we have this data, we will begin developing programs or resources to help churches with weekday ministries.

If your church has weekday ministries with children and you are interested in some help from our council, please contact anyone on the council and we will add your request to our discussion. Our council has expanded its membership this year and we are excited about the energy and ideas our new members bring to the group. However, we still are in need of additional minority members and a few districts are still not represented. If you are interested in serving on this council, please contact me. We have a great group of council members who are very passionate about ministry with children. We are looking forward to continuing to point our children in the right direction and helping others in the South Carolina Conference to do the same.

Dawn Compton, Chairperson

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS FELLOWSHIP

The South Carolina Chapter of the Christian Educator's Fellowship is a professional organization in support of Christian educators in the South Carolina conference. The Fellowship (CEF) plans continuing education events, retreats, and general fellowship meetings for those called to the ministry of Christian education, both paid staff and volunteers.

The South Carolina CEF chapter sponsored a continuing education event in August 2008 entitled “Christian Education and Need Oriented Evangelism”. Approximately 70 pastors, educators and lay persons attended as the Rev. Dr. Michael Wolfe presented information and helpful suggestions concerning this issue of the Natural Church Development program. The National chapter of the CEF sponsored a conference in Albuquerque, NM in October 2008. 17 Christian educators from South Carolina attended of which 4 were workshop presenters.

Coming events for 2009 include a continuing education event in August concerning the issue of “Inspiring worship and passionate spirituality and Christian education.” The fall retreat, which also includes educators from the South Georgia and North Georgia chapters, will be held September 28-30 entitled “Beyond the Call: Keeping the Flame Alive”.

THE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES WITH FAMILIES

This has been a year of transition for the Council on Ministries with Families. After five years of immersion in the philosophy and methods of Family Ministry led by Dr. Roland Martinson, the Council has developed four comprehensive areas that will be offered via facilitators who will support congregations when invited into our local churches through your District Superintendent or your Conference Specialist. These facilitators are presently being trained to enter congregations with listening ears and discerning spirits as they guide congregations in discovering their potential for Family Ministry. The facilitators do not impose any preconceived program though they are prepared to suggest a number of available resources. Rather, they will listen to the congregation's concerns, celebrate their successes, and offer tailored support for that particular context. The support will be born out of the four areas of emphasis: Storytelling, Interacting with Integrity, Healing and Restoration, and The Baptismal Journey.

The Council on Ministries with Families is excited to have grown to this point and we are eager to empower and employ Local Church Facilitators into action. All who would like to be part of the Council, to be trained as a facilitator, or would like their congregation to be supported by a facilitator, should contact one of the Council members.

Rev. Bart Sistare, Convener

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES

In keeping with the focus on the local church and serving as an advocate for older adults in the South Carolina Conference, activities are planned to inspire, enrich, and equip older adults to be in ministry with one another as they serve God. Three local churches in the Charleston District experienced our ministry in April as we engaged in assisting them in repairing and giving a lift to their fellowship halls during the Mission Event. Working alongside older adults of the churches, we painted, built cabinets, and cleaned floors. Nineteen older adults from across the Conference participated in this activity.

The 2009 Spiritual Life Retreat was a time of inspiration and fellowship as we heard our Resident Bishop, Mary Virginia Taylor, as she shared the Wesley Heritage which is so relevant today. Very inspiring thoughts were shared at the Morning Prayer and Praise as the sun was rising in the East. Two hundred ninety seven persons attended the Retreat and enjoyed a special event this year as ten older adults provided entertainment ranging from solos to skits.

An intergenerational video, "Talk to Me", is being made which will promote better understanding of how each generation has experienced and used communication. It will be shared across the Conference with the hope that it will provide the beginning of discussion that will lead to a better understanding of intergenerational communication.

Plans are also underway for One-Day Events in each District so that more people will be able to participate in our activities.

Betty Shuler, Chairperson Council on Older Adults

THE DIVISION ON YOUTH MINISTRIES

The Division on Youth Ministries began a busy 2008 year with six Spiritual Life retreats in January and February...2 at Lake Junaluska and 4 at Springmaid Beach. Over 2000 youth and adults attended these Spiritual Life weekends that contained dynamic speakers and awesome music. These Spiritual Life weekends connected youth and youth workers together from around the conference helping them to understand what it is like to be a part of a connectional church.

A confirmation retreat led by Chris Hughes was held in January at Springmaid beach. In March and April many of our South Carolina confirmands participated in confirmation retreats at Lake Junaluska.

The 31st annual State Basketball Tournament was held the weekend of March 7-9 at Buncombe Street United Methodist Church in Greenville, South Carolina. The Reverends Jerry Temple and Jerry Hill lead the communion worship service for the participating teams. Over 750 youth participated in the three day tournament with over 2,000 youth and adults in attendance to support their teams.

June of 2008 brought a change of leadership to the Division of Young Peoples Ministries. After more than 28 years Mrs. June Willson retired from her position as staff person overseeing the youth programs of South Carolina. During the 2008 Annual Conference Mrs. Willson was recognized for her many years of service to this conference and this conference's youth. "Mrs. June", as she was affectionately called by the teenagers of the conference, touched the lives of many youth during her years of ministry. Many of those teenagers are now participating in some form of ministry in our local churches because of her influence on them.

A diverse group of teenagers from around the conference went to Washington D.C. in June for the Washington Seminar. Each year this group of youth explore a social justice theme that can bring information back to our local churches for education and ways to make effective change in our world.

June 24th was the beginning of camp for the Spirit Singers, which is a group of auditioned teenagers in grades 8-12 that perform in concert at churches around the conference. Auditions were held in March in Summerville, Marion, Greenville, and Columbia. The Spirit Singer which are comprised of 31 youth and perform under the direction of Kathy Jo Long. This group of youth spends a week at Spartanburg Methodist College learning a full service of music and then goes on tour to churches around the conference for four days. The Spirit Singers then perform at churches through out the year. In 2008 the Spirit Singers performed at the Methodist Oaks, Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee, Manning UMC, First UMC/Marion, and several other United Methodist churches across the conference.

The highlight of the Spirit Singers in 2008 was a trip to Italy, June 9-18. This group performed at St. Peter's Basilica, St. Angelo Spirito Methodist, and Duomo de Firenze in Florence, among other places in Italy. The Reverend Joe Long led Spiritual Growth Study, "Faith Journey-Italy" and the group did some site-seeing in such places as Rome, Florence, Sienna, Pisa, and Venice.

Youth Annual Conference was held at Spartanburg Methodist College July 7-11. 350 youth and 40 adults attended the week long event which included family groups, workshop, games, and worship. The Reverend Tiffany Knowlin brought an inspiring message to the teenagers each morning of the conference. The 2008-2009 Youth Network was selected through an interview process at Youth Annual Conference. Thirty- eight teenagers from across the conference were selected to serve on the Youth Network Committee. Candice Dennis of St. Mark UMC in Taylors was elect Chairperson of the Y-Net for the 2008-2009 year. The Youth Network group met in August at Ashland UMC in Columbia to plan for the 2008-2009 year. During this one day meeting the Y-Net planned for the upcoming Spiritual Life retreat for 2008-2009.

The Division on Youth Ministry is in the process of enhancing the ministries for youth in the upcoming year and looking at ways we can better connect and equip local churches for youth ministry. This July the event formerly known as Youth Annual Conference will become "Breeze" and will focus on discipleship for our teenagers in South Carolina. January 2010 will see the Spiritual Life retreat move from Springmaid beach to the Columbia Convention Center the weekend of January 22-24. This move will allow our teenagers to connect and experience powerful worship in one place.

The Youth Network group looks forward to the ways we can continue to share Christ to the World and to the youth of South Carolina in the year ahead.

Candice Dennis, Chair, Y-Net

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The Board of Evangelism has been intent in pursuing its responsibilities according to the Book of Discipline. The Book of Discipline says the board is to plan and promote comprehensive ministry for evangelism for persons of all ages. In an effort to promote evangelism, the board published a newsletter for and another will be published before Annual Conference. The Bishop's 5-Star Awards will be presented this year at Annual Conference, as will the Denman Awards for Evangelism.

The Bishop's BASH on March 15, 2009 served as a means to extend an invitation to committed discipleship for this year's confirmands. In addition to learning of polity and women's and African American influence in Methodism, confirmands had time with Bishop Taylor. This year they were also invited to show their intention to being Jesus' disciples by attaching their names to a central cross.

The Board of Evangelism began an ongoing relationship with the Foundation for Evangelism, an affiliate of the General Board of Discipleship. Rev. Kenneth Lambert, Director of Church Relations, spent a day meeting with the board and helping interpret, refine, and interpret evangelism. After a theological and biblical foundation, Rev. Lambert shared his research from interviews in growing churches across the nation and identified the common traits among them. In an effort to help the board be effective in its responsibilities to the conference and local churches, he proceeded to lead the board through a time of assessing conference, district, and congregational needs in the area of evangelism. One year and quadrennial goals for impacting evangelism were established. Subcommittees were formed and met at various times in the spring to put these goals into accessible and usable formats for districts and local churches.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. Dr. Kitty Cooper Holtzclaw

THE COMMUNITIES OF SHALOM

The South Carolina Communities of Shalom continue to seek to build community, weave unity and transform the world, one community at a time. Communities of Shalom are equipped local ministry teams in asset based and collaborative approaches to systemic change, economic prosperity, healing and health, and sustainability. The Communities of Shalom have adopted a six-point approach to community transformation that can easily be remembered by the letters of Shalom:

- S = systematic sustainable change
- H = healing, health, harmony and wholeness
- A = asset-based community development
- L = love for God, self and neighbor
- O = organizing for direct action
- M = multicultural, multifaith collaboration

South Carolina Annual Conference still maintains the largest number of Communities of Shalom (31) in the world and because of our history and work, we were blessed to be selected by the National Communities of Shalom Board to host the National Shalom Summit on October 29-31, 2009. We are expecting Communities of Shalom representatives from around the world to be present at this summit. Persons interested in attending can register at <http://www.communitiesofshalom.org>. The theme for the Summit is "Stepping Up To Shalom" and the South Carolina Communities of Shalom continues to step up for change. Yes We HAVE!

THE DISASTER RESPONSE COMMITTEE

Like so many other groups at the beginning of a new quadrennium, the past year for the Annual Conference's Disaster Response Committee has been marked by change. After a long and distinguished tenure as Chair, the Rev. Lee C. Bines "retired" from this role and the Board of Global Ministries selected a new Chair. We owe a great debt of gratitude to Lee for his long service and commitment to the goal of getting the local churches and districts to develop plans for the inevitable—the disaster that is not a question of "if it will happen" but, rather, "when it will happen." Thank you, Lee.

Consistent with the focus on the local church, UMCOR, at a national training event in November, rolled out a new set of training tools to enhance our ability to both help raise the consciousness level of local church leadership to the importance of preparing in advance for a disaster, through planning and training, and to in fact assist with the conduct of the planning and training processes. Over the coming year, a concentrated effort will be made by the Committee and through the District Disaster Coordinators to offer these tools to all of the churches in the Annual Conference.

As reported last year, a new Conference Disaster Plan is being prepared. However, we have taken some extra time to benefit from the experiences of several conferences that have recently experienced major disasters. We are also incorporating new learnings from our UMCOR consultants. At the same time, the new Chair has been busily getting up to speed by attending UMCOR and SEJ sponsored training events and developing strong connections to the South Carolina Emergency Management Division and the South Carolina Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (SCVOAD). In February, he was selected to be a member of the Executive Committee.

While we have been fortunate in that no major disasters have struck in South Carolina in the recent past, we did experience severe tornadoes in March 2008 in the Allendale/Bamberg area. Through the leadership of Billy Robinson, Early Response Coordinator for the SC Annual Conference, an early response team was on site in less than twenty-four hours, and team members from around the state continued for several days to fulfill their mission to make homes damaged by the tornado safe, sanitary, and secure. The system for notification, activation, and deployment worked!

The Conference year 2009-2010 promises to be a busy one for the Disaster Response Committee. We invoke your prayers and participation to make it a successful one as we work to bring all local churches and ministries of the Conference up to the necessary level of preparedness. We also pray that you will continue to volunteer your time and skill to filling our need for UMCOR Response Teams and UMCOR Recovery Teams, for possible deployment in South Carolina and to respond to needs in Conferences around the country and to disaster sites around the world.

Finally, we want to thank the congregations around the state that responded to the call last summer for flood buckets. More than 1,000 flood buckets were assembled and provided to the Sager-Brown UMCOR Distribution Center for use in relief of floods around the country. Thank you members of the South Carolina Annual Conference, and thank you Tony Rowell, UMCOR Coordinator, for personally collecting many of the buckets and getting them delivered!

George Olive, Chairman

SPARTANBURG METHODIST COLLEGE

Throughout my tenure as President of Spartanburg Methodist College, we have made many concerted efforts to claim and proclaim our relationship with The United Methodist Church. In addition to being accredited by the Commission on Colleges (COC) of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), the College is accredited by the United Methodist Senate. For many consecutive years, the College has hosted the Spirit Singers (the South Carolina Annual Conference United Methodist Student Choir), the Youth Annual Conference, and the annual meeting of the School of Christian Ministry of the United Methodist Women in the South Carolina Annual Conference. We are proud to partner with the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church in these important ways.

The College expresses its church-relatedness in many other ways. We have a full-time Chaplain of the College, the Rev. Candice Sloan. Chaplain Sloan also serves as our Director of Church relations. Our religious life program includes weekly worship services on campus, Bible studies, and a host of service projects in the community. Our Chaplain has also been assigned as the coordinator for the annual Freshman Day of Service project, held on the first full-day when freshmen students are on campus. Over 400 students, faculty, staff, and volunteers from the community are organized into teams of 20-25 and sent to over 20 locations in the greater Spartanburg area for the Day of Service. After returning to the campus for lunch together, the FDOS teams engage in conversations about the meaning of service and how it will become a hallmark of their experience as students at Spartanburg Methodist College. As the need arises, Chaplain Sloan teaches a course in religion.

The College has assigned specific duties to a member of our Institutional Advancement staff to coordinate the fundraising work of the College with the United Methodist Church. The Rev. Michael Bowers, Director of Gift Planning and Church Solicitation, has strengthened the relationship with the Annual Conference, The General Board of Global Ministries, and the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry by securing grants and gifts to support the work of the College. Mr. Bowers, a graduate of Spartanburg Junior College, has contributed to the advancement of the College not only by his professional work and through personal gifts to and leadership within the College community.

Chaplain Sloan, Mr. Bowers, and I participate in local United Methodist churches across the Conference each year. Whether it is through preaching the sermon, participating in the liturgy, assisting in the sacrament of Holy Communion, teaching in the churches' educational program, speaking at United Methodist Men and/or United Methodist Women events or arranging for the SMC Choir and/or the Troubadour Choir to perform, the College community is involved in various ministries in local churches throughout year. Furthermore, the College hosts numerous local church activities and District Meetings on campus. As President, I have spoken at many District Ministers' Meetings throughout the Annual Conference. In 2008, I was given the distinct privilege of being the keynote speaker at the annual "Presidents Luncheon," an event that is held each year during Annual Conference to recognize and underscore the unique relationship that exists between The United Methodist Church and the four United Methodist colleges in the Conference.

The College makes concerted efforts to recruit United Methodist students each year. Through the Discovery Days programs, special visits to local churches by Admissions Counselors, the President, the Chaplain and the Director of Church Solicitation, and the dedication of specific scholarship resources restricted to United Methodist students, the College continues to serve United Methodist youth. Each year, the College participates in the special scholarship program begun by the General Board of Higher Education in Nashville, Tennessee, to gather as much scholarship and grant resources as possible to support the enrollment of United Methodist students at our institution. For many years, the College has asked United Methodist ministers to recommend a student in good standing in their respective churches to receive an annual $1,000 United Methodist scholarship. The College also annually awards $1,500 scholarships to the children of United Methodist ministers who enroll at SMC. These specially designated scholarships are not based on academic ability or unique talents but have been established to assist United Methodist students reach their academic goals at Spartanburg Methodist College.

I am proud to report that the 2008-2009 academic year was a successful year in many ways. Our enrollment remained steady, our fundraising totals were strong, and our projections for the future of the College remain optimistic. At the time of the writing of this report, our enrollment for the spring semester 2009 is very good, and the projected enrollment of new students for the 2009 fall semester is ahead of the pace at the same time in the previous year.

The economic crisis in 2008-2009 has and will continue to impact the College in several ways. Our endowment resources have declined as the Stock Market has declined. This loss results in fewer dollars that can be used to operate the College. However, we are optimistic that this trend will be restored in future years as our Executive Committee considers and makes wise decisions in regards to the investment of these resources. Already we have learned that some parents of our students have lost their jobs and others have been forced to use the investments originally dedicated for their students' college education to meet more immediate family needs. As the nation works its way through the economic crisis, we continue to closely monitor enrollment, retention, and our investments. We are most grateful for the assistance provided by the United Methodist Church, and we pledge to you again our commitment to use these resources appropriately and wisely.

The relationship that the College has with the South Carolina Annual Conference is strong. I ask the leaders in the Annual Conference to join with College officials to further strengthen this partnership in higher education. The College needs a strong relationship with the Church to maintain its moral character, and the Church needs the College to maintain its emphasis on the importance of education in the mission of our faith.

One of the exciting things we are doing this year is the establishment of a President's Advisory Council. This Council will be composed of leaders in the Upstate and will assist the President to keep a finger on the pulse of community issues that may impact the College and, at the same time, position the College to respond to community needs.

This is a year of transitions at the College. After 11 years at SMC, our Dean of Students, Dr. Art Hartzog, is retiring on July 1, 2009. Dr. Hartzog has been a wonderful colleague, a trusted advisor, and a genuine friend to faculty and students alike. He developed an outstanding Student Development program at the College, including the creation of the curriculum for the SMC 101, 102, and 103 courses. These courses have become a model that other institutions have used to improve their work in Student Development. A search is underway to fill his position.

Mrs. Ann Wenz, Professor of Art, will retire from the College following the May 9th Commencement Service. The College will miss her great teaching talents and the many ways she contributes to the life and work of the College outside the classroom.

On July 1, 2009, I will retire as President of the College. It has been a wonderful and exciting 12-year experience to lead this wonderful academic community, and we have accomplished many things during my tenure at SMC. Many persons have expressed to me their appreciation for what I have accomplished at SMC. While I am grateful for their gracious compliments, we should remember that our excellent Board of Trustees and my wonderful team of colleagues on the faculty and staff also deserve recognition. I am grateful for the many friendships I have made and the wonderful colleagues with whom I have worked during the last twelve years. A search committee is at work to find the new leader for SMC. I will do everything I can to ensure a transparent and smooth transition for the College and my successor.

Allow me close this report by sharing a few personal reflections on the value of United Methodist higher education. I was born and raised in Asheville, NC and had a great formative experience in my home church, Trinity United Methodist Church. I earned four academic degrees from three United Methodist institutions: Associate in Arts at Brevard College, Bachelor of Arts at High Point College, and the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry at Emory University. In each of these great United Methodist institutions, I found myself in a wonderful community of scholars whose central mission was to educate and train persons to become responsible citizens and educated leaders in the church and in society. I found many role models as I studied with great churchmen and educators. Upon graduation from Emory University with the Master of Divinity degree, I served a one-year appointment as minister to Avery's Creek United Methodist Church in the Asheville District. However, in a short time I discovered that my ministry could best be carried out in the setting of Christian higher education.

For 37-years, I have served in various positions in three extremely strong United Methodist colleges: twelve years at High Point College, thirteen years at Brevard College, and twelve years at Spartanburg Methodist College. In each setting, I enjoyed many professional relationships that continue to be formative in my life. Any degree of success that I may have enjoyed in these institutions has its roots in United Methodism. My life and ministry have been shaped by persons in The United Methodist Church and especially through my varied experiences in Christian higher education.

The roots of my faith, the education I received, and my professional experiences I had at two other United Methodist colleges profoundly influenced my leadership as President of Spartanburg Methodist College. Building upon the imperative in our faith to serve others, I have endeavored to give shape and direction to Spartanburg Methodist to ensure that students, faculty, staff, Trustees and friends of the College are exposed to Christian values that influenced my life and made my journey so very interesting. I will be forever grateful for the opportunity that the Board of Trustees gave me to serve as President of this excellent institution. I retire knowing that whoever is chosen to follow me as President of the College will be God's instrument of leadership in this wonderful College community.

Deus Providet, God Provides, is the motto of Spartanburg Methodist College. With great confidence, I know that God will continue to provide spiritual guidance and direction for those who study, teach and lead at Spartanburg Methodist College. This is as it should be. Amen!

Blessings and Peace,

Charles P. Teague, President

THE BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

The Board of Health and Welfare continues to work to uphold the ministry of Christ and the tradition of John Wesley in the United Methodist Church, with the ministry of health and wholeness. This year, we focused on the mandate from the Annual Conference to make the work of Board and Agencies relevant to local congregations in accordance with the Conference Vision: To make disciples for Jesus Christ by equipping it's local churches for ministry and providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church, all to the glory of God.

In our current economic environment, it is imperative that we all work together to love and serve God and our neighbors in innovative and tangible ways as we seek to improve health and welfare in our communities. We continue to look for ways to share and celebrate the health and welfare ministries that are already part of so many of our local congregations. We encourage local churches to serve as resources for health and welfare-related ministries so that we can utilize our unique connectional relationship to improve holistic health in our communities across this annual conference.

In addition to seeking low-cost health and welfare interventions, we continue to oversee the funds provided through the annual Golden Cross offering and grant monies awarded for the purpose of eliminating barriers to worship. Through your generosity and commitment to the Golden Cross Offering, we were able to award $1552.89 for home maintenance, $3600 to assist three persons with their medical bills, and four $1000 scholarships for persons enrolled in healthcare and nursing programs. In addition to the local church offering, we received $907.48 from the Williams-Walker Trust Fund into the Golden Cross account. We continue to encourage every local church to observe Golden Cross Sunday on the first Sunday in February, each year.

The Programs sub-committee approved a request for $1000 for large-print Bibles to assist those with visual difficulties from Mount Zion UMC in Kingstree. They also approved a request for $1500 to co-sponsor the Dare to Dream workshop through Family Connections of SC for the purpose of providing education for churches on enhancing worship opportunities for families with children with special needs.

We continue to solicit and review nominations for the Board of Trustees of Epworth Children's Home, Wesley Commons, the Methodist Oaks, the Manor of the Pee Dee, and the Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry. These nominees are presented to the Conference Committee on Nominations and to the Annual Conference. The Board of Health and Welfare liaisons attend meeting of the Boards of the homes, and representatives from each of the homes gives a report to our Board during our bi-annual meetings. It is critical to maintain relationship with each of the homes and we remain pleased with the ministries offered by our homes and communities in these difficult economic times.

There are presently nine housing units allotted for retired clergy; four at the Methodist Oaks, three of which are occupied and one vacant; one at the Manor of the Pee Dee which is occupied; and four at Wesley Commons, which are occupied. The interest from the Elma Hill Endowment Fund helps maintain these retired clergy units. As of December 31, 2008 there was a balance of $90,071.75 in this endowment and $3511.33 was allocated in 2008 for maintenance. The current distribution of funds based on the formula is as follows: The Methodist Oaks (37%), Wesley Commons (42%) and the Methodist Manor (21%).

We remain thankful for the support and cooperation across this Annual Conference for the work of the Board of Health and Welfare, and covet your prayers and your ideas as we continue to live into the Conference Vision. May we be ever mindful that the need for health and welfare ministries becomes even more critical in tough economic times, and that we can make a difference in our communities and in our conference as we seek to live as disciples of the Christ.

Blessings,

Sandra Smith King, Chair

THE ALDERSGATE SPECIAL NEEDS MINISTRY

The mission of Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry is to develop and provide homes and services that will enable adults with developmental disabilities to live as independently as possible in a communal setting that ensures security, dignity, and a stable environment of physical, emotional and spiritual well-being. Aldersgate moved closer to the realization of this mission with the completion and opening of two homes over the past year.

The year has presented many challenges for the ASNM Board of Trustees, which along with meeting the many requirements for licensing of the homes, also included a change in our consultant and management organizations, and being certified by the state as a Qualified Licensed Provider of services. Many Board members gave considerable time to address these challenges, and were assisted by dedicated parents of our approved residents, as well as many friends of Aldersgate. Our accomplishments would not have occurred without the direct help of the Rev. James McGee (The Oaks), Mr. Ron Lofts (Orangeburg County Special Needs and Disabilities Board), Mr. Harris Davis (Housing Help Inc. of Orangeburg), and Mr. Scott Middleton (Agape Senior Services).

One major step in our progress was the hiring of our first Project Coordinator, Mrs. Edwina Jackson. Mrs. Jackson has guided us through regulatory requirements, hired and trained staff for the Columbia home, and will provide direct oversight of the Columbia Home. Mrs. Jackson established an office for ASNM at 731 Sims Avenue, Columbia, SC 29205.

A ribbon cutting was held on December 15, 2008, for the Builder's Care Home in Columbia, on a lot leased from the Epworth Children's Home. The construction of this home was a gift of the Home Builder's Association of Greater Columbia. Six female residents moved into the home in March of 2009.

The Aldersgate at the Oaks Home, located on the campus of The Oaks, a United Methodist Retirement Center in Orangeburg, was constructed through a grant received from HUD. Several individuals and churches in the Orangeburg area assisted with the furnishing of the home. This home for male residents will be managed by Mr. Ron Lofts. A ribbon cutting was held March 12, 2009 with the first residents moving in shortly thereafter.

The Aldersgate Ministry depends on the support of individuals and churches in order to provide quality services for adults with disabilities. Churches are asked to receive a special offering for Aldersgate on the second Sunday of August. New offering brochures, provided through a grant from the Central Carolina Foundation, are available to highlight the ministry of Aldersgate. The Board also gratefully acknowledges grants from the Ray Tanner Foundation, The Arkwright Foundation, and the SC State Housing and Development Authority.

Interest continues to develop concerning future sites for Aldersgate homes in Columbia, Greenville, Rock Hill and Florence, SC. With increased awareness of our unique ministry, continued support from many individuals and churches and definitely with the blessings of God, we will work to ensure that God's children with disabilities may "rest securely in safe dwellings."

EPWORTH CHILDREN'S HOME

Epworth Children's Home has completed 113 years of providing residential care for children from South Carolina who cannot remain in their own homes.

The primary goal of this annual conference mission is to provide a safe, nurturing, faith centered residential environment, where children who are not able to remain in their homes receive the best possible care, and are prepared to lead wholesome and productive lives.

During this conference year Epworth Children's Home:

- I. Continued to implement the CARE (Children and Residential Experience: creating conditions for change) model developed by the Cornell University Residential Care Project. This research based curriculum is based upon six underlying principles that form good residential group care. The Cornell University Residential Care team continues to train, and observe our staff members at regular intervals.
- II. Joined Cohort IV which is a group of 12 child care agencies in North and South Carolina. The University of North Carolina at Charlotte, in cooperation with the Duke Endowment, has implemented a program of outcomes research in residential treatment settings for children and youth. Through this outcomes based research we will be better able to determine what the most advantageous options are as we care for our residents.
- III. Averaged 79 children per day in the residential population plus four college students who live off campus. In addition, the Epworth Early Intervention Program averaged 18 children per week in a preschool program. This program serves children who are developmentally delayed. The EEIC program also served 46 families on a regular basis through its home based component.
- IV. Moved into year two of a Funds Development Plan that includes the goal of moving the current giving level of $4.74 per church member to $6.00 per member. In the calendar year 2008 church giving increased by $58,000. That is an increase of .26 per member. Three-hundred and five churches representing 40,723 members failed to respond to Epworth's financial appeals.
- V. Closed the elementary and middle school on campus and opened the after-school tutoring and enrichment center. All Epworth children now attend public schools in Richland District One.
- VI. Adopted a budget of $4,082,181 for the fiscal year 10-1-08 through 9-30-09. This is a reduction of $448,475 from the previous year's budget.
- VII. Established an Early Intervention Funds Committee that is charged with raising the amount of money each year that will enable the EEIC to operate at its current capacity.

The Epworth Board of Trustees after careful study reaffirmed the policy of reducing the amount received from the endowment fund each year by $200,000 until the maximum draw is 5%. The difference in the endowment funds revenue and operating costs is to be covered in increased donations and other revenues.

Revised mission, purpose and vision statements were adopted by the Board of Trustees. They are as follows:

Mission: The mission of Epworth Children's Home is to serve children, youth and families through a caring, accepting and safe Christian community, where hurts are healed; hope is nurtured; and faith in God, self and others is developed.

Vision: The vision of Epworth Children's Home is to provide superior services for the greatest number of individuals through competent, caring adults who are trained in the most effective, research based methods of child and family care.

Purpose: The purpose of Epworth Children's Home is to honor God and neighbor by breaking the destructive familial cycle of neglect, abuse and shame, and replacing it with an opportunity for each child to live a life of self respect, responsibility and productivity.

Only 10% of Epworth's income is generated from a combination of state and federal money, and fees for service payments. This is far lower than most other homes. It is largely through the generosity of South Carolina United Methodist that once again Epworth has been able to provide over four million dollars in fully subsidized services to children and families in South Carolina.

John E. Holler, Jr., President

THE METHODIST OAKS

The past conference year 2008-2009, has been a challenging year as we join with the rest of the world in reacting to the economic difficulties of our nation. At The Oaks initiatives have been put into place reducing costs and creating new revenue streams for the future.

- PACE – Our PACE program, started in March of 2008 is proceeding well serving over 30 participants. The Program for the All-inclusive Care for the Elderly is a federal program that uses both Medicare and Medicaid to care for the most frail and poorest of seniors who are still living in their own homes. Qualified seniors receive free transportation to and from a day-care site that provides nourishing meals, medical care, physical and occupational therapy, and socialization and community.
- Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry – The Oaks is one of the sites for this wonderful new ministry of the South Carolina Conference, having set aside four home locations on our campus. We expect the home to have residents in place by the time Annual Conference is held. The home will house up to six adult males. One of the first residents moved into Aldersgate and his mother moved into The Oaks. They will be close by and can visit often.
- Wellness at The Oaks - The Oaks Wellness program is extremely strong on campus with over 60% of our independent residents participating actively in the program. The heated, enclosed, pool and spacious cardio/strength and exercise rooms are improving the quality of life for many residents and staff. Our new Passport to The Oaks program allows seniors in the Orangeburg community to participate in our Wellness and Campus Life programs for a nominal fee each month. We have a waiting list waiting to join.
- Interpretive Nature Trail – In April of this year, The Oaks Interpretive Nature Trail was featured in South Carolina Wildlife Magazine as a site to visit. The Nature Trail is open to the public by appointment and is used by schools, scouts and others. Claflin University uses the trail as a training site for its Cross Country Team and as an Ecology Lab for the Ecology courses.
- The Oaks Home Services – In March of 2008, The Oaks initiated Home Services which serves residents on our campus and a five county area surrounding Orangeburg. Providing multiple non medical care needs allows people to stay in their homes and apartments as long as possible. Part of the Home Services offering is the use of passive monitoring technology to provide a level of comfort and social connection with family and friends. We have installed the system on our campus and provide non intrusive monitoring for a number of families.
- Elderhostel – The Oaks is working with Claflin University to establish an Elderhostel program using housing available on our campus. The program is in the formative stages at this point, but both The Oaks and Claflin are excited about the possibilities for the program in providing interesting educational programs for seniors throughout the nation.
- The Board of Trustees appreciates the support of the South Carolina Conference through apportionments, gifts and prayers. All are important in allowing us to maintain our ministry to the aging population.

Respectfully submitted,

David L. Coleman, Chair, Board of Trustees

THE UNITED METHODIST MANOR OF THE PEE DEE

In the wake of a faltering economy, The Methodist Manor was able to maintain a balance between resource demands and financial accountability that is required to continue its mission of providing quality housing and healthcare services to the elderly. This was accomplished in large part due to the solid foundation that was laid at the Manor's inception, a foundation that was built upon a commitment to quality care for those being served and good stewardship of the resources provided by those being served.

During the past year, the down turn in the real estate market created a halt to new construction and expansion in Asbury Village, the patio home community at the Manor. The number of patio homes at Asbury Village has grown and now consists of 36 homes. The capital to construct these homes is paid into the Manor by their occupants. The program to finance these homes provides that when an occupant vacates a home a portion of the capital contribution can be refunded from a capital payment made by the next occupant.

The Manor is undergoing a remodeling of its independent living apartments to upgrade them to the quality expected today by people seeking retirement housing. Refinements and improvements to service of residents have also been made to include a person- centered model for services that are delivered to residents. This new model for service delivery redirects the times and types of services being provided so that resident choices and convenience are incorporated. Management is infusing a new spirit of caring to enhance the quality of life of those who call the Manor their home.

The Manor is serving about 230 residents with an operating budget of approximately $6 million. The operating budget is funded primarily by service fees paid by the residents. The service fees are based on the level of service received by the residents. The Manor has a bonded indebtedness of $11.9 million as of December 31, 2008. Debt service payments on the bonded indebtedness are included in the annual operating budget of the Manor.

In the last year the South Caroling Methodist Conference contributed $84,396.00 to the residence assistance fund at the Manor. These funds are used by the Manor to assist those residents whose resources have been depleted and are now not adequate to meet their monthly service fees. There are currently four residents receiving assistance from this fund. The Manor also received $1,791.71 last year as its portion of the distribution from the South Carolina Methodist Conference Foundation and received $473.02 from the restricted endowment fund of the South Carolina Methodist Foundation which is held exclusively for the benefit of the Manor.

Lead by a Board of Trustees committed to the needs of older adults, the Manor will meet the challenges of an uncertain economic future and will continue to assess how its facilities and programs can be improved to meet the needs of its residents.

Wm. Frazier Jackson, Executive Director*

WESLEY COMMONS

Wesley Commons continues to be a blessed organization and we remain grateful for our Mission success and growth during this economic downturn. Currently, Wesley Commons is home to over 420 residents that are served by over 260 employees. The impact of this family of 690 individuals is not only evident on our campus, but across the greater community of Greenwood. Members of Wesley Commons can be found supporting organizations such as Lander University, Piedmont Technical College, Chamber of Commerce, Humane Society of Greenwood, and HospiceCare of the Piedmont to name a few. We are also working to better serve local youth through programs such as BEST, a mentoring program in our local elementary schools. Our campus is an impressive collection of caring and compassionate individuals who add great value to our local community.

Our waiting list for many of our neighborhoods remained steady throughout 2008. We continue to attract individuals from far and wide. With more than 80% of our residents moving to Wesley Commons from all areas of the Southeast, we have re-engineered our services and amenities to accommodate this booming population. Close involvement with our Resident Committees allows us to continuously fine tune the scope of our operations.

While 2008 showed a continued fine tuning of our operations, we remained proactive in our attempts to navigate through the beginnings of the current economic downturn. Our advancements have not come easy and are especially taxed by the current state of our economy. This year has been laden with many challenges which have tested our resolve. Yet, through determination, ingenuity, and keeping our focus on our core Mission, we have stayed the course. The negative indicators of our economy in both the financial and housing markets have had an impact on our future residents. In some cases individuals had to pass up their available position on our waiting list to move into Wesley Commons as a result of such issues. To assist our future residents and to enable better protection from the pain of this turn down, we continue to design and implement new options to enable them to make the right choice.

We remain humbled and honored to be reminded of our most important asset and blessing: our employees. God is good and has provided Wesley Commons with a wonderful team of dedicated and Mission oriented individuals, who pleasantly and compassionately serve our residents day in and day out. Currently, we have begun an awesome task of preparing our employees for our next major advancement in our Mission. It is our desire to retool and rethink how we deliver exceptional services to our current and future customers. We envision a campus which is based upon delivering much more individually focused service and support in a residential setting, as opposed to the current institutional standard prevalent in our country. Noting a shift in consumer demand for various services, we have embarked on a mission not only to redesign certain accommodations in our neighborhoods, but we are redesigning our entire delivery of Health Services.

As you can see, our Ministry to serve our elders continues to grow as a result of our expanding programs. Wesley Commons' current level of support is extremely taxing on our resources; our ongoing Ministry will not be possible without the constant support of our friends, such as the Conference. As our economy has been negatively impacted by this downturn, our requests for support have increased, while our donor funds have decreased. Our ability to continue to provide over $1 million of subsidized services to our residents each year is being tested and strained. With the Methodist Conference providing just over $192,177 of support in 2008, Wesley Commons' Operational funds made up the difference of that subsidy to those unable to pay for their care.

The support of organizations and individuals such as yourself will help us to continue to provide exceptional services to many through the Mission of Wesley Commons. We thank you for your continued financial support of Wesley Commons.

In His Way,

*Rev. John T. Miller, Chairman
David B. Buckshorn, President/CEO*

THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The lengthy paragraph 634 of the 2008 Book of Discipline outlines the work of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries (BHECM). With those Disciplinary requirements, the board fulfills its role with the South Carolina Annual Conference, the United Methodist related colleges and universities of this state, the various local Wesley Foundation Boards and Campus Ministers, as well as college students and local churches. Effective ministry with so many various constituencies demands a clear understanding of our current mission and role as a board and a common vision of our future work with our ministry partners. As this quadrennium begins, the BHECM is composed of many new members and we are seeking that clearer understanding and working toward a common vision.

In our work with campus ministry, we need to understand the board's role regarding Wesley Foundation programming and property issues. Here are some of our questions we hope to resolve: Who owns the Wesley Foundation property, and what oversight route should be taken for new buildings and improvements? What is the annual conference's future role in maintaining aging buildings that house Wesley Foundation ministries? What role does the local Wesley Foundation board play in fund raising and oversight and how can the BHECM equip local boards for effective ministry? Currently, the Annual Conference offers approximately 15% of its 2009 budget to higher education and campus ministry in South Carolina. How will the growing campus ministry program be funded adequately in the years to come?

Our work with higher education is just as challenging. As our United Methodist related colleges and universities seek quality students from across the nation, what can the colleges learn from the church and what can the church learn from the colleges? How can the United Methodist "brand" be part of the ethos of these institutions as they train and educate citizens for the future? Vibrant partnerships rooted in our common heritage are needed as we develop the college/church connection for the coming decades.

Your BHECM will be working on these questions and issues along with many more during this quadrennium. We ask for your prayers.

CLAFLIN UNIVERSITY

Having built upon the significant progress and achievements of the 2007-2008 academic year, Claflin University is pleased to provide an account of the 2008-2009 academic year in which the institution saw many notable firsts.

The University's student population remains steady with approximately 1,800 students enrolled. They come from 42 South Carolina counties and 24 states. Fifteen countries are represented through our international students. The 2008-2009 academic year marked the largest freshman class (462) in the institution's history, an 18.5% increase selected from our largest applicant pool (4,225) which is up 38.2%. The class also included 71 Honors College Scholars, up 16.4%.

In the inaugural list of "America's Best Colleges and Universities" by Forbes.com, Claflin University was the nation's Highest Ranking Historically Black College or University (HBCU), and ranked in the top four percent of all U.S. undergraduate institutions.

In addition to being included for the 11th consecutive year by U.S. News and World Report, as one of "America's Best Colleges," ranked number 13 in the Top Tier among Baccalaureate Colleges in the South, we were also ranked number seven for a second consecutive year in the publication's list of "America's Best Black Colleges."

A significant institutional achievement was the successful visit from the Commission on Black Colleges of the University Senate of The United Methodist Church in November. The University was recommended and approved for continued participation in the Black College Fund and affiliation with The United Methodist Church.

Resident Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor delivered the 2009 Founders' Day keynote address and gave a stimulating and informative speech on the early life of Lee Claflin; Claflin University is named for the philanthropist and his son, Massachusetts Governor William Claflin.

The 16th Annual Granville Hicks Academy for Laity and Clergy was held in February. Dr. Lee H. Butler of Chicago Theological Seminary and Dr. Reginald Davis, pastor of First Baptist Church of Williamsburg, Va., served as the faculty for the academy. Religious Emphasis Week also was observed in February and Melody Cooper, a Claflin graduate, was among the presenters.

With our strong and committed tradition of building character and instilling humanitarian values in each of our students, we take great pride in the outstanding community service achievements of our entire student body. For the 2008 Fall Semester, our students completed more than 15,000 hours of community service. For a third consecutive year, students were awarded first place by the national Kidney Foundation for sponsoring the most walkers in the annual Kidney Walk. As a result of the outstanding community service achievement and hours rendered to the community, Claflin University students were named for a second consecutive year to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll. Inclusion in the Honor Roll is bestowed in recognition of innovative and effective community service and service-learning programs. In addition, Claflin University students were recognized for having the largest number of donors among all HBCUs on the National Marrow Donor Registry.

This academic year also marked the launch of a new strategic marketing initiative, set to further position Claflin University as one of America's premier liberal arts institutions. The initiative was launched on Matriculation Day with a new brand and tagline – "The World Needs Visionaries" – leading the charge.

Our recognition for academic excellence has been in tandem with our enhanced global visibility. Our first Fulbright Scholar, Aundreta Conner Farris, a 2008 religion and philosophy graduate, traveled to Turkey this past fall to teach English and African American studies. In addition, members of the Claflin University Concert Choir traveled to China last summer as part of a three-city choral tribute to the 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics, and, based on its HBCU-best record, the men's basketball team was invited to participate in the inaugural Trinidad and Tobago Hoops Classic.

This year, Claflin University Panther Athletics began its first season of NCAA Division II competitive play, and its first as a full member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC). The men's basketball team completed a 25-3 inaugural NCAA season, capturing the SIAC regular season crown, and Coach Ron Woodard was named SIAC Coach of the Year. Ranked Number Ten nationally among NCAA D-2 teams, the Panthers also competed in their first NCAA tournament and made it to the semifinal round. In addition, Claflin University kicked off the new era of athletic accomplishments by recognizing past athletic trailblazers as 21 were enshrined in the first class of the Athletics Hall of Fame.

We at Claflin University are encouraged and motivated by one of our very best years in making strides in academic achievements, faculty and student achievements and for being able to re-invest ourselves in sustaining and upholding our mission and goals by preparing our students for visionary leadership and service in a global and technological society.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

This is certainly a challenging economic climate for private colleges as we daily digest the news about student loan markets, endowment losses, reduced tuition grants, and the difficult fundraising environment. The distressing news is softened by the knowledge that we are blessed to be doing God's work as we remain committed to guiding the development of students empowered to work for social justice and to dedicate themselves to making the world better for the generations to come.

We began the year with the largest first-year class in thirty years and with the largest evening program in our history. However, the economy had an impact on our retention and enrollment was slightly down in spite of the large number of new students. For our opening Convocation on September 3, the new pastor of College Place, Tiffany Knowlin, was our speaker. Of course, we are especially proud of her since she is a 2003 graduate of Columbia College! That was soon followed by the annual Columbia College Day at College Place United Methodist Church on September 14. I spoke on Jesus' example of putting the needs of others before our own.

A very meaningful activity throughout the fall semester was sponsored by our Diversity Committee. A large group of faculty and staff members formed a discussion group. We met on several occasions during the semester to discuss Understanding White Privilege: Creating Pathways to Authentic Relationships Across Race by Frances Kendall.

In preparation for our upcoming (February 2011) accreditation visit by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), the entire campus community, including students, faculty, staff, alumnae, trustees, and community leaders, have been engaged in development of our Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP). The board effort has narrowed our choices to five commitments: globalization, experiential learning, second-year experience, student engagement, and personal and social responsibility. The final selection of a topic for further development will be announced this spring.

The Alliance for Women at Columbia College continues to work in partnership with the Commission on Women to address issues of poverty, educational access, health, and low political representation by women. We have sponsored numerous workshops, conferences, and residential camps. In addition, we are pursuing funding to establish a micro-lending program statewide.

Our annual Medallion Dinner recognized two women who embody the 4Cs of Columbia College leadership. Senator Linda Short and Judge Karen Williams exhibit courage, commitment, confidence, and competence in their lives and accomplishments.

Columbia College Chaplain Valerie Mireb directed a week-long celebration of the life of Dr. Martin Luther King. On January 19 students and faculty joined the march to the Statehouse. The campus held a luncheon and panel discussion with guests who were present for Dr. King's historic "I have a dream" speech. An honored guest at the luncheon was the student winner of the annual MLK Day poetry contest. On Tuesday, the campus celebrated the inauguration of President Barak Obama with a group viewing in the student union and a discussion, moderated by communication professor Jason Munsell, following the President's speech. In Wednesday's chapel the Reverend Tiffany Knowlin spoke on the principles evident in Dr. King's life. On Thursday Dr. Mary Stepling discussed regional and race-specific dialects and our responses to them. On Friday, the campus completed the week of activities with a volunteer project with Harvest Hope food bank.

An important activity at the college this spring is what we are calling the "Re-visioning of Columbia College." The vision statement that guides the process follows:

The re-envisioning of Columbia College is designed to assure that the college is as relevant to women's education for the next 150 years as it has been throughout its history. We must focus and transform our message to resonate with a new generation; we must adapt to national and global changes and to increasing opportunities for women; we must provide a community and an academic program that is strong, exciting, and accessible to prospective students and potential donors. In re-envisioning Columbia College we must inspire students through a strong liberal arts curriculum, a deep grounding in United Methodist values, and commitment to developing women leaders. We must respond energetically to economic challenges that could endanger our future.

To achieve this vision, we must ensure that our human, physical, and financial resources are effectively allocated. Specifically, we must enhance the funding for salaries, facilities, and growth opportunities.

To thrive as a college we must:

- Budget efficiently in order to be selective in enrollment and control costs to students
- Position the college to attract a wide base of students and donors
- Analyze and respond to evolving academic and professional markets
- Provide competitive salaries for faculty and staff
- Develop desirable academic and residential facilities

Six committees and a steering committee worked many hours and sought wide campus input to present recommendations this spring to achieve this vision.

While we look to the college's future, we continue to celebrate our heritage. On February 11, Dr. Wright Spears, beloved president emeritus of Columbia College was honored at our annual Founder's Day celebration.

We continue to find blessings in sharing the values of our United Methodist faith and in shaping the power of young women to change the world.

WOFFORD COLLEGE

Achini Bandara, a Wofford pre-med student from Columbia, S.C., spent the summer of 2007 working in an Anglican-sponsored hospital operated by the Christian Health Association of Malawi. In the remote and desperately poor village of Chamama, the clinic was a difference-maker, particularly for young mothers and their babies. However, disturbed by the incomplete hospital building, Bandara returned to Wofford determined to make things better. Little by little, she personally raised more than $12,000. She also met with Dr. Ron Robinson, Perkins-Prothro Chaplain and Professor of Religion. They developed a January Interim project that allowed her to travel to Malawi during the dry season. When she arrived with her funds, construction was in progress, but substantial work remained. Bandara purchased supplies, arranged warehouse space, and dealt with the government to ensure tax exemption for key materials. After her graduation, she plans to return to Malawi, and eventually, she hopes to practice medicine in the developing world.

The work of Achini Bandara demonstrates why Wofford was placed on the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. Of the 635 colleges and universities on the honor roll, Wofford was one of only 83 to earn its place "with distinction." It was a confirmation that "Wofford's commitment to sustained civic engagement and social justice is strong and thriving," says the Rev. Lyn Pace, associate chaplain and director of service learning.

To sustain this momentum, Wofford has organized a College-Church Council that meets three times annually. Chaired by Trustee C. Michael Smith of Greenville, the council includes trustees, administration, staff, students, clergy and laity. Though it has carefully reviewed the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry's study of branding of United Methodist colleges, it has focused on various aspects of the college's connection with the local church, such as the congregational internship program that now involves eight students and the Emerging Leaders Initiative (ELI) that supports 20 participants. The College-Church Council also is promoting Wofford's annual United Methodist Student Gameday, which is scheduled for October 17, 2009. Finally, the council seeks to lower barriers to Wofford's full participation in activities such as the annual Methodist Campus Ministry service trip, which usually falls during the mid-May exam period.

Of course, the struggling economy is on the minds of everyone charged with responsibility for the college operation, and major steps are being taken to conserve, reduce, cut back, and economize. Losses to the endowment value (approximately 30 percent) will have a negative impact on the college's ability to fund scholarships and other programs in the next few years, making even more crucial the efforts of local churches to sustain and grow the Senior College Scholarship Fund within their apportionment items. Wofford seeks your prayers, guidance and support in continuing a tradition of church-related educational excellence.

Respectfully submitted,

Benjamin B. Dunlap, President

CHARLESTON WESLEY FOUNDATION

Charleston Wesley Foundation continues to grow in grace and gifts. We publish our first newsletter this summer with a great response. We were invited to participate in Trident Technical College's student activities fair which we attended.

Our prayers remain with all of the troops in the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan but especially our alumni, Jonathon Lance, Anthony Reynolds, Christopher Waldrop, Jeff Throckmorton and Bill Houpt. Come safely home to us!

We are so proud of our two alumni in the ministry, Aaron Meadows and Mallory Forte. Aaron is a provisional elder in this fine conference and a proud new parent of a beautiful baby girl. Congratulations, Christy and Aaron! Mallory Forte is in her third and final year as a Candler student. Thank you for the wonderful job you did as the retreat leader of the 2009 SCUMSM Spring retreat in February. "Mama Lisa" was very proud! SCUMSM leadership team - you were both innovative and efficient.

Our four groups continue to grow in wisdom and numbers. Bethel UMC - Charleston continues to be the home of our College of Charleston programming. Thank you for loving the college student as much as we do. Thank you, John Wesley UMC for your monthly financial support. We do so appreciate it and you. The CSU group is growing in numbers and diversity. God is so faithful. Wesley UMC - Ladson, you are such a warm and welcoming church to many of those students. God bless you. The group at Medical University of South Carolina continues to attract students, staff and faculty of various faith traditions. Our discussions can be quite lively and inspiring. Rev. Joe Cate of Point Hope UMC and Mary Ann Gilkeson of Bethel UMC, your time, gifts and love to this ministry - TGIF (Thank God It's Friday) - will always be its driving force. The Citadel group is losing some of its strong leadership through graduation this spring. Chase, Jade, Bryant, Craig, Karen - C of C, and Adrian - C of C, you will be missed. Please know that you will be in our thoughts and prayers. We hope you will visit often. Special thanks to the Station 15 of John Wesley UMC who gave of their talents and time to give an awe-inspiring concert at the Wesley interdenominational gathering at the Citadel. You rocked the house and our souls! Thanks to the youth adult group of Grace UMC who provided the pizza for a crowd of approximately 90 students.

Charleston Wesley Foundation in Mission had another successful year. We sponsored two adolescents in the Halos angel tree event. Our annual Mission Weekend with Winthrop Wesley Foundation at the United Methodist Relief Center was a time of Christian action, reflection and fellowship for all.

To the beloved churches of the Charleston District thank you for your unwavering support in gifts of food, time and finances. Trinity UMC- Charleston, you continue to be the backbone of this ministry in your selfless giving of physical space and office support. Our grateful hearts seem so inadequate but please know that we are deeply appreciative of your continuing Christian action. The ministry of Charleston Wesley Foundation would not be flourishing and innovative without the guidance, prayers and support of the dedicated Charleston Wesley Foundation Board of Directors. We are so grateful to all of the prayerful, generous churches of the Charleston District and of the South Carolina conference for your unceasing prayers and unwavering support. May God bless each of you.

CLEMSON WESLEY FOUNDATION

While in seminary I was introduced to Howard Snyder's book The Radical Wesley and Patterns for Church Renewal. Part theological and part historical, Snyder's book left an impression on me that continues to shape my approach toward campus ministry in Clemson. Snyder, more than another Wesley historian that I have read, focuses his text on the ways in which the otherwise "prim and proper" John Wesley was willing to think or work "outside the box" of his day - a stuffy, lifeless, overly Reformed-leaning Church of England.

As someone who seeks to bridge the gap between the 50+ somethings and the Gen X, Y and even Z generations, I have found Snyder's short yet pithy text helpful. I have come to believe that a reclaiming of the "radical" Wesley is one of the keys to our older Methodists appreciating our younger ones, and vice versa.

But who is this "radical" Wesley that Snyder reveals? In summary, this "radical" Wesley is one who was willing to innovate and try new approaches to accomplish the primary goal of sharing the Gospel and "Scriptural holiness" with all God's children, everywhere. Wesley's willingness to be flexible on the "opinions" while staying true to the "essentials" manifested itself in many startling and controversial ways for his day, including:

- leaving the "sacred" space of the church to share the Gospel with the poor and disenfranchised in the fields, mines, factories, and street corners;
- making use of the popular secular tunes of the day (often the ones sung in saloons) through new hymns designed to teach the tenets of the faith;
- commissioning uneducated yet gifted laity to preach the Gospel to the masses;
- empowering women to play significant leadership roles in the life of the movement;
- organizing believers into classes, bands and societies to ensure that everyone who joined the movement was both encouraged and held accountable in the living out of their faith;
- emphasizing that there was no personal holiness without social holiness, and that works of piety had to be intertwined with works of mercy directed to the poor, the hungry and the imprisoned;
- advocating against slavery, greed, and the other destructive social ills of his day; and
- establishing plain, unadorned preaching houses to ensure that the Gospel might be conveyed clearly and plainly to all people, no matter their social status.

Wesley's radical approach led him to being banned from many Church of England pulpits, even though he remained an ordained Anglican priest until the day he died. And the fruits of his controversial work? Well, you and I along with the 75 million other Methodists/Wesleyans around the world owe him a debt of gratitude.

At Clemson Wesley and Clemson UMC, we strive to keep our eyes firmly on the "essentials" of the faith while always being open to new possibilities, approaches and even innovations to reach today's younger generations. For example, we believe that there is no one right way or style to worship God, so long as our worship is centered on loving God with our heart, soul, mind and strength and calling us to love our neighbor as ourselves. We believe that each and every person's voice and gifts are essential to the whole, no matter their gender, race or social status. We believe that our time together within the four walls of sanctuary should empower us to lives lived for God outside the sanctuary. In summary, we believe that our methodology is consistent with the “radical” Wesley that we all claim as our forefather in the faith, and we are grateful to God for the fruit that these efforts have yielded in Clemson over the years.

In closing, I believe that it is essential for us all to remember that the Methodist movement started on a college campus. As in the era of John and Charles Wesley, college students today are equally as “ripe” for the Gospel as they were then. On the primary campus which I serve, there are a variety of campus ministers and ministries seeking to serve the faculty, staff and students. Some of these organizations are doing good work, while others are seeking to proclaim a Gospel that strongly differs from what we as Methodists hold dear. Sadly, the financial resources being expended by some of these groups are five to ten times what Clemson Wesley and Clemson UMC are able to fund. On other campuses the primary “competition” is not a distorted and potentially dangerous Gospel but no Gospel at all, where atheism, secular humanism and hedonism lead in the number of conversions.

To address these developments, I would challenge all Annual Conference delegates to inquire about how their local churches might be involved in hands-on ministry with and to the college students and campuses in their community. Here in Clemson, we are blessed to receive financial and other forms of tangible support from many of our sister UM churches in the greater Clemson area. It is a partnership model that works well and bears much fruit, and one that can easily be duplicated in other communities. I believe it is a model that would make the “radical” Wesley very pleased.

This is a glimpse of the approach that we seek to use with the nearly 800 students that call CW and/or CUMC home each year. We give God thanks for the thousands of graduates over the years who continue to serve God and the Church through full-time, ordained, and lay ministry. To all the individuals, pastors, youth ministers, Sunday School classes, women’s and men’s groups and local churches who support this ministry through your apportionments or other special gifts – may God bless you all in your desire to reach today’s generation of young people with the Good News of Jesus Christ.

The harvest continues to be ripe, but more laborers and more folks willing to step “outside the box” are desperately needed.

Campus Minister, Clemson UMC*

THE COLUMBIA WESLEY FOUNDATION

While it is true that college students are the future of the church, it is equally true that they are also its present. As such, they have their own set of gifts and unique perspectives and experiences to give shape to the mission and ministry of the church in this day and culture. They are students and yet also our teachers when it comes to building the church and welcoming the reign of God. The Wesley Foundation at USC (also known as the Methodist Student Network) is a place and a community where young adults take their faith and discipleship seriously, affirm the great traditions of Christianity and challenge the status quo of business as usual. The Methodist Student Network is a diverse and international community representing the global church. Students of various cultures, religious backgrounds, races and nationalities make for a vibrant and rich faith community. Much is to be celebrated in reflecting on its mission and ministry and its growth since it became a stand-alone ministry four years ago. Some highlights of this year are noted.

- Eight times a week students go into the community to serve at a soup kitchen, an after school mentoring program, Habitat-for-Humanity, and an EOSL program for Latino women in the West Columbia area which MSN students founded.
- Methodist Student Network has been to New Orleans and Dulac, LA on two occasions to be in service to and solidarity with its battered residents. MSN has been there 11 times since Katrina. We also served in mission for a week in Harlem, NYC.
- We took a team of 25 to Guatemala to be in ministry with people and Methodist Church in Santa Cruz del Quiche. There we ran a VBS for local children, helped to build classrooms for a church/school, held meetings and worship with the youth and provided a health clinic for the town and several outlying villages seeing over 400 patients.
- On campus we provided many opportunities for study and worship and support. Through various small groups (Covenant Discipleship, Freshman, Women, Men, Bible Study Plus, Grads), a program evening tackling tough issues of faith and life (such as sexuality, war, homosexuality, relationships and economic justice) and Quiet-time, students can be spiritually grounded and transformed.
- Sunday evening worship is a reconciling and unifying adventure as students of various nationalities, cultures, races and faith traditions discover a oneness in Christ that is real. Traditions and songs of the global church are incorporated.
- The faith community and Center provide hospitality and a place where life long friendships are formed and life/faith issues can be explored.
- Three recent graduates are in seminary. Three present students are preparing to enter.

Thanks to all the students who live out their faith and lead in ministry at MSN. Thanks to faithful friends and supporters who believe in the mission of the Wesley Foundation. Thanks to all those churches, UMWs, Circles and Sunday School classes who have given money and food to sustain students on their faith journey. What a blessing it is to accompany these students.

FRANCIS MARION WESLEY FOUNDATION

This has been an exciting year to be part of the Francis Marion Wesley Foundation. Many of the FMU Wesley students graduated last spring, so we for the most part were starting from scratch with programs and students. The Fall started off with a bang with a cookout attended by over 300 students. The fruits of that fellowship time together are about 20 students that now call Wesley family. Some of our new projects include:

- A worship scholar – We instituted a scholarship program for one student who is interested in ministry to learn to design worship under the campus minister’s guidance and lead the music. This scholar has given new life to the worship of the group
- A Food Drive – Wesley planned and implemented a campus wide food drive that had two competing groups. All Greek organizations competed against one another and the residence halls competed against themselves to see who could raise the most food donations. This project was encouraged by a Wesley student who saw a news story telling of the shortage of food at the local pantry. The project was a booming success with the raising of 660lbs of food.

- New Bible Study – we have a group currently studying together “Christian Believer”. The students are excited and committed to the work with such an involved study.
- We have plans for campus wide events this spring including hosting an outdoor drive-in movie.

We continue to be thankful for the support of local churches in supporting campus ministries all over the state.

Jo Anna Fallaw, Campus Minister

FURMAN WESLEY FELLOWSHIP

In one of our weekly Bible Study lessons, we were focusing on the parable of the sower in which Jesus is discussing the different places that the seed will fall. One of the things I glean from this passage is the fruitful soil and the growth that occurs in these places. I have been blessed to be in ministry with this wonderful group of young adults and see the growth that has occurred in their lives – I have been blessed to reap what others have sown.

This year our theme has been “Stories” – our personal stories of our lives and faith, as well as the stories from our scriptures. In this manner we have not only learned much about one another [it’s interesting how little we REALLY know about one another], but also gained an appreciation for how the biblical stories are really our stories. When we read these familiar stories of our past, we see once again just how similar we [and all of God’s children] really are.

In addition to our weekly Tuesday night meetings [Wesley Night], in which we share a snack, worship/program, prayers, and announcements, this year we also have:

- Weekly Freshmen Small Group Meetings
- Weekly Bible Study on the Gospel of Mark
- Weekly Lunch in the Dining Hall
- Bi-Weekly Morning Prayer Meetings
- Retreats – i.e., Mountain Getaway, Fall Retreat, Spring Retreat
- Missional Outreach – i.e., Fall Spring Break Mission, Spring Break Mission Trip to Mississippi, Little Red Store [Thrift Store in connection with Monaghan UMC], Relay for Life
- Fellowship Opportunities – i.e., Football Tailgates, Christmas Party, Progressive Dinner, Movie Nights, Senior Luau

It is our belief that as students get more involved in their classes and other campus events, their time becomes precious; as a result, it is our desire to provide the students many opportunities to be in fellowship, study, worship, and service. In this way, they can easily plug into our group [maybe not everything, though that would be ideal] and continue to grow in their faith and life.

Furman, Greenville, and the UMC are blessed to have such a dedicated group of young leaders who are passionate about their faith and living out that faith in their everyday life. We are truly blessed, and thankful, for all of the love, support, and prayers that we have been afforded by the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Rev. Edward L. McCutcheon, Campus Minister

THE UNITED METHODIST STUDENT FELLOWSHIP AT LANDER UNIVERSITY AND PIEDMONT TECHNICAL COLLEGE

The Spring semester is in full swing at Lander University and Piedmont Technical College. Our student base continues to grow and “Greenwood Wesley” is becoming more well-known on both campuses. Our e-mail contact list has grown to around 125 students, and many have been “plugging in” at different times.

We continue to enjoy Friday Lunch and Devotion at Lander, and Monday Bible Study at Piedmont Tech. All of our “eating meetings” begin with a devotion and prayer, and great discussion of a Bible lesson. A new program addition this year was a Wednesday evening worship service on the Lander campus called Balancing Act. The format has changed a little this semester to include a different discussion topic each week, led by students.

I continue to encourage students to participate in service projects. In December, GWF partnered with Piedmont Tech’s Christian Student Union for a “toiletries drive” for MEG’S HOUSE, a shelter for abused women. We also continue to partner with Main Street UMC in a “Good News Club” at Woodfields Elementary School. This semester we are planning a fund raiser for AIDS Research. We will be taking 4 students to the SCUMSM Spring Retreat at Springmaid Beach in February.

In December, Greenwood Wesley Fellowship was awarded a $2,500.00 grant for women’s ministry. Board member Mary Lynn Polk procured the grant, and will help implement a women’s speaker series this fall on the Lander campus.

Our student center continues to be a “home away from home” for the students, with a TV lounge, computer room, washer and dryer, and prayer chapel. We are so thankful to Main Street United Methodist Church for providing this facility free of charge.

This has been a most rewarding year for me. I have enjoyed watching God work in the lives of these students. Greenwood Wesley is gaining recognition on campus as evidenced by increased participation and enthusiasm. Through our obedience God will continue to call disciples from the college campus, and grow His Kingdom!

THE ORANGEBURG WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Orangeburg Wesley Foundation continues to provide ministry to the students, faculty, and staff at Claflin University and South Carolina State University. The Wesley Foundation also provides a ministry of outreach and witness to the areas surrounding the Wesley Foundation and the two campuses. The Orangeburg Wesley Foundation is more than a facility or a concept, it is a vital ministry to the United Methodist Students and Ecumenical and Inter-Faith communities on both campuses and the larger community.

Here are a few of the activities the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation participated in the past year:

- The Granville Hicks Lecture Series at Claflin University.
- The 41st Anniversary Celebration of the Orangeburg Massacre at South Carolina State University and the 1st Ecumenical Sunrise Prayer Service during the Orangeburg Massacre.
- Several Group Sessions on Domestic Violence
- Weekly Bible Studies
- A ministry to the Children and families at Trinity U.M.C. Child Care Development Center
- Spring Student Day at Trinity U.M.C.
- Student and Faculty Discussion Group
- Participated in a Campus Ministry Mission Travel trip and a Mission trip to Rural Mission
- UMSM Retreat, Spring Maid Beach
- Campus Melt Down
- Partnership with Public Health Task Force at Claflin University
- M.L.K. Second Annual Run at South Carolina State University sponsored by Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.
- Prostate Cancer Awareness Month Observance sponsored by Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.
- Religious Emphasis Week
- Religious Life Committees (both campuses)
- Counseling Services

Finally, I wish to thank the members and staff of Trinity United Methodist Church, Orangeburg Wesley Foundation Board, S.C. Annual Conference Committee on Higher Education and Campus Ministry, and the Orangeburg District Superintendent during this period of transition. The ministries of the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation are alive and well.

Rev. Larry D. McCutcheon, Interim Minister

WINTHROP WESLEY FOUNDATION

Over 1400 plastic bottle caps collected in two weeks. At the Winthrop Wesley Super Bowl Party, a student shared an announcement from a local church asking for plastic bottle caps. "Caps for Chemo" provided 3 minutes of free chemo treatment for every bottle cap collected for the son of a nurse who had lost her job. Word spread around the campus, students dug through recycling bins, boxes were placed in residence halls and people from around campus donated. These days it seems that people are hungry to give in any way they can.

"We walk because they walk" is the theme of CROPWALK. Winthrop Wesley coordinates the York County CROP and even in the midst of these hard economic times, over $37,500 was raised – more than ever before! Solidarity, taking seriously the call to lend a helping hand, and taking stock of our lives of abundance and blessings and sharing that with others are themes clear in the minds of students. Even though some of their parents are facing job loss and many are looking for part-time jobs to cover tuition and food, these students continue to look outward and continue to try to embody the hands and feet of Christ.

This past year we've gone on retreats to Chestnut Ridge and Springmaid, we've had tons of fellowship playing laser tag, whitewater rafting, and hosting a District Youth Day, we've gotten to know ourselves and each other better in small groups reading books like Mere Christianity, Irresistible Revolution and Traveling Mercies, we've worshiped together and broken bread in communion weekly, and we've shared home-cooked meals provided by the amazing churches of the Rock Hill district while lifting our voices in song and gathering for programs ranging from our United Methodist Social Principles and Aids Awareness to Scripture Studies and Game Nights.

The heart of who we are though seems to be service and outreach. You see their passion and commitment for justice not just in working at the Relief Center in Charleston, volunteering with Interfaith Hospitality, counting people during the bi-annual Homeless Count, providing worship services at Agape Senior, or working on the houses of needy families on Saturdays with the students of The Wesley House, but in the goals and the lives these students are trying to create. They don't want a faith that is merely words or hollow sayings, but they want to bring the Gospel to the world in concrete, meaningful, and life-giving ways. It's a pleasure to witness their commitment. It's also a challenge that these young adults offer to each of us to put our time and energy and money where our mouths are or at least where they should be.

We're gearing up for a May trip to New York City with our fellow campus ministries in South Carolina and an August trip to Managua, Nicaragua. Several of our students will be doing mission work around the state this summer at Camp Providence, the Relief Center, Rural Mission, and Salkehatchie and one of our graduates will be leaving for Ghana, Africa for his Peace Corps assignment. Yes, these are hard times, but God provides, and these young people aren't letting anything stand in the way of the work God has called them to do!

Looking forward to the continued journey!

Grace and Peace,

Rev. Narcie M. Jeter, Winthrop Wesley Foundation

THE BOARD OF LAITY

The Conference Board of Laity welcomed seven new District Lay Leaders to its membership and thanked the seven outgoing District Lay Leaders during the Laity Luncheon at the 2008 South Carolina Annual Conference. The new District Lay Leaders are Freda Brock (Anderson), June Willson (Charleston), Brenda Hook (Columbia), Barbara Ware (Greenville), David Salter (Greenwood), Robert Barrett (Orangeburg) and Earline Powell (Spartanburg). The Board held its first of four meetings during Laity Convocation at Lake Junaluska in July 2008. A Day of Training to ensure the District Lay Leaders were prepared for their work was held in August 2008. A Day of Visioning (November 2008) was held in order to strategically plan for the new quadrennium. Rev. James Arant led that day of visioning. As a result of the process the board reaffirmed its core beliefs and will continue to offer support, training and direction for laity in the conference. As a result of the visioning process one new Task Group was added – Task Group on Communication/Networking - and we added Heritage to the Task Group on Leadership Development (Leadership Development and Heritage). We celebrate the work of our District Lay Leaders who have spent time within the districts working closely with the District Superintendents.

During the year the Conference Lay Leader was active in representing the Board as the newly elected President of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders. Meeting with the Extended Cabinet provided many opportunities to keep the Cabinet abreast of the workings of the laity in the conference. Continuing our efforts of partnership between clergy and lay, the District Lay Leaders attended Clergy Set-Up meetings, some Charge Conferences and were actively involved in the training of Lay Delegates to Annual Conference. The Conference Lay Leader, the Associate Lay Leader (Kathryn Scarborough) and the Columbia District Lay Leader (Brenda Hook) serve as members of the Lake Junaluska Assembly Board of Directors.

Task Group leaders continued their work in areas of (1) Laity Convocation, (2) Lay Speaking (3) Leadership Development, (4) Spiritual Formation, and (5) Stewardship. A summary of their activities follows:

Laity Convocation (Lisa Livingston) - is promoted as “A Weekend of Personal Spiritual Growth and Practical Ideas for Your Church” and offers workshops and speakers covering a variety of topics including but not limited to leadership development, spiritual formation, health and wellness, prayer, natural church development, aging gracefully, stewardship and fundraising and safe sanctuaries. This three day weekend is held at Lake Junaluska and all laity and clergy in the South Carolina Annual Conference are invited and encouraged to attend.

In 2008, Rev. Tony Campolo was our worship leader and in 2009 we welcome Rev. Dr. Connie Shelton from Galloway UMC in Jackson, MS as our worship leader. We are delighted to have Bishop Woodie White joining us as a workshop presenter and also as Lake Junaluska's guest minister for Sunday morning worship. We are hopeful that the Hope for Africa Children's Choir will perform as well.

The Laity Convocation Task Force is committed to making significant changes to the weekend schedule and constantly reviewing the workshops in order to provide information on the most appropriate topics to meet the needs of the greatest number of attendees. Through conversations about and evaluations from the 2008 event, we have identified ways to strengthen Laity Convocation in 2009. One such change is adding an opportunity for districts to meet together with their congregational specialists and other Conference Center staff. In addition, Bishop Taylor and Dr. Heyward will again dialog on the laity/clergy partnership. Offering a variety of workshops covering topics that are relevant to everyone is crucial to the success of this weekend.

Please mark your calendars now for Laity Convocation 2009, July 10-12, and July 11-13, 2010. Feedback is encouraged and should be directed to Lisa Livingston at llivingston@columbiasc.edu or 803.960.3675.

Lay Speaking Ministries (Mike Cheatham) - The mission of Lay Speaking Ministries is to provide training for the laity of the South Carolina Conference to create effective leadership in local churches. Local church leaders have taken courses to improve their leadership and communications skills. Local church and certified lay speakers are active in our local churches, in the districts and at the conference level. Lay Speaking Ministries classes are available in every district. Several districts offer multiple schools each year. Lay Speaking Ministries offers courses in leadership, communications, and caring.

Lay Speaking Ministries also equips the laity to be involved in ministry serving their local church in every area of leadership, mission, and ministry. Lay Speakers are developing many ministries across the conference. Lay Speakers are active in prayer groups, prison ministries, Bible studies, homeless ministries through local soup kitchens and food banks, ministries for women, and many more. Frances Gilliam, a certified lay speaker and author of our Instructor Training program was invited by the California-Nevada Conference to teach a weekend session for instructor training. Our conference director, Michael Cheatham, continues to serve as president of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association of Directors of Lay Speaking Ministries.

It's not just filling empty pulpits.*

Leadership Development (John Mason Allgood) - The Task Group on Leadership Development has designed a multi-faceted curriculum for emerging local church leaders—LeadershipNext. LeadershipNext is a 36-hour modular curriculum that consists of one-day-a-month seminars over a six-month period. Because of its modular design, LeadershipNext can be delivered at the district level across the Conference, making it possible to train 240-300 local church leaders per year. In a three-year period, this training could be delivered to nearly 1,000 leaders. There are 24 modules in the curriculum covering such topics as who we are in Christ, spiritual gifts and gift-based ministry, our connectional system and local church mission and ministries, evangelism, Natural Church Development, stewardship, discipleship, building teams for ministry, spiritual disciplines, teaching skills, and leadership skills. From January to May, 2009, the Task Force is conducting a pilot project of LeadershipNext in the Walterboro District. Our goal is to have LeadershipNext ready for conference-wide use in 2009-2010. A training event for instructors is planned for the fall of 2009.

The Task Force is continuing to sponsor leadership and clergy-lay partnership workshops at the Laity Convocation in Lake Junaluska. Two workshops were very successful in 2008 and we plan to hold two or three workshops in 2009. The Task Force is continuing its work on the development of an electronic leadership manual for local church lay leaders.

Spiritual Formation (Kathryn Scarborough) - The Spiritual Formation Task Group sponsored two breakout sessions at the 2008 Laity Convocation. Rev. Dr. Tom Albin led a session on “Becoming a Praying Church: Appetizer or Main Course?”, and Mary Lou Redding led a session on “Finding a Way Everyday: Rebuilding Devotional Foundations”. Four breakout sessions will be offered at the 2009 Laity Convocation to include a session designed to introduce persons to the Five-Day Academy. The second Five-Day Academy for Spiritual Formation is planned for 2010.

Funding was provided for workshops led by Rev. Larry Hayes, “A New Nominations Process: Prayer Focused, Spirit Led”. These workshops were hosted by the Orangeburg/Greenwood Districts and the Greenville/Spartanburg Districts. A Two-Day Prayer Conference will be held October 16-17, 2009 (Friday evening through Saturday afternoon) at Lexington UMC in Lexington, SC. The theme is: “Prayer Changes...Each Person, Family and Church”. Keynote speakers will be Rev. Dr. Tom Albin and Rev. Jeff Kersey. Participants will also choose two of the seven workshops offered on Saturday.

Members of the Spiritual Formation Task Force: Rev. Nellie Cloninger, Earline Powell, Rev. Ellis White, Jr., Dr. Robert Barrett, Clayton Easter, Suzy Speas, Linda DuRant, Betty Kay Hudson, Faye Love, Kathryn Scarborough, Rev. Tiffany Knowlin, Rev. Miyoung Paik and Jim Arant. We continue to seek God's will in all that we do to resource the needs of the Local Church in the area of Spiritual Formation.

Stewardship (Donald Love) - Since our last conference report progress has been made in some areas of the five primary goals previously adopted by the Stewardship Task Group. Although we are pleased with the progress made, we realize that there is much work needed in this area of ministry. A brief summary of progress and plans are listed below:

1. The Stewardship page on the Board of Laity website has been up since June 2008. It provides a resource of information on stewardship resources and links to other related sites. Additional information with updates is planned. The Stewardship Manual, "Gifted to Give: Stewardship Alive" has been loaded on the Stewardship Web Page for use on line or download.
2. Stewardship Courses have been offered during District Lay Leadership Training Events, and Lay Speaking Schools. We encourage the use of these schools for promoting the importance of stewardship. Stewardship was also offered in the Conference 2008 Lay Speakers Instructor's School.
3. In July of 2008 a Stewardship Workshop "How to Create a New Spirit of Giving" was offered and led by Pat Luna. The workshop was well attended and provided attendees with valuable information and practical ideas to enhance giving in the local churches.

A March 28, 2009 Stewardship Training Workshop for members of the Stewardship Task Group, District Lay Leaders and other interested persons is complete. This workshop was led by Pat Luna. Session I covered The Theology of Stewardship, Why People Give and Year-Round Stewardship. Session II was a meeting of the Stewardship Task Group with Pat Luna to discuss plans to develop a Conference Stewardship Ministry that will be used in assisting our churches in the South Carolina Conference.

Dr. Joseph E. Heyward, Conference Lay Leader

THE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

As we enter a new quadrennium, the S.C. Annual Conference owes a great debt of gratitude to the Rev. Patricia J. Parrish, and the members of the Board of Ordained Ministry 2004-2008. As we transition, their work made it possible for this board to begin the new quadrennium on sure footing. We are mindful that to whom much has been given, much is required. With deep reverence and profound gratitude, this newly elected board accepts the mantle entrusted to us and vows to remain open to the fresh winds of Spirit blowing in the midst.

Additionally, a word of appreciation is due Bishop Taylor for the meticulous attention given to selecting a new board. Arguably, this board represents among the youngest and most diverse boards in the recent history of this annual conference. The new board, under the leadership of Bishop Taylor, met in August of 2008 to elect officers. The complete listing of officers, members, and committee assignments of the board may be found on the conference website at www.umcsc.org under the Office of Clergy Services.

The primary purpose of the Board of Ordained Ministry continues to be the recruitment, examination, and credentialing of candidates for ordained ministry. Additionally, this board often deals with confidential and agonizing responsibilities that can not be discussed publicly. In every case, this board has sought to be just, consistent, and faithful to the United Methodist Discipline, the Board of Ordained Ministry Handbook, and the Policy Guidelines of the S.C. Annual Conference. Furthermore, the Board has also tried to decide in grace and humility the best interest of clergy and congregations of this annual conference.

As the quadrennium unfolds, key priorities and opportunities that Board seeks to address include:

- Strengthening both the annual and long term offerings of continuing education for clergy with an end goal of moving all clergy towards excellence in ministry.
- Working with the Bishop and Cabinet in addressing the question of "how do we exit pastors who are ineffective within an ecclesiastical system that guarantees appointments?"
- Increasing our emphasis on recruitment and retention of young clergy.
- Strengthening the relationships between the Board of Ordained Ministry and persons/ candidates from this annual conference who are attending seminary.
- Assisting candidates fund the cost of their theological education.

As this new board begins its work, it has chosen to adopt a covenant that gives shape and definition to our life and work together. This covenant serves as reminder of the sacred, confidential, and servant nature of the ministry with which we have been entrusted. The Board has sought to refine its interview process by adding a composite review of each candidate by a joint subcommittee after the interviews with our four primary subcommittees. There have also been some minor internal changes in guidelines of the four primary subcommittees which will be shared with candidates at the annual orientation held each June for persons seeking a change of status at the next session of the Annual Conference.

Each year, the Board reviews the policy guidelines of the Board of Ordained Ministry and offers to the Annual Conference recommendations for review, action, and adoption. This year, most of the changes are editorial, such as changing paragraph numbers to match the 2008 Book of Discipline, changing the wording from "probationary" to "provisional," changing the three-year provisional period to a two-year period, and the deletion of 1992 Disciplinary matters. At the start of this new quadrennium and after meticulous revision and editing, the board has chosen to print the entire document for review, action, and adoption. Pending its adoption by the annual conference, the new guidelines will be posted on the conference website on the Clergy Services page.

Perhaps the most significant policy change this quadrennium is the change in number of years required as a part of the provisional period. In concurrence with the 2008 Book of Discipline, the S.C. Board of Ordained Ministry has elected to change provisional period from three to two years with candidates having up to eight years to complete the requirements for full membership. Those commissioned at the 2008 session of the S.C. Annual Conference would be the first class eligible for ordination at the 2010 session of the Annual Conference.

Although this Board has been together for a short season in time, the bonds of servant ministry and covenantal affection for one another grow deep. The commitment to work to which we have been called is apparent. I rejoice in the faithfulness of those who share in this work who accept without hesitation the hard and often times difficult choices that must be made. By God's grace, much has been achieved and there is reason to rejoice in hope!

We are pleased to recommend 14 candidates for provisional membership and commissioning, 1 candidate for associate membership, and 20 candidates for full membership and ordination. These persons have been nurtured through the candidacy process and have shown themselves ready and effective for a life of licensed, ordained, and servant ministry.

We rejoice that to date, 225 persons have received the training needed for service as mentors to candidates and clergy navigating the candidacy, licensing, and ordination process. We are deeply indebted to these persons who serve in this capacity who give sacrificially of their time and energy.

While the cost of theological education continues to rise and is perhaps outpacing our current revenue streams, we give thanks to God that during the course of the fall and the winter semester of 2008/9, we have been able to assist no fewer than 31 persons at 12 different university senate approved seminaries with the cost of funding their theological education in the amount $119,800! We further rejoice that the recipients of these resources are persons called to licensed or ordained ministry. We have been able to offer these resources through the Ministerial Education Fund. Thus, I remind our clergy and lay delegates of the importance of supporting our General Conference apportioned funds. The future leadership of your church may be dependent upon it! We also have been able to assist a significant number of other students through six additional scholarships offered through the board.

Also, the work of this Board would be impossible without the outstanding support that we receive from the Rev. Tim Rogers, Coordinator of Clergy Services, and Mrs. Bonnie Speas, the administrative assistant to that office. These persons go above and beyond the call of duty in making effective the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry and deserve our gratitude. We do rejoice in hope and look forward to the day when every congregation is served by a pastor who is equipped for effective servant ministry. Our promise is to work toward building that future in hope. May God prosper the work of our hands for the sake of God's great kingdom!

Blessings for the journey,

Kenneth L. Nelson, Chair

Report Number Four Administrative Procedures

Enrollment in HealthFlex, the group insurance plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference, must be made within the first thirty days of eligibility or the first day actively at work. Late enrollment or enrollment for January 1st of any year must be completed with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits prior to November 30th of the preceding year.

Eligibility requirements are also set forth in the HealthFlex Administrative Manual published by the Health Care Division of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church, 1201 Davis Street, Evanston, IL 60201.

Billing: At the first of each month, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits will send premium statements to the participants enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program and to participants with Flexible Spending Accounts. Payments for group health premiums and Flexible Spending Accounts premiums shall be made on a monthly basis. At the first of each month, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits will send direct billing for the salary paying units share of premiums relating to the participants enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program. These payments should be made on a monthly basis.

Cancellation of Coverage: It is imperative that each participant in the Conference Insurance Program keeps his/her premium payments current. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits has instructed the benefits administrator to cancel the insurance coverage or the Flexible Spending Account of any participant who does not pay his/her premium by the end of the month for which he/she has been billed.

Ministers Serving in Eligible Extension Ministries: It is required that all Conference Boards and Agencies, served by ministers and others eligible for group insurance participation, pay for the "institutional share" of the insured's premium. This provision shall apply to the District Superintendents, Conference Staff and those serving United Methodist agencies for whom the South Carolina Annual Conference has pension responsibility. In every case the full cost of the group health premium must be paid by the insured, the employer, or through the combined payments of the insured and the employer. Premium payments shall be made in accordance with the instructions printed on the quarterly "Statement of Account". Premium payments are due at the first of the month for which the participant is billed.

Applications for enrollment in the Conference Insurance Program are available from the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, P.O. Box 3787, Columbia, SC 29230. The change enrollment form must be completed and in the hands of the benefits administrator within 30 days from the date of eligibility. If not, the applicant will be ineligible until the next following enrollment period.

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits is charged with oversight of the group insurance program of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the benefits of which program are outlined in the reports of the Board submitted to the Annual Conference. The Annual Conference approves the group insurance budget of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Board is authorized to negotiate and contract with carriers or the Hospitalization and Medical Expense Program Administrator to maintain the level of benefits for the eligible participants, as defined by the Annual Conference.

The group health plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference (Conference Plan) shall be the plan of first refusal for covering dependents of clergy appointed to local churches in the Conference. Where covered clergy wish to cover their dependents, the local church will seek to cover such dependents through the Conference Plan, rather than purchasing outside health insurance. Local churches may be excused from this requirement in cases where such dependents may be covered through the employer of a covered clergyperson's spouse, or through a governmental plan, such as an SCHIP, and in cases of demonstrable financial hardship.

BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS INSURANCE SECTION

SPECIAL REPORT
Mail Order Pharmacy

At the request of a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits (the Board) presents this report dealing with the issues concerning the pharmacy program that is currently part of the Healthflex Insurance program which is the denominational health plan that is currently sponsored by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church. The pharmacy options offered by the General Board do not offer a pharmacy program which does not include mandatory mail order maintenance prescription coverage. This type of program is becoming more and more the industry standard in the health benefits field, especially with pharmacy being the fastest rising portion of our health care costs.

Financial Implications:

There is a definite financial benefit to using the Medco mail order program. The current contract provides significantly higher discounts at mail versus retail. This translates into huge savings for the plan, and thus its participants, in the form of lower premiums. In addition, Medco pays rebates, which effectively increases the discount back to the plan at a much higher level for mail order prescriptions than retail prescriptions.

Finally, if we did not offer a mail order benefit, Medco's retail discount would not be as lucrative as it is today, further increasing costs to the plan. Without mail order pharmacy, the General Board states that HealthFlex would not be affordable to participants and plan sponsors.

*Analysis for South Carolina (locator code: 11113653) is annualized and based on utilization data from 1/1/08 - 10/31/08, and does not take into account changes in behavior or impact on re

*Savings are provided for directional purposes and are not a guarantee of savings.

*Financial results have not been audited.

*Excludes Mandatory Mail claims at retail that are hitting the penalty, Compounds, Powders, Adjustments, External and U&C Claims.

It should be noted that the above figures are based on shifting all mail maintenance claims to retail. It would be impossible to calculate the actual percentage of participants that would continue to utilize mail order for maintenance prescriptions. This is a calculation of the maximum cost shift.

Additionally, there is a concern that as utilization would shift from mail to retail, it would cause deeper shifts in realized discounts. For example, many would shift from brand drugs at mail (25% discount today) to brand at retail (15.8% discount based on optional mail order). Thus the plan and the annual cost would lose 9.2 percentage points (a 38.6% drop) in discount. Likewise, on the generic side, the plan and therefore the Annual Conference would lose 6 points in discount (from 63% to 57%). In addition, the plan would lose much of the rebate dollars it receives today. Rebates currently save the plan $9.00 per member per month in cost. Finally, participants would be out even more money by shifting to retail, as the co pays are higher at retail. The current dispensing fee $1.75 per prescription, in implementing optional mail order it would increase to $1.85.

It should be noted that a real comparison could only be accomplished if the Board were to request proposals from several vendors for providing the entire health benefits program for the South Carolina Annual Conference. The last time that was attempted was in 2006. At that time, all submitted proposals included mandatory mail order maintenance.

Safety Issues:

Patient safety continues to be at the forefront of the healthcare debate. Often times we hear the story of a surgeon operating on the wrong leg or prescribing an inappropriate dosage of medication. Pharmacies, whether retail or mail order, have made errors in dispensing. However, Medco has several systems in place to prevent dispensing errors. While their mail order facilities fill millions of prescriptions every year, the automation in place in those facilities allows Medco to enjoy a much higher rate of accuracy than retail pharmacies. In addition, Medco has systems in place to identify dangerous interactions or inappropriate dosing. Medco can also see prescriptions that patients obtain from multiple pharmacies, which a local pharmacist cannot do. This allows Medco access to more accurate and meaningful data when looking out for patient safety.

Substitution Issues:

Medco works on our behalf to ensure participants receive high quality therapies at reasonable prices. To achieve this goal, Medco looks for opportunities to switch prescriptions for our participants to less costly therapeutic equivalents. Over the long run, this practice helps to maintain the viability of the program without sacrificing quality. In the unique event that a participant can not tolerate a therapeutic equivalent, Medco is instructed to allow that patient to switch back to the originally requested medication. Also, keep in mind that Medco will not switch a participant's prescription without the authorization from the treating physician's office.

Customer Service Issues:

In recent conversations with Medco, they have told us of their high customer service standards, accuracy and satisfaction rates. It seems that they are very good at completing routine transactions. When things get complicated or different from the norm, customers find it quite frustrating to deal with Medco. Most complaints center around Medco's inability to resolve the participant's problem situations. Medco has acknowledged this problem and committed to working toward simplified resolution processes.

Conference staff through the General Board staff works continually with Medco in customer satisfaction. The Board and General Board staff will continue to work proactively with Medco to improve their customer service interactions with our participants.

Packaging Issues:

The requestor took issue with the fact that all pill form medication comes in the same white bottle, most of which are the same size. This is true and the standardization does provide a savings. However, most retail pharmacies package their medicine in a similar bottle according to the size of the prescribed medication. It should be noted that both at the retail and at the mail order level the bottles are clearly identified with the name and dosage of the medication. It should also be noted that everything Medco sends to participants is in recyclable packaging. This includes the bottles, plastic envelopes, and even the cold pack supplies.

Performance Issues:

In addition to the cost and other issues above, the case management performance of Medco and the Pharmacy program helps to insure our participants get the maximum value out of every prescription claim dollar spent. The Medco Contract does allow for case management follow up on the adherence to drug therapy through email and telephonic contact to remind participants that their drugs are to be refilled, and educational component to help the participant be a more active, cost conscious partner with their physician in their respective treatment plan.

The chart below is provided to show a comparison with our population with other groups.

Again, the South Carolina Annual Conference uses the denominational health plan (Healthflex), administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits as its health benefits provider. The General Board does not offer any pharmacy plan that provides for an option for unlimited retail reimbursement for maintenance medication. The General Board is currently under contract with Medco for the current mail order arrangement at least through 2010. Additionally, the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits does not allow for a carve-out of the pharmacy benefits within its rate structure for such an option. If the South Carolina Annual Conference chooses to pursue an optional retail for maintenance prescriptions there would have to be a break from the denominational health benefits plan.

Conclusion:

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits realize that no Benefit plan will satisfy all the needs of all participants. The Board remains committed to providing the most benefits for the participant within the current economic and funding environment. The staff and Board will continue reviewing the entire Health Benefits plan during 2010, and present a plan that is the best value for our participants and our churches.

Hucks Awards

Time and space do not permit us to go into detail about the works of these devoted local church historians, so these represent only a small percentage of their work on behalf of our connectional ministry of memory this year. Many of these churches celebrated anniversaries, and we note especially that many of the churches that have worked hardest to celebrate their history are younger churches.

Mountain View, Taylors

Mountain View's historian, Mrs. Frieda Anne Liston, continues to lead the church in collecting and promoting the church's history. The church prepared a DVD of its 2008 activities, celebrated Heritage Sunday, and prepared scrapbooks of the year's activities.

Pisgah UMC, Aynor

Pisgah's historian, Mrs. Judy Floyd, has continued their tremendous efforts to preserve and promote their church's history. They continue to collect and preserve artifacts and have updated their church's history.

Dials, Gray Court

Historians Dianne Culbertson and Sara Jane Armstrong led the church through its 200th anniversary celebration this year. They prepared a 435-page history of the church and established a history room for the many artifacts they collected during their bicentennial year.

Duncan Acres, Union

The historian of Duncan Acres, Sara White, led the church's efforts to celebrate a Homecoming service, collected artifacts, and prepared an exhibit on the church's history. She encouraged the church to convert video tapes of some historic events in the life of the church to DVD.

Lee Road, Taylors

Church historian Jane McGahee led the church in celebrating its 50th anniversary throughout the year. The church is collecting materials that document its history and continues to prepare space to protect these artifacts.

Livingston

The church celebrated its centennial and used the opportunity to collect and assemble documents and artifacts. The church celebrated its history with special occasions during the year.

Main Street, Greenwood

Led by historian Miriam Alewine, Main Street celebrated its sesquicentennial during 2008 with several special occasions. Harriet Mays updated the church's history. The history committee collected documents, made scrapbooks, and promoted the church's history on numerous occasions.

Trinity, Conway

Led by historian Jacquelyn Cannon, Trinity celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2008 with a year of celebrations. The history team conducted interviews with charter members and former pastors, which have been preserved on DVD. The church also published an attractive fifty-year history of the church that relied heavily on archival photographs.

Walnut Grove, Roebuck

Historian Jackie McAbee and the heritage team planned a series of events to celebrate the church's 150th anniversary. The church held Heritage Sunday events each month, collected reminiscences and added new materials to the Heritage Room that the committee maintains.

Westminster

Westminster's historian collected many documents and artifacts this year and kept a very thorough chronicle of life at the church. She also compiled membership information and documented several special events in the life of the church.

Windsor

Windsor's historian, the Rev. Franklin Buie, and the church celebration committee planned events around the church's 40th anniversary. Members collected oral history from members of the church, organized files and artifacts, and celebrated their anniversary at several events throughout the year.

First, Winnsboro

In 2008, the church celebrated both its 200th anniversary and the 100th anniversary of its current sanctuary. Historian Betty Bynum led a three-year process that collected materials, planned celebrations, made presentations, and interviewed members. All of the materials collected have become part of the church archives.

Publication Award – Dr. Katherine Davis Cann, for Common Ties: A History of Textile Industrial Institute, Spartanburg Junior College, and Spartanburg Methodist College, published in 2007 by Hub City Writers Project. Dr. Cann's book tells the story of the founding, growth, and development of Spartanburg Methodist College. This book contributes to our understanding not only of this college, but of how administrators, faculty, and students at the college interacted with South Carolina Methodists.

Individual Award - Ann Andrus of Bethel UMC, Charleston. Ann has served diligently on the commission in the past. She is an excellent church historian as well as historian of Methodism in Charleston. Her current projects include getting a plaque at site of the Cumberland Street meeting house and working tirelessly on the Bethel sanctuary restoration project.

THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (CUIC) is committed to encouraging local churches to participate in open dialogue with communities of different Faiths and denominations. CUIC continues to support and seek inquiries from LARCUM. CUIC is creating a South Carolina Conference brochure to aid churches in breaking barriers which negate the center piece of Jesus' ministry, "loving one another." Currently, The United Methodist Church is in dialogue with Catholics, Lutherans, and Episcopalians to bridge the gaps of our beliefs and discuss the oneness we truly have in Christ. We hope the local church will be encouraged to join these discussions, recognize our similarities, and emphasize the effectiveness of coming together as one in Christ.

THE COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS

The Commission on Communications has been grappling with ways to increase the effectiveness of communication to the laity about conference events, ministries, and services and to assist congregations with their communication needs. The Commission recognizes that for communication to be effective, it must be done through multiple media and in multiple exposures. Both clergy and lay people have varied communications behaviors. Some will read e-mail, others the Advocate and newsletters, others brochures mailed to them, and others will seek out Web sites. E-mailing Web links or HTML documents to people who have requested them is one way to keep them informed about their UMC interests, such as lay speaking, UMW, UMM, youth activities or Disciple Bible study.

A communication audit to be performed by UMCOM was canceled as a result of the downturn in the economy. The audit would have provided useful information to the commission to shape new initiatives and improvements in conference communication. The commission will attempt to develop alternative sources of data to inform its actions to enhance conference communications.

The transition away from staff-driven communications to requiring boards and committees to do their own has raised some problems, and the commission and conference communications staff are attempting to provide information and advice to assist these groups.

Significant improvements have been made to the conference Web site, and moving some publications from printed products to the Web effects significant savings, though costs still are incurred in designing pages for the Web as they were for printed publications.

Greater use of e-mail newsletters about conference ministries and services is under consideration. Making it possible for lay members to register to receive information by e-mail about activities such as the Lay Convocation, Older Adult Spiritual Life Retreat, lay speaking retreat and camps and retreats would supplement the Web presence and reach persons who respond to e-mail but do not actively seek information by searching the Web.

The commission is cooperating with The Advocate and supports its efforts to inform conference clergy and laity of important activities and issues.

The commission plans to increase attention to the public relations and promotional needs of congregations and bodies within the conference and plans to explore ways to provide communications training in the districts to equip churches for ministry through communication.

Respectfully submitted,

J. William Click, Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Report Number 1

A. The Mission and Changing Focus of the Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation

Historically, the Commission on Equitable Compensation has served for the support of fulltime clergy and students serving as pastors in the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference. Through the years, the Commission has been guided by the United Methodist Book of Discipline; the latest version states the following: "It is the purpose of the commission on equitable compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations." (The Book of Discipline, 2008, Paragraph 625.2) The Commission on Equitable Compensation supports the overall ministry of the local church, especially in transitional situations.

B. Total Compensation for Clergy

1. The commission on equitable compensation reminds churches and charges that salary is only one portion of total compensation. Churches and charges are urged to consider dispersing compensation in ways that will assist clergy and their families to retain as great a portion of their income as is legally possible. Churches and charges are reminded to consider total compensation and not just think of salary when thinking of clergy family needs. Likewise, clergy are reminded that they are supported in a variety of ways, and total compensation most often exceeds salary.
2. Churches and pastors are urged to keep informed of their income tax responsibilities and rights. Pastors are advised to seek qualified assistance in making decisions that will affect their income tax liabilities.

Report Number 2

A.1. Budget Request for 2010

The Commission on Equitable Compensation requests that a line item apportionment of $670,000 be made to fund the estimated $622,000 Commission on Equitable Compensation operational budget for 2010. These funds will be used for base compensation supplements, salary support for clergy in new church starts, special situations, and Hispanic Ministries, as well as support required and/or provided under these recommendations.

A.2. Schedule of Total Minimum Compensation for Clergy Serving in the South Carolina Annual Conference

In accord with the mandate of The Book of Discipline, the Commission recommends that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix the following as its minimum base compensation scale, effective January 1, 2010, and continuing until changed by the Annual Conference.

FOR FULL-TIME APPOINTMENTS AS CLERGY IN THE LOCAL CHURCH:

Category	Amount
a. Clergy in full connection	$39,850
b. Probationary, Commissioned and Associate Members	$35,750
c. Local Pastors	$33,500

*The recommendations are for an across the board increase of $600 over the 2009 conference schedule for total minimum compensation.

[Please note that the Commission on Equitable Compensation strongly encourages churches to pay the pastor's business expense through an accountable reimbursement plan which is a part of the administrative budget of the church, not part of salary. Please see sections "O" and "P" below, entitled "Reimbursement for Travel and Professional Expenses" and "Reimbursement as Administrative Cost"]

B. For Student Appointments

Each person serving a local church student appointment as pastor shall receive the compensation for his or her category, proportional to the percentage of time serving in a pastoral charge. (i.e., one-half time service would receive one-half the Equitable Compensation support for that person's category.) The percentage of time serving the charge shall be determined by the Cabinet.

C. For Deacons in Full Connection

Those persons who have responded to God's call to lead in service and to equip others for ministry through teaching, proclamation, and worship and who assist elders in the administration of the sacraments and are full-time ordained deacons in accordance with Paragraph 303.2 of The Book of Discipline 2008, shall be compensated by the local church not less than the minimum amount for an ordained elder of the annual conference in accordance with Paragraph 331.14(b) of The Book of Discipline 2008. Deacons who are employed by the congregation, charge, or cooperative parish less than full time shall be compensated proportional to the percentage of time being served. (Half time would receive not less than half the minimum salary.) Deacons not employed by a congregation, charge, cooperative ministry, or who are appointed under Paragraph 331.14(c) are not affected.

D. Experience Merit

A clergy person, who has served for 5 or more year's full time service or the equivalent thereof in the South Carolina Annual Conference, shall receive in addition to the minimum base, a supplement of $175.00 per year of service for up to 10 years of service.

Example:

Year 6	Equitable compensation base plus	$875.00
Year 7	Equitable compensation base plus	$1050.00
Year 8	Equitable compensation base plus	$1225.00
Year 9	Equitable compensation base plus	$1400.00
Year 10	Equitable compensation base plus	$1575.00
Year 11+	Equitable compensation base plus	$1750.00

E. Housing Allowances

The Commission recommends that all money given to the pastor for housing by the charge he/she serves be considered income if the pastor is not a resident in the charge which he/she serves.

F. Application for Equitable Compensation Support for Base Compensation Assistance

The District Superintendent shall request the base compensation assistance required by each charge twice each year (by May 15 for the July through December compensation assistance period and by December 15 for the January through June compensation assistance period); these requests must be approved by the Commission before payment can be made. This request from the District Superintendent shall be accompanied by an application form provided by the Commission and completed by the pastor, the pastor-parish relations committee, and the District Superintendent indicating income from all sources.

G. Cross Racial Appointments

If the Bishop and Cabinet, in making a cross-racial appointment, find it necessary to request an equitable compensation supplement, special consideration will be given on an individual basis. Guidelines listed under Report 3 will apply.

H. Cooperative Parish Ministries

Directors or coordinators of cooperative parish ministries which have been approved by the Board of Global Ministries, and application made by the District Superintendent to the commission by January 1 preceding the appointment in June of the same year may be eligible for funds not to exceed $7,000.00. No pastor shall be eligible to receive funds unless the charge he/she serves agrees in writing to release him/her for these added duties. Assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period and will decrease by 25% each year after the first year and a half.

I. Disbursement of Supplements

All compensation supplements from the Commission shall be disbursed monthly, and shall be paid to the local church involved for disbursement to the pastor or clergy person. In the case of new mission situations or churches, monies will be dispersed directly to the pastor until there is a church treasurer. Equitable compensation funds will not be used for moving expenses, businesses expenses, or church administration.

J. Utilities Allowance

The Commission requests that the South Carolina Annual Conference designate 15% (or estimate of actual expenses as requested by recipient) of base compensation support funded by this Commission as parsonage utilities allowance. This request is made to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service.

K. Investment of Reserve Fund

The commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that all funds held in "reserve" be invested and the interest used in the Commission's operating account.

L. Interpretation

The commission recommends that an interpretation of its task and policy procedures be given as a part of the District Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee Workshops. It is further recommended that this interpretation be done by a member of the commission upon invitation by the District Superintendent.

M. Compensation Guidance

The Commission recommends that District Superintendents assist churches and charges in setting appropriate compensation and work load packages in accordance with Paragraph 423.3 of The Book of Discipline 2008.

N. Ineligibility

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the following not be eligible for Equitable Compensation support:

1. Retired supply pastors
2. Part-time local pastors
3. Pastors on leave of absence except as provided in Standing Rule 99
4. Special appointment categories within the itinerancy of the United Methodist Church as defined in Paragraph 344.1. a, b, c of The Book of Discipline 2008.
5. Deacons as defined in Paragraph 303.2 of The Book of Discipline 2008 (except as appointed under Report 3 of this report and Paragraph 625.4 of The Book of Discipline 2008).

O. Reimbursement for Travel and Professional Expenses

The Commission recommends that each church set up a reimbursement account for travel and professional expenses incurred by the pastor in performing pastoral duties.

Reimbursement for non-commuting church-related travel shall be at the IRS rate (currently 55cents per mile.) The pastor(s) shall submit a voucher and a log each month for reimbursement. For reimburse for actual professional expenses (books, subscriptions, periodicals, etc.) the pastor(s) shall submit a voucher with supporting documentation for reimbursement. The amount set by the charge as reimbursement for travel and professional expenses should be determined after consultation with pastor(s) (and the District Superintendent, if desired or needed) by the Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee. Each charge should annually evaluate the local needs and expectations of its pastors and set an amount for reimbursement accordingly. Also, the procedures for reimbursement should be clearly stated.

P. Reimbursement as Administrative Cost

The commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel and professional expenses be a part of the administrative cost of each local church and not considered or reported as part of the pastor's compensation.

Q. Vacation Policy

The Commission reminds churches and ministers that vacation time plus time for renewal and reflection are an expected part of compensation. Time away is necessary for personal, spiritual, and family health. It is recommended that all clergy and diaconal ministers be granted, as a minimum, annual vacation and days of renewal according to the following schedule:

Total Years of Service/ Number of Weeks

Less than 5 years a minimum of 2(including Sundays)

5 years -10 years a minimum of 3 (including Sundays)

More than 10 years a minimum of 4 (including Sundays)

In addition to the above, it is recommended that the minister, regardless of years of service, be granted one day of retreat a month for prayer and reflection. Also, it is expected that the minister will have at least one day off a week. "Years of Service" reflect number of years under appointment in the ministry of the United Methodist Church, and not the number of years of service on a given charge. "Vacation" is meant as freedom from any responsibility in the local church or charge, district, conference area, jurisdiction, or general conference. Vacation should be a time of rest, recreation, and renewal. It should not be interpreted to mean time the pastor works at a church camp, is on a mission trip, a meeting of a general board, an agency of the conference, or a district retreat. Time away from the charge for annual conference and continuing education events shall not be considered vacation time. The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

It is asked that the Lay Member of the Annual Conference communicate this information to the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee and to the local church.

Report Number 3
Mission Situations

A. Definition

Mission situations are new churches and existing churches in transitional circumstances that are in areas that demand an effective ministry but are incapable of providing such ministry without equitable compensation assistance. Mission situations may also include intentional ministry to persons of low income.

B. Eligibility

To be eligible for equitable compensation assistance in mission situations the following procedures must be followed;

1. The District Board for Congregational Development shall be the authorizing body to project a transitional situation and the Conference Committee on Congregational Development will project all new church starts.
2. The District Board for Congregational Development will refer this to the Conference Committee on Congregational

- Development for verification as a transitional situation, and its priority rank among conference needs.
3. The potential new mission situation will then be referred to the Cabinet for approval. The Cabinet will strive to inform the Commission of potential new mission situations two years ahead of the time the appointment is to start. The Commission will budget for new mission situations after Cabinet approval.
 4. At the time of appointment, the Cabinet will then designate a pastor or clergy person with at least 4 years experience and request an appropriate base compensation for that particular mission situation.
 5. In all cases where a new mission situation is to be launched, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1st preceding the Annual Conference at which an appointment is to be made providing, at that time, the projected base compensation cost to be incurred in July.

Note 1. The local church's share of this base compensation schedule is interpreted to mean all sources of income from the local church or from any other source.

Note 2. In all cases where a mission situation is attached to an existing charge, these become charge figures.

Note 3. The District Superintendent may apply to the Commission for a compensation that is more in keeping with the amount received by this pastor in his or her previous appointment.

C. Continuation of Supplements and Annual Evaluation

1. If the ministry being served is unable to meet the schedule below for two years in a row, support from Equitable Compensation will cease after the next year following.
2. An evaluation shall be done annually on each mission situation. The Conference Director of Congregational Development shall provide a report of this evaluation to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1st.

D. Payment of Direct Billing Costs for Pensions and Health Benefits in Mission Situations Only

The Commission on Equitable Compensation will pay only the direct billing costs of persons in mission situations according to the compensation schedules listed below. The Commission will send its proportional share directly to the conference office of Pensions and Health Benefits.

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

Your commission is comprised of a majority of new members who are willing to learn. We are connecting with the General Board of Religion and Race so we can share and learn from Commissions all over. We continue to recognize Barbara Boultinghouse and Bishop Joseph B. Bethea with an award to well deserved members each year. This year we hope to be able to give a report after each session about the monitoring of the conference. After sitting in a meeting as an ex-officio member there are some members of our conference feel they are being looked over and one of our churches was vandalized with racial slurs. This let's us know that there is still much work to be done.

THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) continues to develop ways to inform and sensitize the leadership within the conference at all levels on issues that affect women and prohibit the full participation of women in the life of the church. This years' goals were to continue to publish the annual newsletter, and to offer a one day workshop with the opportunity of receiving continuing education credits as resources for the conference.

Our newsletter previously known as Women in the Pulpit has been renamed The Eve. In the past few years, the newsletter has expanded its focus beyond just women in the pulpit to other areas of leadership and concerns for women in the church; therefore, we believe The Eve is a more accurate reflection of COSROW. Eve was the woman in the Bible who was created to be a companion of Adam; but throughout the Bible and today, the roll of the woman has continued to evolve into so much more. Women are not just leading in the pulpit, but in various areas of the church, positions that were once held only by men. The Eve celebrates women and their accomplishments in the life of the church. The theme for the Spring 2009 issue of The Eve was "Stepping Out on Faith and Celebrating Success." This issue continued to include worship resources for "Women in the Pulpit Sunday;" featured the success stories of women embarking on different leadership roles within the church; as well as new features, such as resources for health and law.

The one day workshop has been scheduled for August 15, 2009 with M. Garlinda Burton, who is General Secretary of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women in the United Methodist Church, as our keynote speaker. This workshop and future events will hopefully address issues that will help churches in areas such as prepare/welcome their first female pastor; identify how to access at-risk women in the church; men talking to men about ways to successfully communicate and advocate for women, and more.

COSROW continues to strive for innovation in becoming a more visible and more effective ministry as we resource the South Carolina Conference on issues pertaining to the status and role of women.

THE COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

In conversations taking place within a recent Commission on Worship meeting, it was noted that worship often becomes just 'one more' among the many programs of the life of the local congregations. Furthermore, it was also noted that worship runs on a sort of 'auto pilot' mechanism in many local congregations. Often the pastor sets up the order of service, while musicians may select hymns; and there may be a lay reader. This structure never varies and no one else is ever invited to participate in a significant way in the planning or implementation of the worship services. In many places, more care is given to planning a seniors' outing than the Sunday morning worship service.

Out of this understanding, the Commission has begun to commit itself to the task of helping local congregations affirm the centrality of worship in their lives - in deed and word. Worship is not just one more thing that the church does. It is the central thing, the 'tie that binds', the core of our lives as a faith community. Jesus said, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment.' (Matthew 22: 37b-38) He was talking about worship; it is the first and great commandment. It is the primary duty of Christians. Worship of God is that which makes the church more than just another civic organization. Its importance and centrality demands that it be handled with our best care and planning.

To that end the Commission has begun to focus its work around the idea of 'Best Practices'. We are working with the Clergy Orders officers to secure the services of a person from the general church to do instruction at a clergy gathering on the processes and procedures coming out of This Holy Mystery, a study of Holy Communion.

The Commission maintains a grant process to provide funds to congregations and organizations to assist in paying for worship related training events. We maintain a speakers bureau to provide a list of available speakers for training events. We maintain an inventory of all conference owned worship related items. We have begun work on Nuts and Bolts III, which will treat all things in worship that are musically related. We are completing work on a worship DVD that visually demonstrates the information in Nuts and Bolts I. And we are working with the Conference Board of Global Ministries to develop a shared five session training event that blends worship and missions. Further, we are promoting the use of an ecumenical Baptismal certificate and the development of a greater resource presence on our conference web site. All of this is to promote and foster better planning and implementation of worship in the variety of settings in the local church that we United Methodist have for worship.

In line with our promotion of the idea of 'Best Practices', we are promoting the use of all the denominational resources available to us to enhance our Worship services: The Book of Worship, the variety of hymnals, the general church web site (<http://www.gbod.org/worship>), and the newly re-worked guide book on worship. This last resource has gone through a major re-working for this new quadrennium. It moves from being a source for a worship committee to a resource for a planning team.

Lastly, we continue to work with the bishop and the designated liturgist(s) in the preparation and implementation of this conference's worship during annual conference. We are content in our roles as vergers and altar guild, working behind the scenes. Our prayer is that we help things run a bit more smoothly and less hectically for the bishop, our liturgists, and the worshippers.

The Reverend Gary D. Phillips, Chair

THE COMMITTEE ON THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Committee on the Annual Conference met on Tuesday, December 9, 2008, to evaluate the 2008 Annual Conference and to begin planning for the 2009 Annual Conference. The members of the committee reviewed the experience of the 2008 Annual Conference and the results of the 571 post-conference evaluations that were returned. The evaluation forms were made available in the registration packets. The committee was pleased to note that in every category, the ratings given to the various aspects of the conference were again rated between acceptable and excellent by those responding.

The committee considered the suggestions offered in the evaluations and focused on several that might improve future annual conferences. A discussion was held concerning the possibility of holding annual conference after school had been dismissed for summer, as well as the possibility of holding annual conference on different days of the week in order to use more of the weekend. Conversations also took place about the best ways to vote on Constitutional Amendments, provide information about the amendments, and allow for debate about those amendments at annual conference this year.

After the 2008 Conference, committee members could consider their own experience, since the Conference has now been held in Florence twice, and could also consider the responses from the evaluations. In light of the favorable experience in Florence and the favorable responses of participants, the Committee recommends that the 2010 Annual Conference be held at the Florence Civic Center in Florence.

Another city submitted a proposal to host the annual conference in the future, and the Committee authorized a delegation to visit the site, evaluate the proposal, and report back to the full committee when it meets in the Fall. As other cities offer to host the annual conference, their proposals will continue to be evaluated to determine if the experience of annual conference could be improved by moving to another location within the state.

Finally, the Committee expresses its gratitude to Central United Methodist Church and to the Florence District for their work as hosts for the 2008 Session. Their gracious spirit in helping to host Annual Conference was highly instrumental in producing a successful Annual Conference.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

It has been said, "Without change there is no innovation, creativity, or incentive for improvement. Those who initiate change will have a better opportunity to manage the change that is inevitable." Your Committee on the Conference Journal has been discussing ways to provide you with timely information while also being fiscally, socially, and ecologically responsible. Therefore, when we were asked by CF&A to accept a 66% reduction in our budget allocation for 2010, and when the company producing our last pictorial directory collapsed, we were ready to manage the changes.

The technological resources available as well as the skills and talents of the IT personnel at the Conference Center will allow us to make available online future Conference Journals and pictorial directories. Because we understand that some churches and pastors are in locations where internet reception is still difficult to obtain at best, we will also be making DVD's of these publications, (to be produced upon request), available for purchase.

In an effort to continue serving you and our God faithfully, we will also be in conversation with other Annual Conferences which have converted to digital format, and, as always, we welcome conversation with you.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. Emily Allen, Chairperson

THE CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS COMMITTEE

The Conference Staff Relations Committee has the privilege to oversee the annual conference staff members concerning their role and work in carrying out their specific leadership responsibilities. The committee has met twice this year.

At its first meeting, the committee organized for the quadrennium and provided orientation for its new members. At the direction of the 2008 Annual Conference, the committee expanded the responsibilities of the Congregational Specialist of African American Ministries to a full time position. Beginning in January of 2009, the Reverend Ken Nelson relinquished his district assignments, so that he could devote more of his time to strengthening African American congregations across the state. This staffing change initiated some shifting in the district assignments for the other congregational specialists. The Reverend Sonya Ortigozo was given responsibility for the Columbia and Hartsville Districts. The committee discussed and approved a selection process to fill the vacancy in the Greenville and Anderson Districts.

In November, the Conference Staff Relations Committee unanimously supported the recommendation of the Personnel Committee that the Reverend Cathy Joens become the Congregational Specialist for the Greenville and Anderson Districts. The committee then individually met with each of the Congregational Specialists to hear reports of their ministry as to what is going well, what could be better, and what their future plans are. We continue to receive positive remarks from churches across the conference pertaining to the Specialists. They are giving helpful assistance and guidance to the churches, especially in the Natural Church Development process.

In addition, the work on the committee included meeting with other staff members including the Director of Connectional Ministries, the Director of Clergy Services/Conference Secretary, the Director of Congregational Development, the Director of Communications, and the Director of Internet Technology. These conversations enable the committee and staff to coordinate and multiply the ministry of the conference.

Furthermore, the committee began a review of the Personnel Manual for the Conference to determine if and how it might be improved. Staff compensation for 2009 was established within the approved budget parameters set by the annual conference. Throughout the process, the committee remained keenly aware of the economic conditions of the church and the conference.

We are blessed to serve with such a gifted and qualified staff in the conference. They are corporately and individually deeply committed to the ministry of Jesus Christ.

Mary Virginia Taylor, Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE ON CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The report of the Committee on Congregational Development represents the efforts of many people across our annual conference. Our new church starts, Grace Community in Fort Mill, Journey in Columbia, Point Hope in Mt. Pleasant, and Waters Edge in Beaufort, are showing signs of growth and vitality. Grace Point in Bluffton experienced a change in leadership and is working toward launching weekly worship services. Point Hope has leased a building in Park West and will begin worshipping there in the spring. This will be a major step for them as they have worshiped in an elementary school for over 6 years.

Bethany UMC in Summerville is helping birth a new congregation at the conclusion of annual conference in June. Bethany's commitment of both people and resources is a major step forward in how we should start new churches in our conference. When an established congregation births a new church the possibility of success is greatly enhanced. Any church that has interest in sponsoring a new faith community is urged to contact our office.

Esperanza UMC in Greenville is a Hispanic mission congregation that has the support of several churches in the district. The former Arrington Church on Old Buncombe Road is the site of this new church start, and it promises to be a significant ministry among the large Hispanic community in the Greenville area. A pastor will be appointed there at this annual conference.

Our ability to start new churches and strengthen existing congregations is affected by the resources we receive through our conference apportionments. We received $16,600 less in 2008 than we did in 2007. As with all conference programs, the impact we are able to make is directly related to the support of our apportionments. This year we were able to make four grants to local churches for a total of $112,922.

John Wesley in Lamar, and Edisto Fork in Orangeburg are two local churches we have worked with in developing new church campuses. The ministry opportunities for both churches are very exciting.

Many of our churches have a vision of the Kingdom of God that continues to grow. They are receiving new members by profession of their faith in Christ, and the possibilities are limitless. May all of our churches understand that the church exists for the sole purpose of helping people meet, know, serve, and share Jesus.

THE COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

The 2008-2012 Committee on Episcopacy was convened by the bishop and organized for the quadrennium on Tuesday, February 24.

At this meeting, the following officers were elected:

- Chairperson: Rev. Kristen R. Richardson-Frick
- Vice-Chairperson: Rev. Kenneth B. Timmerman
- Secretary: Rev. Barbara Lee Reid

The committee members expressed gratitude for the leadership of Bishop Taylor over the past quadrennium. The group also expressed joy for her re-appointment to serve and lead our conference in the coming four years.

In addition, members reviewed the duties and responsibilities of the committee as outlined in Paragraph 637 of the 2008 Discipline, and reiterated our commitment to supporting the work of our Bishop, Mary Virginia Taylor.

THE COMMITTEE ON ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS

Diversity is God's gift to us. Our ethnic congregations are vital and visible. They are participating in the mission of the South Carolina Conference without losing their ethnic identity and faith experiences. They bring the gift of uniqueness in worship.

Resourcing is critical and necessary for the strengthening of our ethnic churches. We will be working toward providing the necessary resources for our ethnic churches to be revitalized.

A website for ELCC will be operational by May 1. This site will have links to each of ELCC's committees/task forces: African American Task Force, Korean American Task Force, Hispanic/Latino Committee, and the Native American Committee. ELCC's activities include the revision of our grant application form. We have created a brochure and a newsletter that will be available via the website. In addition to the awarding of grants and scholarships, ELCC plans to increase the number of visitations to ethnic churches.

Ethnic Committee Highlights:

African American Task Force – Appointment of Rev. Ken Nelson as Congregational Specialist for the African American Church

Korean American Task Force – Reactivated Dr. Kyoung Ro, Chairperson

Native American Committee – Working toward establishing two United Methodist Native American mission churches

Hispanic/Latino Committee – New church start, Greenville District

The reports for the African American Task Force, Korean American Task Force, Hispanic/Latino Committee and the Native American Committee follow.

Charlotte A. Grooms, Chairperson

AFRICAN-AMERICAN TASK FORCE

The African American Task Force is grateful to the South Carolina Annual Conference for the adoption of The Comprehensive Plan of Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century. This plan is the product of the needs and direction given from a series of four (4) Tri-District listening sessions held with African American clergy and laity across the state.

Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century is the national plan or initiative of the whole church supporting the continual inclusion of African and African Americans in its life. The Comprehensive Plan has ten (10) focus points:

- 1) Strengthening the relationship between the Bishop and Cabinet and the local church
- 2) Strengthening the Ministry of Ordained Clergy
- 3) Strengthening the Ministry of Laity
- 4) Strengthening the Ministry of Christian education and formation in the African American congregation
- 5) Revitalization of existing congregations and new church starts.
- 6) Ethnic Sensitivity and Training Events
- 7) Funding Resources
- 8) Communications with clergy, laity and congregations
- 9) Presence of African Americans on Conference and District Staffing Positions
- 10) Leadership Development for Clergy and Laity

The African American Task force will place emphasis on three of the ten focal points as a starting point.

- 1) Revitalization of existing congregations and new church starts. We will affirm the usage of Natural Church Development as a tool for revitalization in existing congregations and make recommendation of areas for new church starts for evangelizing African Americans.
- 2) Strengthening the Ministry of Clergy and Laity by affirming The Bishop's School of Ministry, the Granville Hicks Lecture Series and the development of The SC African American Church Convocation as vehicles to learning and equipping for ministry.
- 3) Communication with clergy, laity and congregations through the position of the African American Congregational Specialist, African-American Task Force and Black Methodist for Church Renewal to form a positive coalition to disseminate information to inform and educate the African-American congregations.

Reverend Ellis White, Jr., Chairperson

HISPANIC-LATINO COMMITTEE

This year has seen tremendous growth in the awareness of persons and churches of the need for us as an Annual Conference to provide ministry to, with, and by our Hispanic/Latino neighbors.

Our mission as a committee is to connect churches and Hispanic/Latino communities, to equip churches and districts to respond to the needs of Hispanic/Latino persons, to develop places for worship, fellowship, radical hospitality and extravagant generosity, and to provide opportunities to grow in discipleship as individuals and communities.

The most exciting accomplishment this year has been the establishment of Iglesia Metodista Unida Esperanza, an Hispanic mission located in the former Arrington UMC building. Under the leadership of District Superintendent Charles Johnson, with the assistance of a number of churches in the Greenville District and the Office of Congregational Development, this vision has become a reality.

This summer a student from South Carolina with a passion for Hispanic ministry who is currently attending Duke Divinity School will serve as an intern at Mt. Hebron UMC. She will be working to help this congregation in the Columbia District develop a plan for ministry in their community. She will also be working with our Conference Congregational Specialist and coordinator to the Hispanic/Latino Ministry, Sonia Brum Ortigoza. Funding for this internship comes through the Office of Connectional Ministries.

At the request of this committee, the Committee on Equitable Compensation has developed a formula for supporting those persons working in Hispanic/Latino congregations. This comes in recognition of the fact that such ministries are missional in nature, and may take longer than usual to become self-sustaining.

The Committee has developed an Emergency Response Fund out of its own budget to provide humanitarian assistance to Hispanic/Latino persons in South Carolina who are in crisis, to provide food, clothing, and shelter on a short-term basis. Requests for use of this fund should be made through the District Office where the crisis situation has occurred.

We are currently developing a series of Strategic Planning Sessions to be held across the Conference during the next year. These sessions will provide assistance for pastors and local congregations to set priorities and leave with a concrete plan for engaging in ministry with Hispanic/Latino persons in their communities.

As you can see, the work of ministry among our Hispanic/Latino neighbors involves many more people than those who serve on this committee. It involves the cooperation of the entire network of committees and personnel who serve this Annual Conference. It is dependent upon the pastors and congregations who feel called to this ministry, and who are willing to give freely of themselves to build bridges of friendship and love.

Thank you for your continued support in making this ministry a priority of our Annual Conference.

Reverend Mary V. Teasley, Chairperson

KOREAN AMERICAN TASK FORCE

"Our vision is that Wesleyan tradition and Korean spirituality will be integrated in a way that enables and encourages all persons to be involved in discipleship."

The Korean Task Force has been re-activated. We are organizing and planning. Our intent is to follow the National Plan for Korean Ministry. It is our intent to create, nurture and enable communities of faith to be disciple-making ministries. We hope to become bridge builders in cross-cultural and cross-generational ministries as well as agents of social justice.

Korean congregations are vital, visible and growing. As a task force we will strive to realize our vision by working to facilitate it. Our main focus will be "Small Group Ministry." We will focus on the development of three main areas:

- 1) Congregational Development, Nurture and Revitalization
- 2) Leadership Formation
- 3) Next Generation Ministries

Dr. Kyoung Ro, Chairperson

NATIVE AMERICAN COMMITTEE

What is the message in the Book of Micah? Micah 7:18-19 states, "Who is a God like you, who pardons sin and forgives the transgression of the remnant of his inheritance? You do not stay angry forever but delight to show mercy. You will again have compassion on us; you will tread our sins underfoot and hurl all our iniquities into the depths of the sea."

In February, Cathy Nelson (our vice chairperson), provided a summary of the Giving Our Hearts Away training. This course, targeting women, takes a look at the tragic history of the American Indian including the role the church played. We were made aware of concerns about presenting this training. We believe this training is vital and does not create division when presented in the proper manner.

The past is the past. None of us have the ability to change what happened. It is history, it is what it is. Yet, we have the opportunity to learn from our past ensuring we do not repeat the mistakes of the past. In order to accomplish this, we must learn the true facts of what happened and acknowledge what occurred.

I am often asked if I am angry about what happened to American Indians in the past and how they were and are treated. I believe the message of Micah answers this question. God provides forgiveness and he tells us not to keep our anger. He will tread our sins of the past underfoot and throw them into the depths of the sea. We must take the lessons of the past and use them to promote unity and harmony among all God's people. Anger serves no purpose. We are one people bounded by the blood of Christ. Indian people have long referred to ourselves as the human beings. What greater lesson than to acknowledge that we are all human (God's creations) regardless of race, color, gender or any other division of our own (man's) creation. This is the message that I wanted to provide for reflection as I write this annual report.

Building on 2007, 2008 has been one of the most productive years for our committee. Once again, we increased the number of churches having Native American Ministries Sunday. This is a great accomplishment; yet, we are still only reaching about one quarter of our conference. Although Native American Ministries Sunday is April 19th (the Sunday after Easter), our committee will arrange for this special Sunday anytime during the year. We provide speakers for this Sunday. To arrange a Native American Ministries Sunday, please contact the chair, Zan Tracy Pender, 803-905-5672.

In February, we conducted a seventh Native American Representative Training. There were 88 people in attendance. Some of these representatives have attended before and we welcomed them back. We were also encouraged by the number of new faces and new representatives. Our committee has completed a DVD taping of the 2007 training which was sent to all District Superintendents. If a representative could not attend the training, he or she can view the training. As a reminder, The Discipline requires that every local church at charge conference designate by nomination and election a minimum of one person per charge (without regard to race or ethnic origin) as a Native American Representative for that church.

Our committee provides the training and the local church Native American Representative works with our committee in assisting with our projects and programs as well as establishing Native American Ministries Sunday in his or her church. This year, our committee developed its own offering envelope for this special Sunday. It has our logo and provides a summary of our mission and objectives. If your church needs offering envelopes, please contact Gail Corn at the conference office in Columbia.

We strive to continue to be good stewards of the monies provided through Native American Ministries Sunday. Fifty percent of the offering remains in our conference. I am pleased to inform the conference that we have developed a detailed operating budget which will help us monitor and use our funding appropriately. We have designated line items for special funding, such as donations for elder baskets.

This year, we spent $2,064 in scholarships sending South Carolina American Indian families to the annual Native American Conference at Lake Junaluska in North Carolina. We provided assistance to several tribes including repairs to tribal buildings, moving a tribal building, restoring traditional cultural dances, crafts and traditions, and even supporting a historically correct display about South Carolina Indian people in a local city museum.

We had a significant accomplishment at the Native American Conference in June. Beckee Garriss was elected president of the Southeastern Native American Caucus (SERNAC). Charlotte Barker was elected secretary. This is a first in our conference. They will represent the Southeastern Jurisdiction to the national United Methodist Native American Comprehensive Plan (NACP) and Native American International Caucus (NAIC). Our chair was also asked to revise the SERNAC by-laws.

We were disappointed that we did not have a Native American Salkehatchie Camp last year. However, I'm pleased to announce that we will have one this year. We will be working with the Wassamasaw tribe. We are seeking volunteers to help with building and home repairs as well as donations of repair materials and monetary support. The camp will be in the low country, probably in Berkley County. If you are interested in participating contact Rev. Sistare at 803-787-3058.

We continued our Christmas Elder Comfort Basket project. We thank the conference churches for both the donations of elder baskets and the monetary support of over $1,000.00 to purchase supplies to balance the donations in all baskets and to cover transportation costs to move the baskets to South Carolina Indian people throughout the state. We provided 128 baskets this year. A hearty thank you is sent out to Keepers of the Word who continue to work with us in completing this project. They also provided drumming this year at our Native American Representative Training.

Once again, we will have our annual Christmas Elder Comfort Baskets. We will gather and make Elder Comfort Baskets throughout the year. We need small laundry baskets to be filled with non-perishable food items, laundry detergent, dish washing liquids, bath soaps, shampoos, hand/lotions, toothpaste and brushes, toilet paper, tissues, health care products for men and women, facial care products, nail clippers, and Christmas Candy. If your church can assist please contact our vice chair, Cathy Nelson, at 843-835-8589. Our committee also handles cash donations for this project to cover gas expenses for pick up and delivery of the baskets.

Sarah Sanchez continues to publish our newsletter. If you would like to receive a newsletter, please let me know and I will provide the information to Sarah. We are thankful to her for the job that she does.

We are seeking a volunteer to serve as our Native American Representative E-mail Group Manager. We want to improve our communications with our representatives. Our goal is to have an e-mail group where we can provide updates throughout the year. Yet, with the size of our committee, we need assistance. If anyone is interested, please contact me.

We have received two petitions from American Indian people in SC requesting that we establish United Methodist Native American churches within our conference. We are working with the conference in the hopes of establishing mission churches for at least two American Indian communities.

There is one area that we are requesting assistance from all churches. We need an accurate count of American Indian people in our churches. In many instances, there are American Indians attending our various congregations. However, they are not being identified in charge conference reports. Yes, it is easy just to guess or go by what has been sent in previously. However, we are asking churches to identify those Native American members of their congregations. Three of our committee members, who are American Indians, are not identified as Native Americans in their own churches. Thus, we have room for improvement.

One of John Wesley's major missions was outreach to the American Indians. Please continue your strong support and acknowledgment of our vital outreach mission which is a part of this conference and all of our churches. We have only just begun to "Make the Invisible – Visible." We walk a Good Red Road together led by our Creator and saved by the blood of Jesus. We walk, hand-in-hand, all races, in forgiveness and healing as the lesson of the Book of Micah teaches us. For that, thank you!

May the Spirit watch over you as long as the grass grows and the water flows. God bless.

Zan Tracy Pender, Chairperson

THE GLOBAL AIDS COMMITTEE

During a special worship service focusing on the Global AIDS pandemic at the 2007 Annual Conference, you gave offerings that resulted in slightly over $5000 of Global AIDS Funds being returned to this Conference to be used locally. By a previous decision of this committee, funds returned for local use will be distributed in $5000 increments to the districts based on the prevalence of HIV/AIDS cases. The Columbia district heads this list.

In conjunction with Rev. Tim McClendon, DS of the Columbia District, and Dr. Bambi Geddis, Director of the SC HIV/AIDS Council, your gifts will be supporting a Sexual Health and Domestic Violence Seminar for women and girls on June 15 and an intervention with girls 18-24 this summer or early fall.

In April of this year, I had the privilege of attending the Lighten The Burden II Conference at Fort Worth and distributing Global AIDS Fund information at General Conference. It was made clear that the task before us is immense, but that our God is great and able to meet the needs of many when we are willing to put our fish and loaves out for use. A couple of us have also participated in speaking engagements in various districts this year as you have gathered for planning. We applaud your efforts and look forward to ministry with you.

The Committee is also working with the SC HIV/AIDS Council to offer training and screening events in the Columbia, Hartsville, and Orangeburg Districts this year. Funds from a grant from the National Global AIDS Committee are making this possible, and thus so are you. In fact, every time you give $1 to the Global AIDS Fund, $.25 is returned to this Annual Conference and other grant funds are made available for ministry. Please remember to give to the Global AIDS Fund and to ask each member of your congregation to give at least $1 so that each district can be funded. There is much ministry to be done.

Please visit our booth here at Annual Conference for more information.

THE COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

HISTORY

The Conference Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling traces its beginnings to the 1967 Annual Conference when a standing committee was established. In the 1984 Conference Journal this committee's mandate centered around the need for healing and included the following responsibilities:

1. Communicating with the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, Office of Ministerial Affairs, and the Cabinet regarding clergy care systems.
2. Strategic planning regarding pastoral care and counseling needs in the conference.
3. Providing policy guidelines, connectional linkage, and evaluation of conference programs of pastoral care and counseling.

MISSION STATEMENT

With the vision Caring for the Caregiver, the Pastoral Care and Counseling Committee understands that clergy, diaconal ministers, and laity sometimes experience pain while attempting to be in ministry. On behalf of the SC Conference we wish to offer a healing presence by supplementing counseling fees for clergy, diaconal ministers, and their families in the widest geographical area possible and in strict confidentiality.

All Clergy/Diaconal Ministers and their families who are related to the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church are eligible recipients of supplementary fees. After reviewing the availability of funds and the increase in requests, the committee decided that the maximum is $30 for individual/couple/family sessions and $15 for group sessions. These maximums fluctuate with availability of funds. In the event a need for counseling is indicated one may call the Office of Connectional Ministries for a list of counseling centers or approved counselors. All approved counselors must register and submit copies of their credentials to the Committee of Pastoral Care and Counseling.

The Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling is striving to continue an ongoing support system for the clergy/diaconal ministers and their families. Much appreciation is expressed to the South Carolina Annual Conference for your resources and the members of the committee for your willingness to serve.

Cassandra Pasley Jackson, Chairperson

THE OFFICE OF CLERGY SERVICES

The primary purpose of the Office of Clergy Services continues to be to serve as a support for and liaison between the Bishop and Cabinet and the Board of Ordained Ministry in areas related to clergy licensing, ordination and status.

Ms. Bonnie Speas, the Administrative Assistant for Clergy Services, is known and loved by countless candidates. Her concern for each of our candidates and her apparently endless willingness to help guide them through the process are blessings both to the candidates and to our church. She maintains our database and oversees the process of requesting and receiving the many annual reports this office is responsible for. The work of this office literally would not happen without her. I continue to be grateful to the twelve district secretaries for their work and for their diligent oversight of so much information, vital to so many different people. And it is a pleasure to work with our Bishop and Superintendents on many matters related to our clergy, and to attempt to support them as they continue the vital and demanding work necessary to identify, nurture, instruct and supervises the clergy of our Conference.

The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry has organized for a new quadrennium, and continues to seek the most effective and faithful ways to fulfill its remarkably broad role in evaluating and approving clergy to serve the local churches and various ministries of our Conference. The importance of this work cannot be overstated, as the future health of our churches is, in many ways, directly related to the quality of leadership provided by our clergy. The Rev. Ken Nelson is completing his first year as chair of the Board. His commitment to ministry, attention to detail, and concern for both candidates and the church has been crucial as the Board seeks to be faithful to our Lord in service to the church. It has been a privilege to assist the Board.

During the past year the single most notable work of this office has been to re-organize its web page into a more user-friendly format, and to continue to update the forms and information available there. This could not have been accomplished without the help of Matt Brodie. Additionally, this office helped organize the June orientation session for those seeking commissioning or ordination; assisted in organizing and holding the Bishop's School of Ministry; and provided support for three meetings of the full Board of Ordained Ministry and meetings of the Board of Ordained Ministry Executive Committee. This office has continued the work to store more records in digital form in order to maximize the use of limited space available for storing records. Without trying to list every event or undertaking of the past year, I continue to respond to requests by phone, email, and correspondence related to licensing, ordination, and all matters related to clergy and their status within the conference, and have met with individuals seeking personal guidance in these areas.

It is a pleasure to serve in this area of ministry, and I look forward to the coming year.

Timothy J. Rogers, Coordinator of Clergy Services

THE MINISTRY ADVISORY TEAM

The Ministry Advisory Team brings together the leadership of Connectional Ministries, the Council on Finance and Administration, Ordained Ministry, the Board of the Laity, and the Cabinet. During this past year the Ministry Advisory Team has met twice.

In cooperation with the Board of Trustees, the Ministry Advisory Team has concentrated on fulfilling the directive of the 2008 Annual Conference to establish the William Norman Bobo, Jr. Endowment. The gift in 2006 from the estate of William Norman Bobo, Jr. was $539,347.65, which has produced $43,330.43 in income. Of this amount, 25% or $10,832.61 has been added to the endowment corpus and $32,497.82 is available for the use in leadership development for laity and clergy in the annual conference.

These funds will assist us in our efforts to provide an ongoing systematic process for leadership development. A committee has been created to guide the work. The committee will consist of representatives from the Board of Laity, the Board of Ordained Ministry, the cabinet, the bishop and the director of connectional ministries. These agencies are currently responsible for the Annual Conference's three major training events: the Laity Convocation, Job Function Workshops and the Bishop's School of Ministry.

We are developing a unified leadership development plan built around these three events. The plan will have three modules. The first is a strengthened job function training process that would not only include District Job Function Workshops, but would also provide DVD and web-based training. These offerings would be for specific responsibilities in local churches and would be designed for various size congregations. The second module will be three, six, or nine month continuing education courses built in response to training needs identified by laity, clergy, the cabinet and the boards of laity and ordained ministry. It is our hope that some of the leaders for both the job function training and continuing education courses will come from the faculties of our colleges and seminaries. The third module will be a Leadership Development Academy. A well known leader would be the keynote speaker and a large number of workshops would be offered. There will be some workshops that will be offered each year; some on a rotating schedule and some designed for just that year's academy.

Our hope is that the entire process will result in stronger lay and clergy leadership in our local churches, districts and annual conference. We expect to report to the 2010 Annual Conference the first fruits of a more fully developed plan for ongoing, systematic leadership development.

Respectfully submitted,

*Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor
Chairperson, Ministry Advisory Team*

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH STUDY COMMITTEE Authorized by Resolution of 2008 Annual Conference

Epworth Children's Home primary purpose is service to the children among us who are often overlooked. The long and fruitful partnership among South Carolina United Methodists and Epworth continues strong but the needs of the children are great and ever challenging. The 2008 Annual Conference asked Bishop Taylor to convene a study committee asking if the Annual Conference was supporting Epworth Children's Home in the most effective ways. The resolution included two resolved paragraphs, which are:

"Resolved, That the presiding bishop of the South Carolina Annual Conference appoint a committee comprised of eight individuals; the purpose of which shall be to make recommendations to the 2009 Annual Conference:

1. Whether or not it is in the best interest of Epworth Children's Home and the South Carolina Annual Conference for Epworth Children's Home to become an apportioned item.
2. Ways in which the South Carolina Annual Conference and its leadership can be supportive of efforts to increase the level of financial support from the churches of this Annual Conference. And be it further

Resolved, That the committee shall consist of eight members and shall include: a representative from: CF&A, the cabinet, the president of Epworth Children's Home and two Epworth Local Church Representatives among its members."

The Study Committee was convened by Bishop Taylor with the president of Epworth Children's Home, John Holler; Lee Edens, Marie Leonard and Carolyn Hall, Local Church Representatives; CF&A representative, Jim Correll; Cabinet Representative, Sara White and Conference Secretary, Tim Rogers in attendance.

The Study Committee submits the following recommendations:

1. That Epworth continue to solicit support independently rather than becoming an apportioned item. This reflects comparison of monies contributed through current funding and monies anticipated from apportioned funds.
2. That the goal of a minimum of $6.00 per member per year be encouraged, that district superintendents promote Epworth at charge conferences, and that Epworth develop resources (such as a DVD) to be widely distributed to local church representatives and pastors.
3. That local congregations and leadership hold themselves accountable to tell the story of Epworth's life changing ministries by using materials and resources that are available through Epworth Children's Home, selecting a Local Church Representative in each congregation who is equipped to tell the story and by working with mission committees to discover ways to share ministry with the children of Epworth.
4. That the Study Committee shall report to the 2010 Annual Conference on progress made in fulfilling the recommendations.

*Respectfully submitted,
Sara A. White for the Committee*

RE: Funds from the Estate of William Norman Bobo, Jr.

Dear Jim:

On September 19, 2008, the Conference Board of Trustees (the "Board") held its annual meeting. One of the items considered by the Board was the resolution of the 2008 Annual Conference (the "Bobo Resolution") directing the establishment of an endowment from the proceeds received from the Estate of William Norman Bobo, Jr. ("Bobo Estate"). The Board interprets that resolution: as placing the responsibility for administering ("direction and oversight of the fund" as stated in the Bobo Resolution) the proceeds and the income derived therefrom in the Annual Conference Ministry Advisory Team ("MAT").

In that regard, the Board has adopted its own resolution tendering the proceeds received from the Bobo Estate (including interest income but less expenses) to you to hold as the Custodian for the MAT. The purpose of the Board's resolution is to clarify what it believes was the direction of the 2008 Annual Conference.

As you know, as the Conference Treasurer, you currently have custody of the funds for the Board pursuant to Standing Rule 33. Thus, the instructions of the Board, as set forth in its resolution, put you and the Annual Conference on notice of for whom you are now acting as the Custodian.

Although not expressly set forth in the Bobo Resolution of the 2008 Annual Conference, the Board understands that the MAT has responsibility for establishing the endowment directed by the 2008 Annual Conference and maintaining accountability of the funds from the Bobo Estate with you as the Custodian. By the action of the 2008 Annual Conference, the members of the MAT have in essence become the trustees (and thus the fiduciaries) of the funds from the Bobo Estate.

If you or the other recipients of this letter believe that the Board has incorrectly interpreted the direction of the 2008 Annual Conference, please let me know. If there is a disagreement about the interpretation of the Bobo Resolution, then it may be necessary for the Board to meet with the MAT to resolve the issues and perhaps to obtain a clarifying resolution from the 2009 Annual Conference.

In passing its own resolution, the Board was mindful of the desire of the Annual Conference to put the funds from the Bobo Estate to good use in ministry. The Board did not want to delay the establishment of an endowment for that purpose for another year in order to obtain a clarifying resolution when the Board believed that it understood the direction of the Annual Conference.

As part of winding up the responsibilities of the Board for the funds of the Bobo Estate, please provide me with a complete accounting for the proceeds, interest income, and expenses related to the collection and administration of the proceeds. I intend to include this accounting in my report to the 2009 Annual Conference. Please provide a copy of this accounting to Rev. Timothy J. Rogers and R. Jeffords Barham, Esquire, who act as liaisons to the Board of Trustees. I would appreciate your doing this not later than October 17, 2008.

Thank you for your assistance. The Board has appreciated your help with maintaining accountability of the funds and with investing them since the receipt of them by the Board.

Sincerely,
John H. Quackenbush Chairperson, Board of Trustees

A RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE PERTAINING TO THE TRANSFER OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF FUNDS FROM THE ESTATE OF WILLIAM NORMAN BOBO, JR. AS DIRECTED BY THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church tenders to the Conference Treasurer the entire proceeds received from the Estate of William Norman Bobo, Jr., including the interest income on the proceeds, less those expenses relating to the collection and administration of the proceeds, to hold as the Custodian for the Annual Conference Ministry Advisory Team (Standing Rule 46), pursuant to the resolution adopted by the South Carolina Conference on June 2, 2008, during its annual session, and reflected in the "Report of the Committee to Determine the Use of Funds from the Estate of William Norman Bobo, Jr.," a copy of which is attached to this Resolution as the "Enclosure."

Adopted September 19, 2008

John H. Quackenbush, Chairperson, Board of Trustees
South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO DETERMINE THE USE OF FUNDS FROM THE ESTATE OF WILLIAM NORMAN BOBO, JR.

The 2007 South Carolina Annual Conference created a committee to determine the use of funds from the estate of William Norman Bobo, Jr., and directed the committee to report to the 2008 Annual Conference. That committee was called by Bishop Taylor to meet on May 7, 2008. After discussion of the needs of the conference and the intent of the grantor as understood by the family representative, the committee makes the following recommendations:

- 1) That the funds received from the estate (valued at $558,347.65 on December 31, 2007) be used to create an endowment for the purpose of funding clergy leadership and lay leadership within the conference;
 - 2) That 25% of the income each year be added to the principal amount of the endowment, with the remainder being available for leadership development;
 - 3) That 100% of the funds available from the endowment be used for programming rather than structure or bureaucracy;
 - 4) That the Ministry Advisory Team be given the direction and oversight of the fund.
- Respectfully submitted,

Mary Virginia Taylor, Chairperson

THE BOARD OF CAMPS AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

This is a time of second birth for the ministry of Camps and Retreats – and what a year it has been! The board and staff continue the ministry of “Serving all People for Christian Birth, Growth and Renewal.” The Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries oversees the ministry of Asbury Hills Camp & Retreat Center in the mountains of South Carolina above Greenville and the ministry of Sewee Coastal Retreat Center on the Intracoastal Waterway just up the coast from Charleston. Both of these ministries are experiencing a time of renewal.

At Asbury Hills we have been in full construction since November 2008 to remodel most of our existing year round buildings and replace our youth cabins. Two lodges, Batson and Creekside, have been remodeled to host 30 adults in hotel-style bedrooms, each with private baths and beds for 1-3 people. The Dining Hall has been remodeled to update all finishes, bathrooms and furnishings. Rice Lodge for youth has been remodeled to accommodate 60 youth in bunk beds, expanded bathrooms and an expanded meeting room. The transformation of these buildings is remarkable. These facilities opened in the spring of 2009.

The youth cabins that have served Asbury Hills since its founding have been replaced with new cabins that each sleep 16 people with bathrooms and showers in the cabin. We have added heat and air conditioning (for those really hot nights in the mountains) so these cabins are available for year round retreat use. Asbury Hills can now host youth groups up to 250 people. The cabins will be ready for summer 2009.

With all these new and renewed facilities we are expecting many more campers this summer and expanded retreat groups from local churches throughout the year. You will be very proud of what United Methodists have to offer at Asbury Hills!

The next steps at Asbury Hills include expanding the recreation areas, worship areas and meeting areas for larger gatherings. We are counting on the generosity of United Methodists across South Carolina to help us live into these next steps.

After pausing the operations at Sewee Coastal Retreat Center in December 2007, the board has been prayerfully working to seek the vision for this property. In the fall of 2008 the board completed a new master plan for the site to build a 50 room, full service adult retreat center for groups for the purpose of spiritual renewal. The natural beauty of the coast and the water serves as a call to reflection and renewal in our faith. The vision also includes every group having access via boat to the water and access to all the culture of the Charleston and coastal area. This plan includes new rooms for lodging, dining, meeting and worship located overlooking the waterway. The next step is a FEASIBILITY STUDY to determine if there is energy for this vision of the property. Will adult groups from churches wish to come for retreat? Can we operate a vital and viable retreat center at this location? Is capital funding for building this facility available? The board will spend 6-8 months (until fall 2009) in this feasibility study before determining the next steps. It is our great desire to see this vision fulfilled to serve the churches in South Carolina and the surrounding region!

In the fall of 2008, the ministry brought on a full time Director of Development to continue the improvement and addition of facilities and the strengthening of the viability of the ministry. Judy Outlaw, a long time South Carolina United Methodist with an extensive history of development efforts in not-for-profit work, has joined the staff. She will be leading the feasibility study, scholarship campaign efforts for summer camp, and many other development efforts on behalf of Asbury Hills and Sewee.

For more information, pictures of new facilities at Asbury Hills, and the master plan for Sewee, see our website www.sccampsandretreats.org. Thank-you for your support as we seek to continue to serve the ministry of United Methodist Churches in South Carolina!

THE JAMES L. BELIN BOARD OF TRUST

The Belin Board of Trust continues its contribution and commitment to mission projects in South Carolina. The Board retains its position of management and administration of the Belin Trust property and assets. Each year income earned by the Trust is allocated to the Board of Global Ministries to be used for one-time mission projects and programs.

It remains the policy of the Belin Trust that funds are to be provided for start-up projects and programs and not for funding where re-occurring grants would be required. It is anticipated that grants would conform to the spirit of the will of the Reverend James L. Belin, that the funds be used for mission projects.

The Board of Trust engaged in the following activities since its report to the last Annual Conference:

1. Received and approved the final audit from the CPA firm of Webster Rogers LLP at the Board's February 13, 2009 meeting, per by-laws.
2. Continued using the financial management services of Smith Barney's Consulting Group (socially responsible investment management) and Webster Rogers LLP (CPA firm).
3. Made available to the Board of Global Ministries the sum of $100,000 for mission grants for 2008.
4. Completed a review of the investment managers and also the asset allocation mix for the investment assets of the Trust. This review confirmed that the assets were properly invested to meet the Trust's investment goal of total return using a socially responsible approach.
5. Elected the following officers for 2009:

Chairperson:	Shirley C. Robinson, Esquire
Vice-Chairperson:	Rev. Joe N. Long, Jr.
Secretary:	Rev. Leatha W. Brown
Treasurer:	Rev. Maurice "Marty" Nason, Jr.

THE TRUSTEES OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST ADVOCATE

"It has a great shelf life"...were the words recently used by a reader to describe the Advocate. It has a great shelf life because the Advocate now has stories that our readers want to keep for referral, or as a keepsake of recognition of themselves, their church or activity, or district. There is excitement in the air over the new direction of the Advocate.

There is excitement because there is a lot to write about in our churches across the Conference. If your church is on the cutting edge, making a difference, or you have a significant story to tell, please get in touch with the Advocate and let them know. You may be the next feature. Coverage is not just about the churches but missions in South Carolina and around the world. There are also issues being addressed: issues that make us think, issues that stir our social conscience, issues that make us examine our theology. Front page stories since the 2008 Annual Conference have been about the Methodist Oaks, Payday lenders, Rural Mission, child abuse, Epworth's Early Intervention Center, General Conference, education, older adults, a human interest story, and our South Carolina United Methodist related Colleges. Inside stories have featured UVMIM, Salkehatchie, Safe Sanctuary, small churches, youth basketball, prison ministries, soup kitchens, gun protests, after school programs, camps, and retreats to just name a few. When feasible the Advocate is covering clergy and laity events as they are happening. Health tips and resource center aids are featured monthly. The new advanced Web page for the Advocate is drawing more and more readers daily.

The staff continues to seek ways to make the Advocate a paper that is pleasant to the eye through the use of design. They are keeping up with technology available to newspapers today. Better editing is always a priority. They seek out training and participate in order to produce the best newspaper possible.

The board has updated its bylaws, produced a policy manual, and is in the process of updating the employee handbook. Business, finance, and management practices have been examined and improved. A new procedure manual also is in place.

If you are reading this, you are a church leader. If you are not taking the Advocate, you are missing out on the best opportunity to know what is going on across our conference so that you can become a more informed leader.

THE UNITED METHODIST CENTER BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Routine maintenance and operations have been carried out during the year. Repairs were made to stop the leak around the elevator; all exterior window caulking was replaced and mortar joints resealed; downspouts were repositioned to carry the water away from the building when it rains; and vents were installed in the restrooms.

We are thankful to all of those churches that paid their UM Conference Center asking in full, and encourage those that did not to make your contributions during this fiscal year.

THE UNITED METHODIST MEN

Ministry to men continues to be the genesis of another disciple made for Christ. The organization of United Methodist Men of the South Carolina Conference works to engage a single man who will grow to be a part of a small group of men that will lead a church to do its part in transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

We are currently in the process of presenting "Reaching Every Man", a 4 or 5 hour version of the 2 ½ day No Man Left Behind seminar by Man In the Mirror. Cost is only $15 per man with an opportunity to buy Pat Morley's book for $15.

Rock Hill – April 25, 2009

Charleston – May 16, 2009

Greenville – May 23, 2009

Columbia – June 6, 2009

The National Gathering of Men will be held in Nashville, Tennessee, July 10, 11, 12. We have asked each of our 12 Districts to get at least one bus load of men to go. We hope that some districts will have more. Our Conference goal is 200. There is still time to get a seat. Spouses are welcome.

Our spiritual well-being continues to be a top priority. We completed a successful Spiritual Retreat held in February at Springmaid Beach. Rev. David Beam of Cashiers UMC, Cashiers, North Carolina, was our keynote Retreat Speaker. Rev. Ken Nelson led our Sunrise Services. In addition, there were breakout sessions on a variety of subjects and training for local church UMM officers. It was a great weekend of men in ministry.

We continue to work with communications and relationships. It is through personal, spiritual interaction that we will strengthen the life of one man, then a small group of men, then a congregation of men, then the men of the United Methodist Church. We are using a variety of spiritual growth opportunities that will lead men to put Christ in the center of their lives.

Prayer, Strength for Service devotional books, Scouting, and Feeding the Hungry continue to be major focuses of the United Methodist Men of the SC Conference. We donated over $4000 to the Upper Room Prayer Line. The prayer line is routed to our UMM Spiritual Retreat held in February, the SC Annual Conference every June, and to the SC Laity Convocation each July, and calls are answered and prayers lifted up throughout all the meetings. Training for this important ministry is always available.

THE UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The year has been an exciting and busy one for us as those seeking to fulfill the purpose of UMW in the South Carolina Conference. Our first celebration of women together was Legislative Day, March 3, at Ashland UMC in Columbia. We took the challenge to become active in contacting our representatives in Congress about Payday Lending, Public Education, Health and Human Services, and the Environment. No Child Left Behind was not changed and will have more time for constructive modifications. The Surface Water Permitting Act would require all major users of water (more than 3,000,000 gal. per year) to have a permit. Working together and letting our voices be heard, we are certain to accomplish much.

On April 3, we traveled by bus to the Southeastern Jurisdiction Meeting held in Hampton, Virginia. It was a great gathering of women called to worship, study and fellowship. Eleven new Women's Directors were elected for the next quadrennium. The theme was "Called By Name." A new format was used where the delegates interviewed each nominee. This method gave the delegates an opportunity to have one-on-one contact with the nominees.

The Spiritual Growth Retreat was another opportunity to be in community with sisters across the State. Seeing Dr. Fowler's dramatization of the lives of biblical sisters made their struggles come alive to us. We imaged their joys and disappointments and felt the connection. The attendance for the two sessions was 1050.

"Come Together, Be Together" was held at Lyttleton Street UMC. We had 166 persons in attendance. Opportunities to become informed about health, personal finances and wills were given with such workshops as: Finance, Healthy Eating, and Asking the Right Questions. There was also a fun part of the day where one could learn how to line dance. The combination of fun, fellowship, and education focused on what we needed as officers and local unit members to fulfill the purpose of UMW. Our speakers, Judge Pierce and Angela Ford Nelson, and the presenters did an excellent job.

"Living the Sacred" was the theme for the School of Christian Mission. We left the school with a deeper understanding of what it means to live in sacred harmony with God and our sisters and brothers. 277 persons were in attendance. Of the 277, 13 were young ladies ages 13-18. Each evening, the plenary focused on one of the study themes for the year: "I Believe in Jesus" was highlighted on Thursday, "Israel/Palestine" on Friday and "Giving Your Heart Away: Native American Survival" on Saturday. Craft sales totaled $1650.47. Our worship service culminated on Sunday with Rev. Candace Sloan delivering the message. Rev. Sloan stated that we must understand that God has given humanity the gift of life and relationship and we must deepen our understanding of what it means to live in sacred harmony.

Not only do the women of the South Carolina Conference participate in opportunities locally but nationally. We give to our national mission projects through undesignated giving and designated giving. Some of our local mission projects have benefited from our giving to undesignated and designated giving. Locally, we provide school supplies, stock shelves at our mission projects, provide family meals during bereavement, mentor students, visit our sick and shut-ins, and give gift cards and postage stamps to our mission projects. We have just cause to celebrate. We celebrate members' participation in the Reading Program, Mission Today Units and the Charter for Racial Justice Diamond Units in all of the districts. We also celebrate the reorganized units in the Charleston, Florence, Anderson, Marion, and Waltherboro districts. You are the foundation upon which all of our hope lies. Thank you to those districts that exceeded your Pledge to Mission. South Carolina looked really good in the report given by Women's Division.

We must continue to fulfill our Purpose to know God and experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ. We must follow his example of caring for the needs of others - especially women, children and youth. We must deepen our understanding of what it means to live in sacred harmony. We must seek new ways of inviting younger women to the organization and keeping them. We must nurture others and ourselves. With over 11,200 women in the organization, we can make a difference.

LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY

Two thousand and eight (2008) has been filled with events that I believe have the possibility of being direction-changing for Lake Junaluska. Added to all the external and internal changes within the United Methodist Church and Lake Junaluska have been the financial challenges of a weakening economy.

The 2008 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference set a new direction for the entire jurisdiction. It called for Lake Junaluska to be one of only three agencies and did away with the Administrative Council that had been Lake Junaluska's governing board. Along with looking at the new future of Lake Junaluska differently, it also set us in the direction of being more financially self-sufficient.

The new Board of Directors afforded Lake Junaluska the opportunity to have persons who have a deep abiding commitment to the ministry of Lake Junaluska as board members. As we moved away from the Administrative Council, which was a broad and representative board for the entire jurisdiction, we now can see a future with a smaller board which can take a well-defined vision and mission and build a stronger Lake Junaluska Assembly.

These changes offer, for the first time, the possibility of living and working as one organization. Lake Junaluska can be an agency that provides Christian hospitality with its campus, housing, services, etc., along with disciple-making and equipping ministries. This big change makes it possible to alleviate our age-old problems of competition between the conference center and ministry.

Building this new organization has required us to look closely at our ministry focus. Our focused ministry will be built around offering our events based on research that meets the identified needs of the church and individuals. To a larger degree, these ministry offerings will need to be self-supporting, thus requiring us to be more realistic in our financial charges to participants.

All of these changes and challenges have given us the opportunity to take an in-depth look at our financial needs and budgeting processes. As we have prepared to move toward 2013 and started to build a business plan, we focused on the 2009 budget process to inform us. We have looked closely at every area from ministry to housekeeping to determine a realistic understanding of our real costs.

In 2008 we celebrate an entire year of using the new Bethea Welcome Center. The building is being seen as a tipping point for the Lake Junaluska campus. It has inspired us to look closely at our hospitality needs, our facilities as its design has challenged us to have a more architecturally coordinated campus, as we plan for buildings in the future. The new golf course clubhouse that opened in the spring is a wonderful example of this new architectural influence.

There are many staff persons who make the ministry of Lake Junaluska possible. I am privileged to work with all of them and share a brief synopsis of the work of the executive staff.

The Conference and Retreat Center struggled in 2008 under the escalating price increases of petroleum, surcharges for products, and uncertain economic times. We were able to provide an air-conditioned Stuart Auditorium which not only pleased our guests but established the fact that we can successfully air condition Stuart as we build into the future. This year considerable progress has been made upgrading our facilities at the west end, Terrace Hotel, and Lambuth Inn. We have been challenged in providing enough staff to offer guests a quality experience because of budget constraints. Our exit evaluations from guests still remain high at 93 percent willing to return/willing to recommend.

We're implementing a new training program for our staff built around the "delivery of a quality Junaluska Experience to every guest". This program will be provided under the Workplace Discipleship Program. It will include orientation for all new staff and existing staff around providing Christian hospitality in every job on the Lake Junaluska campus.

The Ministry Event Development Department has made progress establishing a new direction and focus that totally incorporates ministry into the Lake Junaluska Conference and Retreat Center. Working with the Marketing Department and the Business Office, the ministry area is using new marketing processes with the Lake Junaluska ministry events. We are proud of the partnership with Alban Institute and are pursuing partnerships and initiatives such as "Chautauqua Events" and establishing the Center for Racial Ethnic Ministries.

The Marketing and Communications Office has made significant progress this year. We have generated 180 stories on Lake Junaluska; had a significant increase in visits to our website; have begun on-line reservations for lodging rooms; and continued our e-newsletters. The conference coordinators and sales staff are giving concerted efforts to reaching as many persons as possible who will use the facilities and services of Lake Junaluska.

The Development Office continues its work with capital needs and the annual fund. We have developed a strategy that will move our annual fund to the next level with the Pacesetters of Lake Junaluska Program. The goal is to increase our donor giving to the operating budget. We continue to solicit gifts for the Jones Cafeteria improvements.

Residential Services has progressed in 2008. We have had many accomplishments and challenges since moving under the North Carolina Utility Commission, which now sets our water, sewer, and fire protection rates. We have moved to a new security firm. We are pleased with the support of Lake Junaluska residents to the ministry of Lake Junaluska and appreciate all their financial and volunteer support.

Yes, 2008 has been a good and challenging year! As God continues to bless us as we strive to offer our unique ministry to The Church we appreciate your prayers and support.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

With a new building, new faculty and staff, new curriculum, newly expanded financial aid initiatives – and even new art! – Candler School of Theology is moving with enthusiasm and grace through changes that enhance its ability to fulfill its mission: to educate faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world. To this end, Candler is constantly working to deepen its already vital relationship with The United Methodist Church.

As one of the 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition of evangelical piety, ecumenical openness, and social concern. As one of nine graduate level, professional schools of United Methodist-related Emory University, Candler provides a context for learning and formation that engages the most complex and difficult issues of our day. As a school located in the major metropolitan area of Atlanta, Georgia, Candler offers students the opportunity for practice in a highly diverse community, a global crossroads where church growth is expected, cultivated, and actually happening! There is no better place for preparation that resonates with and addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

On September 25, 2008, and with abundant joy, we dedicated Phase I of the new Candler School of Theology Building. A LEEDS silver certificate building, the "CST" includes offices and classrooms that provide the opportunity for technologically sophisticated work and community in an environmentally sound setting. Phase II, to be built in due time, will house the Pitts Theology Library, the Wesley Teaching Chapel, and additional offices and classrooms.

This year we welcomed the arrival of six new faculty and senior staff, five of whom are United Methodists. Forty two percent of the faculty and senior staff is United Methodist, and all but five are ordained. Two new staff positions were created, the Director of Lifelong Learning, filled by Dr. Bob Winstead, a member of the North Georgia Annual Conference, and the Associate Dean of Methodist Studies, filled by Dr. Anne Burkholder, a member of the Florida Annual Conference. Both of these new positions serve the larger church as they connect clergy with new opportunities for learning; connect conferences and students who are ultimately seeking ordination; engage with denominational organizations at a variety of levels; oversee denominational certifications and the Course of Study; advise students; and teach courses. In addition, Bishop Ruediger Minor is with us for two years as the inaugural holder of the Hankey Chair in World Evangelism and Bishop Walter Klaiber is with us as Bishop-in-Residence during the spring semester.

Candler is in the second year of its new curriculum, designed to assist students in aligning their course selection with their call to ministry and integrating the classroom with their contextual education settings. This emphasis is accomplished through the selection of a concentration, the opportunity for special certifications, and joint programs and initiatives with three other Emory graduate schools: Goizueta Business School, Emory Law School, and Rollins School of Public Health.

We are delighted to report that in spite of the difficult economic realities that have had a serious impact on us all, Candler School of Theology and Emory University are faring well, due to sound fiscal stewardship and excellent donor support. The Emory Capital Campaign has achieved $881 million of its $1.7 billion goal. Candler's goal of $60 million will enable us to achieve strategic priorities regarding facilities, student support, lifelong learning, endowed professorships, programs and curriculum development, and international initiatives.

Candler has always been deeply committed to assisting students with generous financial aid, but in light of the current economic climate, we have deepened our commitment to significant student support in two very important ways. This academic year, 80 percent of eligible students received scholarships or grants, with an average award covering 79% percent of tuition. Through these awards, more than $2.5 million was provided to 196 United Methodist students. In addition, we created "Leadership Candler," an all-expenses-paid discernment experience that draws together distinguished prospective MDiv students from across the country and the world to explore the richness of life and study at Candler.

As a part of its contribution to the new building, Emory University provided Candler with a major grant for the purchase of new artwork. As a result, Candler is now home to the world's largest collection of original works by John August Swanson. Comprising both serigraphs and paintings, the collection focuses on biblical narratives and reflects the storytelling traditions of Swanson's Mexican-Swedish heritage as well as the influence of mosaics and stained glass from the Byzantine and medieval eras.

Candler's student body truly reflects the denominational emphasis on the importance of attracting younger and more diverse people. Our enrollment stands at 493, with 401 seeking the Master of Divinity, 50 the Master of Theological Studies, 18 the Master of Theology, 13 the Doctor of Theology, and 11 enrolled as Special, Non-Degree students. Eighty-three percent are enrolled full-time. The total student population is 24% US ethnic minority, 12% international, and 51% women. More than 50 denominations are represented, with 52% of MDiv students being United Methodist from 40 Annual Conferences, including Bulgaria, East Angola, Mozambique, and Korea. Other Methodist denominations include African Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal Zion, Christian Methodist Episcopal, Church of the Nazarene, Free Methodist, Wesleyan Methodist, and the Methodist Church of Korea. The average age of our students is 32, with 56% under thirty. The median age of our MDiv students is 27.

Candler is deeply committed to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the development of persons for Christian ministry, especially in the United Methodist Church. We are grateful for your support of Candler through the Methodist Education Fund, visits, prayers, nurture of our students, and direct donor support. Come and see us! We would love to welcome you on campus to share your interest, your concerns, and your ideas!

With thanks,

*Jan Love

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

Duke Divinity School prepares students to become effective, faithful leaders in the church, the academy and the world through its attention to spiritual formation and transforming ministry as well as to leadership and academic rigor. The school is committed to preparing ordained leaders in the United Methodist Church. It is also an integral part of Duke University, and divinity students enjoy and contribute to the university's intellectual, spiritual and social resources.

Programs:

Duke Divinity School made significant progress in 2008 on a variety of interrelated projects and programs that support clergy, other Christian leaders and congregations.

The Divinity School officially launched Leadership Education at Duke Divinity, an effort to combine in one initiative the school's non-degree programs and scholarship on leadership development, pastoral excellence, clergy health, rural ministry, Hispanic ministry, youth formation, reconciliation and end-of-life care.

Leadership Education's work, supported by a grant from Lilly Endowment Inc., builds on the strengths of the Divinity School and engages multiple disciplines, from business to the arts. Its offerings include an online magazine, Faith & Leadership; open-application programs; and custom educational experiences. The magazine and more information about this effort can be found at www.faithandleadership.com.

A previously established leadership program, the Episcopal Leadership Forum, continued its successful work in supporting United Methodist bishops. All eight United Methodist bishops elected in the United States in 2008 are participants in the program.

The Divinity School implemented the first year of its Clergy Health Initiative in North Carolina, a project focused on developing a resilient, well-informed cadre of United Methodist pastors as skilled in the care of themselves and their families as they are in the care of their congregations.

In 2008, the Clergy Health Initiative completed a statewide survey of all United Methodist clergy in North Carolina to measure physical, mental, spiritual, and vocational health. The initiative will provide clergy with support such as customizable wellness plans and access to trained, certified health coaches.

The Divinity School also strengthened its Thriving Rural Communities program, which supports rural clergy and congregations, and began developing a Hispanic Studies Program through new educational and programmatic outreach. These programs, along with the Clergy Health Initiative, all of which are supported by The Duke Endowment, have been combined into one effort known as Thriving Communities in the Carolinas.

Also in 2008, the Divinity School established Duke Initiatives in Theology and the Arts, an effort to promote a vibrant interplay of Christian theology and the arts at Duke Divinity School and beyond through teaching, research and artistic engagement.

Students:

The Divinity School welcomed an impressive group of new students in the fall, and we experienced a 7 percent increase in applications over 2007, which was itself a strong year. Total enrollment in the fall was 550 students representing 35 states and 10 foreign countries. More than half of our Master of Divinity students are United Methodist, 13 percent are Baptist, and the others come from more than 35 different denominations in the Christian faith.

The median age of the entering Master of Divinity class continues to be low – in 2008 it was approximately 24. The overall entering class had an ethnic minority enrollment of approximately 25 percent, an increase from 21 percent in 2007. The median undergraduate G.P.A. of the entering class was 3.6.

The divinity school is now in the third year of its Doctor of Theology program, and applications increased substantially this year to almost 100. Twenty seven students are enrolled in the program overall, and the eight students in the inaugural Th.D. class have now finished their coursework and are preparing for their comprehensive preliminary exams.

Our field education program remains vibrant and critically important to the formation of our students for ministry. One hundred nineteen students served field education placements during the academic year, in addition to approximately 40 who serve as student pastors. Almost 200 of our students undertook summer field education placements, including many in rural United Methodist congregations (whose stipends were supported by The Duke Endowment), 12 in our program of Partner Congregations, six in the Center for Reconciliation's Teaching Communities program, including two in India and one in Canada, and 15 other international placements in South Africa (three), Uganda (three), Guatemala and El Salvador (five), Brazil (two), Peru (one), and Macedonia (one).

Events and Activities:

The Divinity School's 2008 Convocation & Pastors' School, held in October, focused on the theme "For Such a Time as This: Christian Leadership in a Changing World." The three-day program featured presentations by Adam Hamilton, founding pastor of the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kan., a panel of United Methodist bishops, and author Ronald Heifetz.

Also in the fall, the Divinity School's Center for Reconciliation hosted Jean Vanier, founder of L'Arche communities, and Duke Divinity School theologian Stanley Hauerwas to co-teach the center's second annual Teaching Communities Week. Events included a joint keynote lecture, a day-long workshop for students and community members, and a sermon by Vanier at Duke Chapel. Teaching Communities Week also marked the launch of a new book by Hauerwas and Vanier, "Living Gently in a Violent World," the second volume in the Center for Reconciliation's Resources for Reconciliation series.

Five members of the Duke Divinity School faculty spoke at the United Methodist Southeast Jurisdictional Conference July 16-19 in Lake Junaluska, N.C. This was the first time faculty sessions were included as part of the conference. Professors Kenneth Carder, Edgardo Colon-Emeric, W. Stephen Gunter, Randy Maddox and Lacey Warner spoke on various aspects of living the United Methodist way.

The Rt. Rev. Daniel Deng Bul, newly elected archbishop of the Episcopal Church of Sudan, met with faculty, staff and students during a May visit to Duke Divinity School. A church leader of international standing, Archbishop Deng Bul has been instrumental in evangelizing and peacemaking within Sudan.

More than 600 participants gathered at Duke Divinity School in March for the third joint meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies and the Wesleyan Theological Society. The meeting brought together resources from both societies for theological reflection about creation and the world of sciences. The theme was "Sighs, Signs and Significance: Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation."

At the end of March, the Divinity School hosted a conference on "Religion in the Public Square" that brought together Duke faculty, led by Professor David Steinmetz, with a cross section of journalists who cover religion across the nation. Faculty and journalists participated in four panels, and Professor of Christian History Grant Wacker presented a public lecture, "Billy Graham's America," from research for his forthcoming cultural biography on Graham.

Faculty:

The Divinity School strengthened its faculty significantly with the addition of six new colleagues: Paul Griffiths, William K. Warren Foundation Professor of Catholic Theology; Ray Barfield, Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Christian Philosophy in the Divinity School as well as Associate Professor in the Dept. of Pediatrics, Division of Hematology-Oncology in the Medical School; Sujin Pak, Assistant Professor of the History of Christianity; Norman Wirzba, Research Professor of Theology, Ecology, and Rural Life; Jeremy Begbie, Thomas A. Langford Research Professor of Theology; and Charles "Chuck" Campbell, Professor of Homiletics.

Three key members of the faculty – J. Kameron Carter, Stephen Chapman, and Warren Smith – were granted tenure by Duke University.

Honors & Achievements:

Stanley Hauerwas, Gilbert T. Rowe professor of theological ethics, was honored for his work in ethics by the Healthcare, Ethics and Law Institute of Samford University, Birmingham, Ala. Professor Hauerwas received the Pellegrino Medal, which is presented annually to nationally recognized individuals for "contributions to American healthcare ethics and law in the selfless spirit of Edmund D. Pellegrino."

Professor Mark Chaves released a major research report on U.S. congregations, revealing growing informality in worship practices, graying of congregations and clergy, more ethnic diversity, and more use of technology. Chaves, professor of sociology, religion and divinity at Duke University, was the lead researcher on the "National Congregations Study, Wave II" project, which encompasses information from 1,506 congregations across the religious spectrum.

The end of the summer, 2008, brought the completion and installation of the new Goodson Chapel Organ. Supported by a generous gift from Duke alumni Aubrey and Katie McClendon, the 30-foot-high pipe organ is a Gothic and neo-Gothic instrument which contains 1,837 pipes. The organ was dedicated at Opening Convocation in August.

The school also published "With God In Mind: Sermons on the Art and Architecture of Duke Divinity School." This 150-page book celebrates the sermons, art, and architecture inspired by Duke Divinity School's 2005 addition, which includes Goodson Chapel.

We are thankful for the relationships among the United Methodist Church, this Annual Conference, and Duke Divinity School, and we look forward to another year of working to prepare men and women for Christian ministry. GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Gammon Theological Seminary is one of thirteen accredited theological institutions of The United Methodist Church. Gammon is the only historically African American theological school related to the United Methodist Church.

Gammon is in its 126th year of operation. The Methodist Episcopal Church founded Gammon Theological Seminary in 1883. Bishop Gilbert Haven and the officers of the Freedmen's Aid Society had purchased nearly 500 acres of high land in the southern suburbs of Atlanta, Georgia. Gammon initially began as a Department of Theology at Clark University through the efforts of Bishop Henry White Warren and the gift of $20,000 for endowment from the Rev. Elijah H. Gammon, superannuated Methodist minister of the Rock River (Illinois) Conference. The enthusiasm of these two men led to the construction of Gammon Hall. The Rev. Wilbur Patterson Thirkield was elected dean, and Gammon School of Theology was officially opened on October 3, 1883.

April 1887, the official connection between Gammon and Clark was dissolved. The seminary was granted a charter on March 24, 1888, and the name was officially changed December 28 of that year to Gammon Theological School. The Rev. Thirkield served as the first president.

Gammon is the United Methodist member of the consortium of theological schools known across the world as The Interdenominational Theological Center located in Atlanta, Georgia. We offer a broad curriculum in the scholar-minister tradition and also offer a holistic educational experience that continues to stress scholarship and service. Students prepare for administration and leadership, counseling, teaching and preaching and a range of other spiritual and secular roles, with a blend of scholarship in the classroom and practical experience in the community.

The interdisciplinary curriculum integrates theological studies with preparation for the ministry, merging theory with practice to equip the student for scholarship in the academy, service in the parish, and leadership in the community. Degree programs offered are Master of Divinity; Master of Arts in Christian Education; Master of Arts in Church Music; Doctor of Ministry; Doctor of Ministry with a Specialty in Pastoral Counseling; and Doctor of Theology in Pastoral Counseling. Dual Degrees are offered in Christian Education and Master of Divinity; Church Music and Master of Divinity; and Christian Education and Church Music.

Our range of innovative special programs provide research and learning opportunities for students and faculty, while serving society as a whole. Some of the programs are: (1) The Institute of Church Administration and Management (ICAM) supplement theological education with leadership training and administrative skills development, addressing topics such as entrepreneurial concepts, time management, organizational development, and policy formulation. (2) Black Women in Church and Society Program establishes networks among African American church women locally and nationwide through an institute, a research and resource center and seminars. (3) The Religious Heritage of the African World initiative conducts research and advocacy activities, gathers data, and examines issues related to the religious heritage of people of African descent around the globe. (4) Faith and The City is one module of a collaborative relationship among local seminaries that addresses civic and community interest by engaging the public theologians, local church leadership and their congregations in active pursuit of a spirit of mutual community and shared responsibility with its specific emphases on environmental justice and holistic health. (5) The Womanist Scholars Program recognizes and promotes the scholarly activities of academicians who are Black women, religion and spirituality. This program enables womanist scholars to pursue a research project of their own design. Scholars are engaged in teaching, lectureships, and consultation on issues affecting Black women and religion and Black women and spirituality. This program invites two Black female scholars annually to be in residence, teach a course in the scholar's research area and develop publishable contributions to womanist works. (6) The Youth Hope Builders Academy seeks to provide high school youth an opportunity to explore their present and future lives theologically and discover ways in which their lives can contribute to a hope bearing church and society. During the program an intensive four week summer residential academy is held. A second component of the Academy is year round forums, including the Annual Youth and Family Convocation, for young people and their families, and church and community leaders focus on current issues of youth and resources for problem solving. (7) The Urban Theological Institute is an exciting initiative designed to address the need to develop effective religious and public leaders for urban transformation. The vision is to become a major partner with local churches, neighborhoods, and faith based organizations in the war against urban blight. (8) The Student, Local Church and Agency Internship Program functions with an opportunity for partnerships with organizations, local churches, social action and advocacy agencies, which helps prepare students and fosters a vision of excellence in ministry in general, and pastoral ministry in particular. This program seeks to accomplish its nurturing and mentoring goals through the development and utilization of strategic partners. (9) The Conference on Ministry, which is held during the Spring of each year is an opportunity for persons who feel they have been called to ministry to come and visit our campus and explore their call to ministry as they visit classrooms, engage students who are currently matriculating at the seminary and dialogue with the Financial Aid/Scholarship officers as well as the President of the seminary. This three day program stimulates and helps prospective students to clarify their call to ministry and also helps them to consider the seminary that will best help them to achieve their goals for preparing for ministry. (10) The Thirkield-Jones Lecture Series were established by alumni, family and friends for Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield and Bishop Robert E. Jones. Each person had an individual lectureship, "Thirkield's Lectureship was on Preaching and Social Services, and Interracial Goodwill." Jones family, alumni and friends established the "Alumni Lectureship". The two lectureships were combined in 1947. The Thirkield-Jones Lecture Series are held annually during Gammon's Founders' Day celebration in October.

Gammon has been known as "The School of the Prophets" and has trained many Bishops, District Superintendents, Annual Conference Staff Executives, General Agency Administrators, College Presidents, Preachers, Teachers, Christian Educators, Pastoral Counselors, Military, Hospital, and Children's Home Chaplains, Wesley Foundation Directors, Campus Ministers, Ministers of Music, Church Administrators, Religious Journalists and Authors, Biblical Scholars, and Social Activists the last 126 years. Our graduates hold the promise of hundreds of local church ministries around the world in Africa, Asia, and India and our gifts and graces will continue to honor our historic mission and embrace its promising future. TALMADGE DAVIS BELDING, JR.

August 10, 1943 – June 9, 2008

The Rev. Tam Belding entered into the presence of his heavenly Father on June 9, 2008.

He is survived by his wife of 42 years, Carolyn Griggs Belding. He was the father of two children, a son, Samuel D. Belding and his wife, Carla; and a daughter, Susie B. Adcox and her husband, Chris. He is also survived by three grandsons, Davis Belding, Ben Belding, and Dallas Adcox. Other survivors include his mother, Bonnie Belding, a sister, Doris Ledbetter and a brother Dr. Robert Belding.

Rev. Belding entered the ministry in 2000 following retirement from Westinghouse Savannah River Site with 35 years service. He was a graduate of Wofford College and Erskine Theological Seminary. He served the Vaucluse-Pentecost Charge for 6 years before ill health forced his retirement. He was given the honor of being named Pastor Emeritus by both congregations.

Although he could not continue an active ministry, he continued to reach out to others through his faith, hope and courage until his death.

The service of Death and Resurrection was held at 10:30 AM, Thursday, June 12, 2008 at Grace United Methodist Church, North Augusta, South Carolina. Interment was in Pineview Memorial Gardens in North Augusta. The officiating ministers were, Dr. James C. Adams, Dr. John M. Newell, III and Reverend J. Wayne Smith, Jr.

WILLIAM REGINALD CLAYTOR, JR.

February 12, 1916 – April 14, 2009

The Reverend William Reginald Claytor, Jr. passed from this life to life eternal on Tuesday, April 14, 2009. Born February 12, 1916, in Owensville, Maryland, he was the oldest son of William Reginald Claytor and Lydia Phibbons Claytor. He was an electrician by trade and served in the United States Army during World War II (1942 - 1945) in Europe.

After his return to the States, he answered the call to ministry and relocated to South Carolina to further his education, earning an undergraduate degree in Bible History, his seminary degree in Religious Education, and completed continuing education in Pastoral Care. He served in the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church from 1951-1998. Bill's ministry was indeed a calling and during his 47 years in active parish ministry he no doubt touched countless lives in personal and meaningful ways during times of joy and times of sorrow. Friends and colleges described him using words such as a gentle spirit, endless compassion, great humility, tireless energy, total selflessness, a tender presence, genuine...a saint.

Churches he served include Ebenezer Methodist in Greenville, Poe Mill Methodist in Greenville, Slater Methodist, Enoree Methodist, Pelzer Methodist, Lynwood - Trinity United Methodist Churches in Lancaster, Rehoboth United Methodist Church in Columbia, Bethel United Methodist Church in Simpsonville, St. John - Laurens Road United Methodist Churches in Greenville, Zoar United Methodist Church in Greer, and Buncombe Street United Methodist Church in Greenville.

He married Virginia Piper on July 7, 1951. In addition to his loving wife, he is survived by his children, Barbara Masemore of Cape May, New Jersey, her husband Chip, and children Tami Carmichael, Kevin Carmichael, and Tanya Carmichael; Judith Claytor Snow of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, her husband Don, and children Christina Snow Smith and John Snow; Pamela Claytor Evans of Greenville, South Carolina, her husband Doug, and children Clay Evans and Jack Evans; and Stephen Reginald Claytor of Williamston, South Carolina, his wife Sandi, and children Alison Adams and Brantley Drake. He is also survived by one brother, Alexander R. Claytor of Annapolis, Maryland, and was preceded in death by his brother John P. Claytor and sister Lydia Claytor Jones.

The assurance of his deep faith was the source of tremendous comfort to Bill during the last years of his life...he prayed without ceasing, quoted verses from hymns and scripture, reflected on the fundamental foundations of his faith, and often stated with great confidence... "I'm paid up, prayed up, and ready to go up." And so he was when he returned to his Lord and was welcomed as a "good and faithful servant".

DELOS DUANE CORDERMAN

September 5, 1936 – May 9, 2009

The Reverend Delos Duane Corderman, 72, of Lexington, South Carolina, died Saturday, May 9, 2009. The son of Robert L. Corderman and Esther Davis (Corderman) Pike was born and raised in Sac City, Iowa. He received a B.A. from Morningside College in 1958 and a M.Div from Duke University in 1961. Delos met his wife, Evelyn, while at Duke University and they were married in August 1961. He served appointments as pastor of the Cades Charge in Cades, South Carolina, the St. John - McBee Charge in Greenville, South Carolina, the Bethel - St John Charge, and the Lexington United Methodist Church. In 1976, he was appointed as the Administrator of the Office of Ministerial Affairs where he managed the pension fund, credit union, and health benefits program for the South Carolina United Methodist Conference until his retirement in 2007.

His service to the United Methodist Church included the South Carolina Board of Pensions, UMCare Task Force, Benefits 2000 Task Force; and as a General and Jurisdictional Conference delegate for 6 different terms. He was also the only retired minister elected to serve as a delegate to the United Methodist Jurisdictional Conference in 2008. He served as South Carolina

Annual Conference Secretary from 1984 until 2002. Delos also served on the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and he received the Charles L. Calkins Award for Outstanding Leadership in Pensions and Benefits Administration given by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for the United Methodist Church in 2006.

Delos was an active member and past President of the Lexington Lions Club. He was a member of the Thomas Cooper Society and an enthusiastic member of the Palaver Club, a group whose members included doctors, professors and a retired university president who met for dinner and lively discussions on history, politics and much more. He also was a 26-year member of the Town of Lexington Board of Zoning Appeals. After his retirement, he became a volunteer for the Democratic Party. At Lexington United Methodist Church he was a member of the United Methodist Men and for the last 30 years taught the Aldersgate Sunday School Class, which has been renamed the Delos Corderman Sunday School Class in his memory.

Delos valued hard work, honesty, and integrity, but above all else he valued friends and family. He always remembered everyone's name and where they were from, how many children they had and all of the children's names and ages. Whenever he saw someone he knew, whether at work or just around town, he always asked with the greatest sincerity how their children were doing, how their parents were or how was school or the new job going. Delos was very humble but was always so proud of his daughters' accomplishments and his one-year-old grandson, whom he called "the Prince." Delos had a wonderful sense of humor and always appreciated a good joke or parody. He had a great love of history and loved to read, work in his yard tending his flowers and roses, and play cards and other games with his family. Delos will be remembered by his friends as a great friend and one of the finest, hardworking and honest Christians in the church.

A Service of Death and Resurrection was held Thursday, May 14, 2009, at the Lexington United Methodist Church in Lexington, South Carolina. Delos is survived by his wife of 48 years, Evelyn Gabbert Corderman, his daughter and son-in-law, Amy Corderman Purdy and Gregory Purdy, his daughter and son-in-law, Laura Corderman Harbison and William Harbison, grandson Nicholas Purdy, niece Julie Summers and nephew Kirby Summers. Delos was predeceased by his parents and his sister, Denise Corderman Summers. He was a loving husband and a wonderful father and a caring friend to all, who will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

With all of our love,

– Evelyn Corderman, Amy Purdy and Laura Harbison

GEORGE WALTER COUCH, JR.

November 28, 1926 – April 25, 2009

George Walter Couch, Jr., was born on November 28, 1926 in Easley, South Carolina. He was the son of George Walter and Eliza Sheriff Couch. Growing up on a dairy farm he loved telling stories about milking the cows and doing chores along with his dad. George loved going to church on Sundays with his mother, father and sister and from a small child always told everyone he wanted to be a preacher when he grew up. He was licensed to preach in 1945 when he was only nineteen years old.

George attended Wofford College for one year before enlisting into the army where he served his country for two years during World War II as a surgical technician. After returning from the army he enrolled in the University of South Carolina.

George always enjoyed working with young people. During his college years he often volunteered at Epworth Orphanage, now known as Epworth Children's Home. He worked as a life guard in the summers at the Methodist Youth Camp. One summer George was a member of a Methodist Youth Caravan Team. His team traveled to Mississippi where they worked with the youth in several different Methodist Churches there.

After receiving his BS degree in psychology from USC, George went to Duke University where he finished his conference course of studies. George was ordained deacon in 1957. In 1960 he was ordained elder and received into full connection. He served churches, spanning 41 years, from the foot hills to the seacoast and loved every church he served.

In 1959 he was assigned to my home church, the McClellanville Methodist Church. I was visiting one Sunday from Columbia College and that's when we met. One Year later on July 10, 1960, we were married. He always told me I was the love of his life and until he got sick, I don't think he ever missed a day telling me he loved me. We were blessed with four children: Ruby Elizabeth Couch Sarver, Geneva Susanne Couch Montgomery, George Walter Couch, III, and James McClellan Couch. He always enjoyed our family times together, cooking out and going camping in our little camper. We had fun just being together. When our boys were old enough George got them involved in scouting. He was an Eagle Scout and was so proud when both of our sons became Eagle Scouts also.

George was very compassionate about those who were sick or in need. He was always willing to help wherever he could, taking someone groceries or taking someone to the doctor. I remember one time one of our church members had surgery in a hospital many miles away. When she was discharged she was unable to sit up in a car for the long ride home. George fixed a bed in the back of our van and drove to the hospital and brought her home.

During his last four years in the ministry, while serving Beaumont/Whitney charge, George was also chaplain of Mary Black Hospital in Spartanburg where he was able to give comfort to so many people.

After he retired we moved back to McClellanville to be near my family. George enjoyed retirement but missed his church work. He would fill in for other ministers whenever he had a chance.

On April 25, 2009, George entered eternal rest with his heavenly father whom he served so well. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, two sons and three grandchildren. "Well done thy good and faithful servant...Enter into the joy of thy Lord."

– Wilhelmina McClellan Couch (His loving wife)

THOMAS FOSTER EVATT, JR.

March 30, 1920 – February 15, 2009

Thomas Foster Evatt, Jr. was born in Anderson County, the son of Thomas Foster and Ruby Mays Evatt. On December 12, 1940, he was married to the one and only love of his life, Inez Gambrell! They were the parents of four children: Elaine (Mrs. Wade) Crow, Donna (Mrs. Henry) Price, Cynthia (Mrs. Charles) Goldman, and Thomas Mays (deceased). There are four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

He graduated from Pendleton High School, Erskine College, and the Conference Course of Study, Emory University. He was Admitted on Trial in the South Carolina Annual Conference in 1952, and admitted as a Full Elder in 1954. He served on the Conference Boards of Missions and Evangelism and as Trustee of Epworth Children's Home. In 1956 Progressive Farmer named him Rural Minister of the year; and in 1988 he was the recipient of the Denman Evangelism Award. Appointments served were: Princeton, Williamston, Francis Asbury (Greenville), North Charleston, First (Bennettsville), St. Paul (Greenville), and Bethel (Chester).

Tom was a man who knew the meaning of the Apostle's words: ". . . Faith, hope, and love abide.. .the greatest of these is love." He loved his family, but he also loved his church family. He loved the people of the congregations where he was appointed, and in turn they loved him. When they hurt, he cried with them, and when they were happy he rejoiced with them. There are those from each appointment who stayed in touch with him in appreciation of what he meant to them.

Tom was a good preacher in the pulpit – better than the average. After careful and deliberate study, he was always prepared, and he proclaimed the Good News of Jesus Christ most effectively.

Tom loved the United Methodist Church. He was loyal and faithful, promoting the programs and ministries of the Church – always working to bring the kingdom of God into a present reality wherever he was serving. He and his congregations brought about much good.

One thing he believed in was the World Service Fund of our church – the lifeblood of the church he called it. Tom read the "Statistical Tables of The Conference" each year. When he discovered a church had not paid this apportionment, he was greatly concerned. Why? Because this is the right thing to do, and because his first District Superintendent instilled in him the importance of this.

Tom enjoyed the fellowship he had with his fellow preachers. There was camaraderie as well as friendship. Annual Conference and District meetings were important – not so much for the business of the gathering as for the relationships with the other preachers. He and his peers could and did sing at the opening of Annual Conference: "And are we yet alive, and see each other's face? Glory and thanks to Jesus give for his almighty grace!"

After Tom and Inez came to live at The Oaks they quickly learned to love the people here, and in return they were loved equally. Tom found real ministry here as a resident. Frequently he was found leading devotions for one of the residential groups and singing in the choir. And numerous people have said to this writer how much he had meant to them – not only in their sorrows but also in their living and loving.

"Servant of God, Well Done!"

Memorial services were held in the Stringer Chapel of The Oaks led by the Chaplain, Kermit Shrawder, and his friends, Ernest Heape and Boyd Chewning. His earthly remains were interred in the churchyard of the Pendleton Church, where Tom first learned to love God, and were led by the pastor, Ben Barnett, and Arthur Holt.

JOHN LOUIS FOWKE
November 28, 1924 – September 11, 2008

The Reverend John Louis Fowke was born on November 28, 1924 in Augusta, Georgia, to Susan "Toula" Glover Fowke and Louis Linwood Fowke. He died peacefully at home with his family surrounding him on September 11, 2008.

Louis grew up in Grace Methodist Church in North Augusta, South Carolina. He graduated from North Augusta High School and attended Clemson College and Wofford College before serving in the Merchant Marines and the Navy during World War II. During his Navy years he conducted religious services for his fellow seamen aboard the USS Thomas Hyde. He was honorably discharged from the Navy in 1946 and married his high school sweetheart, Constance "Connie" Wilson, in August of that year. Louis graduated from Wofford College in 1948 and worked as a high school teacher and principal for two years.

After entering the ministry in 1950, Louis served the following churches: Warrentville UMC and Pentecost UMC (Warrentville), Lowell Street UMC (Greenwood), Mt. Hebron UMC (West Columbia), and St. Luke UMC (Walhalla). He was ordained deacon on October 23, 1954 and elder on August 17, 1957. He completed the Conference Course of Study at Emory University. Louis was an entertaining and effective worship leader and preacher of the Word. In all of his pastorates, he devoted a great deal of his time to visitation and to helping to meet the needs of those in the community who called on him, whether church members or strangers. He had a special talent for preaching to children. His talents in photography, storytelling, printing, singing hymns with his strong voice, and doing magic tricks were all utilized in his church ministry. At two of his pastorates he led the planning and completion of new buildings - a new educational building at Warrentville UMC and a new sanctuary at Mt. Hebron UMC. At St. Luke UMC, Louis had the honor of being the minister to the Reverend Jake Walker who had taken Louis into the church as a child in North Augusta.

Louis' career took a different turn when he decided to follow a lifelong dream of working with children in need. He took a year off from the South Carolina Methodist Conference to serve as the Director of Student Affairs and Chaplain at Tamasee DAR School in Tamasee, South Carolina. He returned to Columbia to serve on the Conference Program Council the following year and was minister at Windsor UMC for a year after the sudden death of that church's minister. In 1970 he became Minister and Director of Child Care at Epworth Children's Home, where he had served as a trustee for a number of years. He lived on campus and devoted long hours and great energy to the well being of the children and staff. He was both respected and well-loved by them. A very special relationship developed between Louis and Ken Nelson (now the Reverend Ken Nelson) who was then a child at Epworth.

Louis had a stroke following carotid artery surgery in 1987 when he was 62. The stroke left him with aphasia and necessitated his retirement from Epworth and the Conference. He lived his remaining years in North Augusta and in Columbia. His patience during his long years of disability was a continuing witness to his goodness and his faith in God. In his final years he attended Rehoboth UMC in Columbia where he was named Pastor Emeritus. He had previously been named Pastor Emeritus at Warrenton UMC. Although he was no longer able to participate in leading worship, he cherished these honors. His memorial service was conducted at Rehoboth UMC on September 14, 2008, by the Reverends Jim Davis, Ken Nelson, and Tom Williams. Graveside service followed in North Augusta on Monday, September 15, 2008.

Louis and Connie had been married 62 years at the time of his death. They have two daughters, Patricia Fowke Wood of Columbia and Susan Fowke Lemmon of Charlotte. HENRY SAMUEL JOHNSON

May 1, 1941 – April 6, 2009

Henry Samuel Johnson, affectionately known as "Sam" to many, was born in Charleston, South Carolina on May 1, 1941, and received his secondary education in the public schools of Charleston County. He graduated from Claflin College in 1965 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and earned a Masters of Divinity degree from the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia.

Rev. Johnson's career spans forty years in the ministry as pastor of the Bethel-St. Andrews Charge (1969), Greer Circuit (1970), York-St. James Charge (1972), and Cumberland United Methodist Church (1984). He served as the Associate Director of the South Carolina Conference Council on Ministries (1977) and for eight years as the Superintendent of the Charleston District (1989). He was the first Superintendent in the South Carolina Conference to have his tenure extended. This was done because of the extensive work Rev. Johnson did to help rebuild areas in the lowcountry that were devastated by Hurricane Hugo.

Rev. Johnson led the congregation of Hibben UMC in the construction of a $1.7 million Christian Life and Learning Center that was completed in September 2000. He pastored at Hibben UMC from 1997 until his retirement in 2007. Rev. Johnson served in numerous capacities while working for the conference. He was chairman of the Charleston District Committee of Ordained Ministry for several years, chairman of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (2004-2008), a member of the Board of Directors at Epworth Children's Home, and the vice president of the Board of Visitors at Claflin University.

Upon retirement, Rev. Johnson maintained his commitment to proclaim the Good News and accepted the appointment as pastor of New Light UMC in Saint Stephen, South Carolina. He faithfully served this appointment until his death on April 6, 2009. Rev. Johnson was truly a gift to all who knew and loved him and was always a faithful witness for Jesus Christ. His favorite hymn was "My Hope is Built", and he truly lived as the song proclaims, "On Christ the Solid Rock I stand, all other ground is sinking sand. All other ground is sinking sand."

Rev. Johnson leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife of forty-one years and nine months, the former Josephine Williams of Camden; two daughters, Samara Yvette and Samone René; two sons, Willie Samuel and Patrick Samuel (Ayesha); three grandchildren, Jasmine Imam, Mekhi Jamar, and MaLia Janai; two brothers, Clyde Johnson (Vivian) of Summerville, South Carolina, and Rev. sisters-in-law, Evelyn W. Gibson (George) of Camden, South Carolina; Loretta W. Drakeford (Joseph) of Camden, South Carolina; Connie D. Williams of Camden, South Carolina; Mary Johnson of Charleston, South Carolina; and Dr. Rowena Stewart-Johnson of Jacksonville, Florida; one godson, Anthony Brevard (Angelia), of Atlanta, Georgia, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends

The Reverend Mark Reagan Long was born on August 24, 1943, in Asheville, North Carolina, a son of Clyde Stevens Long and Estelle Kyle Long.

He attended Asheville City Schools. He was a graduate of Western Carolina University (1976) and Candler School of Theology (1982). He received the degree of Doctor of Ministry from Erskine Theological Seminary (1991).

In 1978, Mark married Margaret Griffin Tate of Travelers Rest, South Carolina. After marriage, he became not only a husband but also a parent to Eric and Shanie. Mark's family was always a source of great joy for him, especially grandchildren Joshua Tate, Justin and Morgan Vafiadis.

His appointments in the South Carolina Conference were: Mountain View, Aldersgate (Inman), Whitney-Saxon (Spartanburg), Pelzer, Lynwood (Lancaster), Buffalo, Latta - Mt. Andrew, Cornerstone-Epworth (Rock Hill) and St. Andrew (Easley).

During his almost 30 years of ministry, Mark served on district committees, was a leader in the early Conference drug education program "Born Free-Stay Free" and was a Mentor/Supervising Pastor. In the local communities in which he served he was active in various clubs and agencies such as The Human Rights Committee (Union County), Rotary Club, and National Historic Society. He was a charter member of MADD (Lancaster County) and while serving in Latta, Mark enjoyed being a Docent at the county museums which suited his love of history.

Mark retired from active service on December 31, 2007, because of liver/kidney disease. In 2008, his name was placed on an organ transplant registry at Carolinas Medical Center in Charlotte, North Carolina. Mark received his new liver on November 19, 2008 and his new kidney a few hours later. He survived the surgery but passed away on March 4, 2009. He is survived by a sister, brother, his mother, wife, two children, and three grandchildren.

All of his adult life Mark collected and read books on a wide range of topics. He just seemed to be on a quest for knowledge. Mark was a humble man with a wonderful smile and a gentle spirit. This seemed to help him wherever his charge took him. He was later known as a "peacemaker." Mark's favorite reply to anyone who asked a question that could be answered unequivocally was "Yes, indeed." He was sure of his calling to serve God and the Church. "Yes, indeed!"

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God. Matthew 5:9

CHRISTOPHER LEE POOLE, SR.
October 21, 1940 – August 13, 2008

Christopher Lee Poole, son of Arthur and Christa Bell Poole, was born October 21, 1940, in Aiken County. He was married 47 years to his high school sweetheart, Barbara J. Johnson. They had three children, Chris Jr., Lona and Chad as well as six granddaughters. Chad died at the young age of 18.

God called Chris to the ministry at 15. He was a country boy who preached often as a young man while he worked in a local grocery store and shirt factory. By the time he graduated from high school he had saved enough to begin his ministry education. He was a member of Clinton United Methodist Church of the Wagener Charge.

From an early age, Chris realized education was important, and he wanted to be fully prepared. Upon graduation from Spartanburg Methodist College, he was sent to his first student appointment, Folly Beach UMC, and served there while attending the College of Charleston for the next three years. He left with a college degree, a wife, and a baby boy and headed upstate to Marlboro Circuit to serve that charge as he began his Duke Divinity education. He also served at the Tatum-Hebron Charge.

Chris received his Masters of Divinity from Duke and was appointed to Lake View Charge for four years. Afterwards, he served the Norway Charge and later the Hickory Grove Charge. He then decided to become a licensed counselor and therapist and was proud to be a member of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors. He continued his ministry at Mount Holly UMC in Rock Hill, and then went on to Trinity UMC in Bamberg. After 41 years of serving the church, he retired from Boone Hill UMC in Summerville.

After retiring, Chris moved to Edisto Beach and was called to serve as an interim at Pinopolis UMC. In his retirement, he also enjoyed hosting at the Coastal Sewee Retreat Center. Chris came full circle in life after a long battle with illness, and moved home to attend Wagener UMC.

Throughout his ministry, Chris volunteered at the South Carolina Methodist Camp every year and often took church members and families. It was his love for people, his earthliness, and caring compassion for others that made him memorable to his family, friends, and associates. He was a confidant and mentor, and his value for the simplicity of life made him accessible to all. He was unique in his perspective of ministry, and could offer guidance from the pulpit, the home, a restaurant, and even a boat.

He loved life, his family, and his Lord. His experiences yielded in him a great ability for story telling which he used to entertain, guide, and inspire.

He had a passion for the church and often said that it was the Methodist Church that saved him. We are reminded of his affinity for the church in his saying, "I'm Methodist. I'm Methodist to the bone. I'll stay Methodist until I'm dead, and if you're smart, you will too."

CLAYTON ZENO PRICE

May 10, 1923 – February 9, 2009

The Reverend Clayton Zeno Price, the son of the late Zeno A. and Gertrude B. Price, was born in Seven Springs, North Carolina, May 10, 1923. He died on Monday, February 9, 2009. His life spanned over eighty-five years with the last thirty-four years as a minister in both the North Carolina and the South Caroling Conference. Clayton married Angelia Powell on December 18, 1982. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Gorgi Anna Lipsey and husband David; a grandson, Jordan and several nieces and nephews.

In the North Carolina Conference, Clayton served from 1975 until 1981 serving the Bethel-Lebanon Charge in Columbus County and the Oleander Charge in Wilmington. During his years in South Carolina he served Boganville and in retirement served Cross Anchor, Fairmont, Asbury, Unity and Fingerville, all in the Spartanburg District.

Clayton was a World War II veteran having served in the United States Navy and Naval Reserve from 1941 though 1952. He was past president of the USS North Carolina Battleship Association and past chaplain of the American Legion Post 129, Jonesville.

During his years working for Christ, he touched the lives of those he came in contact with by his genuine love and his warm expression. His concern for people brightened their lives. Clayton was always there to bring a little sunshine and a sense of God's presence where needed. He always made a point to speak.

Clayton's favorite saying was "Don't tell me good-by. Say I'll see you later". We will see him later when we are embraced by God as he was at 5:45 a.m. on Monday, February 9, 2009.

"See You Later!"

EBEN TAYLOR

January 23, 1925 – October 23, 2008

"My command is this. Love each other as I have loved you. " John 15:12

Eben Taylor was a local pastor and social justice pioneer who followed in the footsteps of his father, Eben Taylor, Senior and two uncles, Raymond Taylor and George Taylor, all of whom served in the S.C. Conference of the Methodist Church.

Son of the late Eben and Elsie S. Taylor, Eben was born in McClellanville, S.C. on January 23, 1925. He graduated from Wofford College and Duke University Divinity School. He received honorary doctorates from Wofford College and Claflin College.

Eben served in the U.S. Army as an infantryman in Europe during World War II. Throughout his days, friends and family were used to Eben lending his "good ear" in conversations. Eben lost the hearing in his other ear during the war.

Eben was admitted to the S. C. Conference of the Methodist Church in 1953 and served congregations in Durham, N.C., North Charleston, Cayce, Columbia, Charleston Heights, Anderson, Greenville, Bennettsville, Laurens and Sandy Springs. He was elected to the General Conference of the Methodist and United Methodist Church five terms and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference eight terms. He served two terms on the national General Commission on Religion and Race.

Eben was a founding member of the S.C. Therapeutic Society which later became the Alston Wilkes Society; member, Board of Trustees of Columbia College and Claflin College; co-founder, Crisis Ministries in Anderson; and supporter of many social justice organizations.

Eben was predeceased by his beloved wife of 56 years, Martha, and son, Eben Taylor, III. Surviving are children Mark Taylor (Suzanne) of Lexington, Charles Taylor (Florence) of Greenville and Stephen Taylor of Greenville. Also surviving are two sisters, Mamie Clara Baker of Charlotte, N.C. and Ann Taylor of Charleston; four grandchildren, Sarah, Ben, Mallery, and Wesley; and fourteen nieces and nephews.

One of Eben's proudest moments was serving as a member of the Merger Committee that brought together the two S.C. conferences of the United Methodist Church in 1972. It has been written: "Genuinely prophetic in his pulpit ministry, Eben Taylor was among the first, most persistent and unyielding Methodist clergy in S. C. to summon the church to a spirit of reconciliation and racial inclusiveness." Eben took many tough stands, from supporting collective bargaining in the workplace to opposing the death penalty. Eben was eulogized as "the social conscience of South Carolina Methodism."

As impressive as his formal achievements may have been, Eben will be remembered mostly for acts that are not the stuff of public record, but rather for small, quiet acts of giving that knew no bounds (Eben was one of those people who, in the words of Southern theologian Will Campbell, "won't put anyone outside the fence"):

Driving across the state to hold hands with someone in the hospital for 15 minutes. Showing up at public protests to show support for beleaguered activists. Hobbling around a retirement center on Christmas Eve sliding gold dollar coins under residents' doors with a walking cane. Standing with people who found themselves in serious trouble and utterly alone. Sending visitors home with even more gifts than they had brought to him. Always answering the phone. Mentoring countless women and men as they entered the ministry, including an immigrant seminarian who was to spend his life ministering to prisoners. Strengthening our spines and calling us to do things differently and better. Imploring us to do what he did with every fiber of his being: "Trust love! Trust love! Trust love!"

— Mark, Charles, and Stephen Taylor

JOSEPH ELMO TYSINGER, SR.

January 30, 1928 – July 20, 2008

Reverend Joseph Elmo Tysinger, Sr. was born in Charlotte, NC on January 30, 1928. He was the adopted son of Howard and Wilma Tysinger.

Joe grew up on a farm and lived in a one-room house with his parents. Seven years later his brother, Jack, was born. Joe would often share interesting stories about that time in his life. Once, when he was riding on a wagon attached to a mule, the mule fell in the creek, and Joe had to hold the mule's head out of the water until help arrived. Another time, Joe wanted to quickly complete his task of planting seeds, so he dropped all of the seeds into one hole. Everything was fine until the seeds sprouted, and Joe's "secret" was revealed!

When Joe was 17 he married Mary Ellen Neal of Rock Hill, South Carolina. They had three sons: Joe, Jr. also a Methodist minister, Terry, an original member of The Sweet Spirit Quartet, and their youngest son, Roger. Joe, Jr., later died in an automobile accident. Joe, Jr.'s family live in the Anderson area, Terry and his family reside in the Greenville area, and Roger and his family live in the Columbia area. Joe often quipped that he left a son in each town where he served.

Joe served in the U.S. Army during World War II. After he returned home, he worked in a cotton mill and later for the Celanese Corporation near Fort Mill, South Carolina.

At age 27, Joe was called into the ministry and was given an appointment at Zoar UMC in Charlotte, NC. In 1956, Joe served three churches in the Summerville, South Carolina area: Knightsville, Boone Hill, and Stallville. During this time Joe was continuing his education and graduated from Columbia College when he was 40 years old. Other United Methodist churches in South Carolina that Rev. Tysinger served during his 50+ years of ministry included Brandon in Greenville, Grace and Patterson Chapel in Woodruff, Stevenson Memorial in Taylors, Lebanon and McLeod in Eastover, St. James in Spartanburg, Rehoboth in Columbia, Pisgah in Columbia, and Pendleton in Pendleton. Under the leadership of Rev. Tysinger, four of the churches built new sanctuaries, two churches built new parsonages, one church became "station", and all of the churches experienced increased membership growth. After officially retiring in 1994, Rev. Tysinger continued serving as pastor for McKissick UMC in Easley and Good Samaritan in Lake Wylie.

Joe's beloved wife, Mary Ellen, passed away unexpectedly in the fall of 1994. Mary Ellen had been his life partner for 49 years. Together, Joe and Mary Ellen worked with Sunday School, youth groups, Bible Studies and senior citizens. They often visited church members together. Joe always said he would not have been so successful had it not been for Mary Ellen's support. In 1995, Joe married Betty McQuay, who remained by his side and supported him in many ways during the remainder of his ministry. Rev. Tysinger passed away July 20, 2008 in Pineville, North Carolina.

Rev. Tysinger served God through the United Methodist Church and always expressed his appreciation of the churches he served and the opportunity he was given to serve. He especially enjoyed playing golf and going to Conference every year. Rev. Tysinger was a great motivator of people and would work just as hard on projects as he asked others to do. At the time of his death he was serving as Associate Pastor and Pastor Emeritus at St. John's UMC in Fort Mill, South Carolina.

BILLY JULIAN WEISNER, SR.

November 12, 1940 – December 30, 2008

The Reverend Billy Julian Weisner, Sr., son of the late Jesse Harold and Adice Smith Weisner was born in Piedmont, South Carolina, November 12, 1940. He died peacefully in his home at 201 Patrick Ave., Easley, South Carolina, on December 30, 2008, with his wife and children at his bedside. Julian married Martha Ann Coker on September 1, 1962. They have two sons: Billy Julian, Jr. (Jody), who was born September 8, 1965, and lives in Greenville with his son, Vincent Alexander; and Ashley Coker, who was born December 13, 1972, and lives with his wife Angela Taylor and their children, Trevor Nicholas, Lucas Taylor (Luke), and Lily Leanna in Easley.

Julian was preceded in death by brothers James Curtis, Francis Hoyt, Harold Ray, and a sister, Mary Ann Weisner. He is survived by brothers Charles Jerry and Douglas Rhett, and sisters Margaret Weisner Ellison, and Judy Weisner McAbee.

He was a retired United Methodist Minister, serving for more than 30 years throughout South Carolina and North Carolina (during his seminary studies). He was a 1968 graduate of Duke University with a Masters in Divinity. He began his ministry at the age of 18.

During his ministry, Julian served the following churches: Oak Hill-Pisgah (Pelzer), Bailey Memorial (Clinton), Tabernacle (Townsville, NC), Hillsborough (Hillsborough, NC), Bennettsville Circuit (McColl), Great Falls Charge (Great Falls), Saluda Circuit (Saluda), Chesnee Charge (Chesnee), Drayton (Spartanburg), Porter's Chapel - Mt. Bethel (Pickens), South Conway Charge (Conway), Tabernacle-Bethel (Lancaster), Christ (Greenville), Bethel-Arrington (Greenville). In the early 1980's, he worked as a Counselor with Pickens County Commission on Alcohol & Drug Abuse.

In January of 1985, at the age of only 44, he suffered a severe stroke that almost took his life. Although his doctors told him he would never work again, he worked diligently at his rehabilitation with the belief that his gifts and passion for serving others would still be of value to the church. It took seven years, but by 1992, he received an assignment at Christ UMC in Greenville. He continued preaching until 1998, when he retired from his final appointments at Bethel UMC and Arrington UMC.

The last ten years of Julian's life were spent living in Easley, South Carolina with his wife Martha Ann. He was a loving grandfather and an avid antique collector. He lived a beautiful life and served God faithfully. Julian's own words summarize his Christian journey. "The Biblical philosophy is that life is not measured in the length of days. Some people live "longer" in 30 years than others do in 60. You might say their days cover more ground ... that their reach is greater ... that they have a larger capacity for life. At any rate, they put more into it and get more out of it." "...I am like the Psalmist. I don't know much about the future, but there is one thing I do know and I'm sure about it: GOD IS FOR ME. HE IS FOR YOU. HE IS ON OUR SIDE."

DOROTHY RUTH WATKINS DAVIDSON

Ruth was born December 24, 1932 in Lee County, South Carolina to Eddie Lee and Moise Pate Watkins. She died November 17, 2008 after a brief illness.

Ruth met Eddie Davidson in 1950 when he was serving his first charge in Bethune. They were married in February, 1953 and served their churches and communities together for nearly 56 years. Ruth was a dedicated minister's wife. Her empathy and compassion matched that of her husband, and together the "team" of Ed and Ruth Davidson brought solace to many in their communities during times of difficulty and sorrow. As a sister-in-law once said, she was born to be a minister's wife. Her homemade rolls, chocolate pies, and chicken casseroles as well as beautiful flower arrangements made with the flowers from her oft-tended flower beds were shared freely with those who were ill, grieving or going through some other difficult time. A member in one church said, "It's worth it to get sick to get Ruth's yeast rolls!"

Ruth was a proud and devoted mother to Ed Jr., Tom, Susan, and Marie. She expected much of her children, but she gave so much more to them. She dedicated her life to them and her husband. She was "Granny" to Ellen, Neil, Thomas, Summer, Laney, Ruthie, Maggie, and her granddogs "Little One," and "Dixie." She reveled in being a grandmother. She assisted in the raising of Ellen, and was just a phone call away to baby-sit if Neil, Thomas or Summer got sick.

Ruth was a gracious and kind lady with a listening ear, warm smile, and gentle touch. Her quiet reassurance provided hope even when circumstances seemed hopeless, and though she was "the minister's wife" she herself ministered to many in the congregations they served. Ruth also had a wonderful sense of humor, often with a dry delivery that would have an entire room laughing out loud as she shared lively and humorous stories of her life as a minister's wife and mother of "the preacher's kids," or just sharing her view on things that were currently happening in daily life. Even though she is not with us anymore, there are times when we can still hear comments she would make at something we are viewing or experiencing, and we smile and are grateful for the many blessings we shared with her.

Inez Gambrell Evatt, daughter of James Edward and Bettie Outz Gambrell, was born April 9, 1921, in Anderson County, South Carolina. When "T.F.", as Inez called her husband, was called into the ministry in the early fifties, she supported him fully and became the ideal preacher's wife. Their appointments were in Princeton, Williamston, Greenville, North Charleston, Bennettsville and Chester. Her homes, always beautifully kept, were open to everyone – family, friends, and especially to church members. She was a great cook and loved sharing her special dishes.

With T.F., Inez provided a nurturing Christian home for her children, encouraging them and admonishing them to "do the right thing". She was very proud of her grandchildren and great grandchildren, encouraging them just as she had her children.

The Evatts moved to The Methodist Oaks in the mid-nineties. She loved life there and made wonderful friends. After her death on August 20, 2008, a dear friend wrote of her "deep faith, her ability to cope when bad things happen to good people, and her will to do things right." She was a devout Christian, and a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend, who is remembered with love and affection.

October 27, 1937 – December 6, 2008

Gary McCain, aka, "Poppy," spouse of Rev. Patricia (Pat) McCain, was born in Charlotte, N.C. He was the son of the late Clifton Steele McCain and Doris Rogers McCain. He had one sister, Phyllis McCain Carter of Durham N.C. Pat and Gary were married 48 years and have two daughters, Joy M. Cleary and Cynthia M. Hamrick and a son, Curtis Clifton McCain who preceded Gary in death in 1999. There are six grandchildren, Brandon Hamrick, Adam Hamrick, Chase Hamrick, Ella Cleary and twins, Evan and Reeve Cleary.

Gary was an Eagle Scout and had been in the Coast Guard Reserve. He served as a Scout Master for 20 years and was an avid "Rock Hound." He loved exploring the woods, finding waterfalls and just enjoying nature. He panned for gold in the creeks, even in the coldest weather. He was a lapidarist and cut many gem stones for his family and friends. His final days were spent in his log home in the woods – his dream home. He retired from CEM in Stallings where he helped redesign and rebuild microwave ovens that were used to test fats and water content in foods.

When Pat entered the ministry, Gary was always there to be supportive and attentive at every service, no matter how many times she preached – at one time, at three churches. The people loved his quiet and unassuming nature and he acquired many friends. His friends at his home church, Pleasant Hill UMC (Ft. Mill) remember his strong faith and were impressed and delighted at his interpretation of scripture. Gary will be missed, but never forgotten.

In the words of his daughter, "He was the kindest most welcoming of people. He always made the simplest of things seem special....He was so patient with us. I am going to miss him so much especially his weekly Sunday night calls to check on us all and remind us how much he loved us. His descriptions of Heaven were magnificent so I am comforted knowing he is there."

A Loving Tribute to Our Mother

What is a virtuous woman? Her price is above rubies. Strength and honor are her clothing. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; her tongue is the law of kindness. Let her works praise her at the gates. Her children rise up and call her blessed. (taken from Proverbs 31)

DOROTHY ROZIER COURSEY
June 27, 1929 – January 20, 2009

It's always hard to describe someone who played such an intricate part in your life. It's even harder to sum up so many years and fully grasp a person's life in such a limited space. Yet, there always seems to be a word or phrase that makes you pause and reflect what that life meant to you.

If there was a phrase to describe Dorothy Coursey, it would have to be "Don't ever forget to love." Spoken to me the day after my wedding, I remember her telling me softly that love was the most important thing of all, and if there ever came a difficult time in my marriage, to remember that love was what brought us together and love was what would keep us together. Like her love for my grandpa. Like her love for her children. Like her love for us grandchildren. But most importantly, her love for God.

Dorothy Rozier Coursey was born June 27, 1929, the youngest daughter to Albert and Ruth Rozier. In 1949, she married Edward Coursey, becoming a wife and soon after, a mother. From the start of their marriage, God was first. She had three children and taught them all the importance of God and the importance of love. She was a homemaker until her youngest child finished school, known lovingly among her children's friends as a "second mother".

She was active in her church, teaching the children's Sunday School class every week, helping with VBS each summer, and leading the children's choir at Christmas. It was "Ms. Dot" that taught children to be "fishers of men" and let them "fly" around the classroom - using their arms as butterfly wings of course. It was Ms. Dot the children flocked to every week, knowing that somewhere in that huge purse there would be a bag of goldfish for each. And it was Ms. Dot smiling under those big, colorful hats each Sunday at every child and adult that passed by.

In 2002, when her husband became sick, she was what she had always been - the wife that held his hand, slept by his bedside, and prayed with him daily. She was a true Southern lady; full of charm, full of grace, who loved completely and unconditionally. Even after her husband's death, she remained active in his church, teaching the children for as long as she was able.

Ms. Dot passed away January 20, 2009, leaving behind a legacy full of love. Her final request was that everyone sing "Jesus loves me" so we all would know that each of us is loved and is important. She spent her whole life making sure everyone around her knew that and I know all of us will miss that little lady in those big ol' hats.

"Jesus loves me this I know....for the Bible tells me so..."

MARSHLEA COTTINGHAM DAWSEY
October 30, 1916 – November 3, 2008

"Viver Para Servir" or "Live To Serve" is the motto of the "Women's Society" of the Brazilian United Methodist Church. Marshlea held a special place in her heart for working with Methodist women in both Brazil and here in the US. This motto was an important part of her approach to living a fulfilling life.

Marshlea Dawsey passed away on November 3, 2008, and she was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. Cyrus B. Dawsey Jr. in 2005. She was born on October 30, 1916, in Madison, Florida, and grew up on a farm with her parents, James Cottingham and Cora Cowart, and three sisters.

Following her graduation with a bachelor of arts from Florida State University and a masters degree in Christian education from Scaritt College, she went to Brazil where she and her husband served as United Methodist missionaries for 27 years. Marshlea was a dedicated church leader, and she had the distinction of being the first female licensed to preach in the North Carolina conference. She saw her missionary role as that of an equal partner ready to infuse their work in Brazil with excitement and joy.

She directed various choirs but her favorites were the "Women's Choirs" which became instrumental in creating unity in the churches in which they served. Her passion for music was contagious and some of her former choir members have continued the work that she started. Marshlea became an organizer and leader for Methodist Women Societies wherever she lived. She also loved the youth of the church and our lives on the mission field were spent in almost a constant celebration with play productions, youth retreats, workshops and genuine discussions of what it meant to be a Christian in the world in which we lived.

Marshlea was very tender hearted and a fighter for those impoverished, for Civil Rights and for oppressed people everywhere. In recent years she had been an active member and Sunday School teacher at the Auburn United Methodist Church in Auburn, Alabama. She loved the ladies in her Sunday School class. She loved her family and she loved her church. Marshlea is greatly missed by her three sons, her daughter, her eight grandchildren, and her five great-grandchildren.

GENE JUANITA DAUGHTRY HAMM
November 20, 1923 – March 1, 2009

Born in Sylvania, Georgia on November 20, 1923, Gene was the widow of Cyril Hamm, former minister and member of the South Carolina Methodist Conference, who passed away in 1989. Gene served faithfully by his side until his retirement in 1986. In this day and age of eHarmony.com and other on-line dating services, it would amuse some to know that Gene and Cyril corresponded for three years during World War II while he served in the Pacific theater, he being from Massachusetts and she from Georgia. They met face-to-face only five days before they were wed in 1945! Ever displaying her sense of humor, upon becoming the owners of their first “real” home when he retired, Gene promptly hung a sign on their mailbox that said “Another World.” As she said, she could now paint the walls whatever color she wanted or hang whatever type of drapes she wanted without committee approval! I Peter 4:9 says, “Use hospitality one to another without grudging.” Gene was the epitome of this scripture. Whether she was ironing a stack of clothes for family members, making a batch of cabbage relish, sewing a quilt for a grandchild, baking for the FCL craft show, counting and rolling coins for her grandchildren, preparing for the UMW meeting, or cleaning house for her 80+ year-old brother, Gene definitely exhibited hospitality without grudging. She loved doing for others, more often than not putting others before herself. She was the proud mother of 3, grandmother of 5, and great-grandmother of 16. “Her children arise up, and call her blessed....” We did call her blessed, but SHE blessed US more than words can describe.

MARY MOTTE ANDERSON HERBERT

November 5, 1910 – March 13, 2009

Mary Motte Anderson Herbert, widow of the Reverend Dr. R. Bryce Herbert, was born in Greenwood, South Carolina, on November 5, 1910. She grew up on the family farm near Ninety Six, South Carolina, one of six children of Tom and Nannie Anderson and a faithful member of Mt. Lebanon Methodist Church. She attended public schools in Ninety Six and graduated from Lander College in Greenwood. By her husband’s account, the two first met at a water fountain in a hallway at Lander College, to which the young minister had been invited as a featured speaker. Bryce later reported that he was approached by “a dizzy blond” who introduced herself: “Hello, Rev. Herbert. I’m Perrin Anderson’s sister.” Apparently, each of them made an impression, as they began dating a short time later in Bishopville, South Carolina, and were married at Mt. Lebanon Church on October 10, 1936.

As the two served appointments throughout South Carolina, Mary Motte – who once quipped, “I never expected to marry a preacher” – distinguished herself as parish organizer, gracious hostess, loving homemaker, and staff of life to her husband. Throughout almost sixty years of marriage, this gracious and inseparable pair counseled and comforted children, grandchildren, and countless troubled souls in the churches they served so well.

A year after her husband’s retirement in 1971 Mary Motte settled with Bryce in her native Greenwood, where she became active at Main Street United Methodist Church. In retirement, Mary Motte’s role as grandmother – “Mama B” – expanded to include five grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren. Ever young at heart, she became an enthusiastic fan of the Atlanta Braves.

After her husband’s death in 1996, Mary Motte moved to Johns Island, South Carolina to live with her daughter, Frances Herbert LaRouche, where she died on March 17, 2009.

She is survived by her daughters Frances and Margie Herbert Lucas of St. Petersburg, Florida; her son, Rembert Bryce Herbert, Jr., of Hastings-on-Hudson, New York; and her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

FLORENCE ELIZABETH NEWTON JOHNSTON

February 12, 1924 – November 17, 2008

“Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. Trust in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength.” (Isaiah 26: 3-4, KJV)

These verses from the Book of Isaiah represent the cornerstone and foundation of the marriage and life of Florence and her husband, the late Rev. James W. Johnston, Sr. whom she called Jimmy. Florence and Jimmy were exemplary members of Tom Brokaw’s The Greatest Generation. Florence, at the tender age of 17, married Jimmy one week after the attack on Pearl Harbor. When the war ended she had given birth to two children, a daughter, Rendy and a son, Jim Jr. Two years later, daughters Shirley and Sara completed the family.

In 1953, Jimmy answered God’s call to the ministry and thus began a journey of challenge and sacrifice. The family left Jacksonville, Florida and moved to Columbia, South Carolina. Florence was called on to help out financially and secured her first employment as an Administrative Assistant to the Principal of Pelion High School, Pelion, South Carolina where her husband Jimmy was serving a charge of three churches. During this time she managed a household with four children, a cat and dog, and supported her husband in his quest to graduate from college and complete his seminary degree while at the same time performing the duties of a minister’s wife. This continued to be her role in life as she unselfishly sought employment to support the needs of her family. Other positions of employment were: Administrative Assistant to the Administrator of a Skilled Nursing Home for four years, Executive Secretary to the Executive Director of Epworth Children’s Home for 18 years and her last place of employment was part-time in the Accounting Department of Pond Branch Telephone Company.

The attributes of strength, quiet resolve, determination, steadfastness, dependability and loyalty that Florence emulated as an employee were the very ones she role modeled for her family and friends. Florence was multi-tasking before that concept became popular. Not only was she an adept and conscientious employee, she was even more skilled in wearing the many hats required of her as a wife, mother, preacher’s wife, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Her mind was stayed on her Heavenly Father throughout the course of her life. She deserves the promise of perfect peace that only God grants to those who know how to love, trust and believe.

November 2, 1931 – November 3, 2008

Mrs. Almarie Stradford Richardson, a loving wife and mother, was born November 2, 1932 in Lugoff, South Carolina. She departed this life on November 3, 2008 at the Palmetto Baptist Inter-Medical Hospital.

She attended the Kershaw County Public Schools and was a graduate of Jackson High. Mrs. Richardson attended Allen University and Benedict College. Membership was held in the Eastern Stars, United Methodist Women and the Willie Peay Singers. It was there she worshiped until leaving to be with our Lord. Those preceding her in death included her husband, the Reverend James T. Richardson, Michael D. Richardson (son) and Myrtle F. Recognized as an evangelist, Mrs. Richardson delighted in sharing the good news of the gospel. She worked hard in the promotion and advancement of God's kingdom on earth, making disciples of Jesus Christ.

A woman of industry, she had a successful career in textiles for many years. As a world traveler, she was a good conversationalist regarding people and cultures around the globe. Because of the love held for her local community, she was a noted activist that sought to improve environmental and social conditions in Lugoff, South Carolina. The Richardson Foundation has been established in honor of her legacy along with that of her late husband, the Reverend James T. Richardson.

Those who shared the joys of her life and live to cherish her memories include: three daughters, Shirley Stradford of Culver City, California; Evangelist, Dr. RauShanne (Nathaniel) Thompson of Columbia, South Carolina; Debra (Maurice) Neal of Lugoff; two sons, James T. An ever faithful wife, she was also a devoted mother, grandmother and great grandmother, creating wherever she lived a home filled with warmth and love and laughter. Those who found their way to her door were unfailingly received with kindness and hospitality. MARY SUE TEAL STACKHOUSE

It is indeed "a blinding glimpse of the obvious" that the success of a United Methodist minister often comes not only from personal commitment and talent but also from the rooted strength of a spouse. Mary Sue Teal Stackhouse died at her home on October 24, 2008, surrounded by her three daughters and photos everywhere of her beloved husband, Reverend William C. Stackhouse. This mode of passing was appropriate: Mary so loved her children and adored and under girded Bill in his (their) career of ministry and service.

Mary's life was testimony to many good things. She was a dedicated elementary and middle school educator. She maintained a lifelong interest in flowers and landscape work; in fact, her "green thumb" was legend. And she created a legacy of artistry in fabric through her sewing, cross-stitch, and crochet. Around it all was her aura of faith, spirit, friendship, and love. Those who knew her appreciated her Wesleyan approach to good deeds by means of her concern for others, her common sense, and her constant sound judgment.

Some among us pass this life and, in the passing, leave deep footprints. Grief is hard to bear. Ironically, the memory can serve both to honor and to bring on sadness.

In an assessment of Southern heritage, the novelist William Faulkner once said, "The past isn't dead. It's not even past." In so many ways, the life of Mary Sue Teal Stackhouse is not really past.

Mae Alice Henderson was born in Laurens County on April 30, 1934, the daughter of J.C. and Belle Stewart Henderson. Her mother raised her in a Christian home, along with her sister Edna Henderson Mattison and brothers John, Robert, Joe, Carl, Glenn, and Frank Henderson. At 23, Alice met a young seminary student, George Dewey Brazill, and they married in 1958. Dewey and Alice had two children, Lisa (married Steve Henderson) and Mark (married Gina Seigler) and two grandchildren, Matthew Henderson and Graham Brazill.

Dewey and Alice were in the ministry together for over 25 years serving Methodist charges in Newberry, Townville, Woodford, Greenwood, Hartsville, Blenheim and Enoree. At 55 years of age, Alice went back to school and earned her LPN degree. For many more years she helped people heal physically as well as spiritually.

After Dewey's death in 1996, Alice retired and married Milton Johnson Jr., and lived her remaining years on his farm in Kirksey, South Carolina. She loved every aspect of farm life. She had a passion for growing flowers, gardening and any outside activity. Alice joined Dewey in Heaven on August 25, 2008.

Less than a week later, we like to think she and Dewey celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary together in the presence of their Lord and many loved ones.

Alice was a fine example of a Christian and always had kind and encouraging words for others. She had a desire for all to know Jesus and encouraged many to accept him.

I. Annual Conference Rules of Order and Parliamentary Procedure	1-28
II. Annual Conference Rules of Organization	29-80
III. District Rules and Organization	81-92
IV. Miscellaneous Rules	93-101

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER AND PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

1. The procedure of the Annual Conference shall be governed by the following in the order listed: The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference, The Rules of Order of the preceding General Conference and the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. For the purpose of transacting business, the quorum shall be those present and eligible to vote.
2. The official roll call of the Annual Conference shall be the roll signed by the clerical and lay members present. The record of attendance shall be made from this roll.
3. Lay members of boards, councils, commissions and committees; lay members of the Conference Staff; and lay persons who are heads of Conference institutions supported by the Conference, who are not members of the Annual Conference, shall have the privilege of the floor without vote.
4. In order to secure the floor a member desiring to speak to the Conference shall stand at his or her seat, if able, with one arm raised, but shall not move to a microphone until recognized by the chair. At the microphone the member shall first state his or her name and the charge or appointment represented.
5. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a point of order, a misrepresentation, a parliamentary inquiry, a point of information, or to call attention that the time has arrived for a special order.
6. A member of the Conference may not speak more than once on a question before the Conference until every member who wishes to speak has spoken, subject to rules limiting debate. A member shall not speak for more than three (3) minutes at any time, except by permission of the Conference.
7. When the report of a board, council, commission, or committee is under consideration, the chair shall ascertain, when recognizing a member of the Conference, to which side the member desires to speak: the chair shall not give the floor to any member to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak to the other side. Except for undebatable motions, but not including the undebatable motion calling for the previous question, no report shall be acted upon or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two speeches against the said proposal. After three speeches for and three against, the question shall be put automatically. However, the chairperson or designated member presenting the report shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right shall prevail in like manner to a limit of three minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, to lay on the table, or any other motion whose adoption is pertinent to the report under consideration.
8. A copy of any motion made on the Conference floor shall be sent to the secretary's desk as soon as the person making the motion returns to his or her seat.
9. The report of a board, council, commission or committee duly presented to the Conference for its action shall be deemed properly before the Conference without the necessity of a motion to adopt and a second thereto.
10. A member rising to a point of order shall state the point as briefly and concisely as possible citing the rule or disciplinary provision invoked in the point of order. A point of order shall be decided by the chair without debate unless the chair submits the question to the body for advice or decision. When the chair rules on a point, debate is closed; but the decision may be appealed to a vote of the body.
11. When a motion is made and seconded and stated by the chair, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or an agency report is made or is published in the Pre-Conference report(s), it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference and may not be altered except by action of the Conference.
12. The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: to adopt, to commit, to substitute, to postpone, and to reconsider.
13. If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:

- a. To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table.)
 - b. To adjourn.
 - c. To take a recess.
 - d. To raise a question of privilege.
 - e. To call for the orders of the day.
 - f. To lay on the table.
 - g. To order the previous question.
 - h. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
 - i. To postpone to a given time.
 - j. To refer.
 - k. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment.)
14. Motions that are to be acted upon without debate:
- a. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally.
 - b. To suspend a rule or rules or any provision of the Standing Rules.
 - c. To lay on the table.
 - d. To take from the table.
 - e. To call for the previous question.
 - f. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
 - g. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
 - h. To call for the orders of the day.
15. When a member moves the previous question, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediate pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and a two-thirds vote of those present and voting shall be required for its adoption. If adopted, the vote shall be taken on the motion to which it applies without further debate.
16. After discussing a pending question and before relinquishing the floor, a member may make a motion, but not one whose adoption would limit or stop debate.
17. A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

18. The report of the Committee on Standing Rules shall be made as a part of the organization of the Conference and as often during the session as necessary.
- a. All proposed changes in the Standing Rules shall be submitted in writing for referral to the Committee on Standing Rules and then reported out with recommendations after twelve (12) hours.
 - b. It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote to suspend the rules.
 - c. When the rules are to be suspended, only that specific portion of the rules under consideration shall be suspended.
 - d. The Annual Conference by a majority vote can amend or alter the Standing Rules with or without the concurrence of the Committee on Standing Rules, provided that any change or alteration not originating in the committee on Standing Rules may be voted on after the lapse of twelve (12) hours from the time of its submission to the Conference.
19. It shall be an Order of the Day at the morning session of the first full day of Annual Conference that the floor shall be opened for additional nominations to all boards, councils, commissions and committees to which the Committee on Nominations and parent boards are prepared to make nominations.
20. It shall be an Order of the Day on the third full day of Annual Conference to have the election of boards, councils, commissions, and committees. If additional nominations have been made per rule 19, and if requested by the Annual Conference, ballots shall be prepared by the Conference Secretary for use in the election.
21. The report of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be placed on the Conference Program for information on the first full day of the Conference and for action on the last day of the Conference. When a motion for an increase in Conference Benevolences arises from anyone other than the Council on Finance and Administration and is approved by the Annual Conference, that motion shall be held a minimum of twelve (12) hours and shall require an affirmative vote at a second reading for final approval. If such a motion arises from the Conference floor on the last day of Annual Conference, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote shall be required for approval.
22. There shall be a Consent Calendar for the session of the Annual Conference composed of items to be "moved to the record without reading" and such other items which do not necessarily require deliberation by the Conference in open session. The Executive Committee of the Committee on Annual Conference shall determine items to be placed on the Consent Calendar and shall distribute a list of those items in the pre-conference materials. Items placed on the Consent Calendar shall be limited to items requiring no more than a simple majority vote for adoption. Prior to the adoption of the Consent Calendar by the session, any fifteen members of the Conference may request that an item be removed from the Consent Calendar, and it shall be removed and considered at an appropriate time as determined by the President and the Secretary. The Consent Calendar shall be adopted by a majority vote of the session.

Voting Procedure

23. At any session of the Annual Conference there shall be a Board of Tellers which shall conduct elections as the Annual Conference may direct. The Board of Tellers shall be nominated and organized by the Conference Secretary and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that this include at least one (1) minister and at least one (1) lay person from each district.
24. Voting shall be by voice or by show of hands or otherwise as ordered by the chair of the Conference. A standing or written count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one third of the members present and voting.
25. The Conference shall fix the voting area, also known as the bar of the Conference, at the opening business session and voting on all Conference matters must take place within the prescribed area. The voting area of the Conference shall be distinguished from other areas of the meeting site. Voting shall be by official badge only. When a vote is taken on any question, only those members within the voting bar of the Conference shall be entitled to vote. No member may enter the voting bar after the question is put.
26. Chairs of Annual Conference program boards, councils, commissions and committees and their subcommittees may authorize mail ballots on administrative matters arising between regular meetings of these bodies.
27. Election of Lay Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences System of Nomination: The following system of nomination and selection shall be followed in the election of lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences:

Only nominations from local churches, prepared on proper forms and received on scheduled time (on or before January 10th), shall be considered for election by the district's lay members of the succeeding Annual Conference.

 3. Provision shall be made for write-in ballots.
The Conference Secretary in preparing the balloting for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates is authorized to utilize computerization for both lay and clerical ballots.
28. The following system of nomination and selection shall be followed in the election of clergy delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences:
 - a. The Conference Secretary shall inform all eligible clergy members of their eligibility (pursuant to the provisions of The Book of Discipline) by November 1 of the year preceding the election of delegates and shall provide each eligible clergy a nomination form.
 - b. Eligible clergy may nominate themselves or other eligible clergy with their consent.
 - c. The nomination form shall provide information about the nominee's current appointment, conference relationship, age, racial/ethnic identification, and gender. The nomination form shall be submitted to the Conference Secretary no later than the February 1 preceding the election of delegates. The Conference Secretary shall compile and publish in the pre-conference materials a list of eligible nominees nominated through this process. Each eligible clergy member nominated through this process shall be considered a nominee and shall be listed or assigned a voting number as may be appropriate.

SECTION XI

HISTORICAL RECORD OF SESSIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

A detailed history of the South Carolina Conference can be found in The History of South Carolina Methodism by Albert D. Betts (Columbia: The Advocate Press, 1982), and the following chronology is based on the information contained in Dr. Betts' history. When John Wesley called his lay preachers together in London on June 25, 1744, to "confer" on the work of the growing Methodist Societies, the pattern for an annual "Conference" was begun. The practice was brought to America as the Methodist Societies developed here.

In the early days of American Methodism the Conferences were not neatly divided by the geographic boundaries we have today, and, correspondingly, it is difficult to trace precisely a lineage that would make it possible to identify "the first Conference." Dr. Betts refers to the "first American 'Annual Conference'" (p. 34) as the one held in George's Church, Philadelphia, July 14, 1773, on the call of John Rankin who had been sent to America by John Wesley. The work of Methodism in South Carolina was organized in 1785, when a "section" of the Conference was called at Louisburg, North Carolina, on April 20, 1785, at which Francis Asbury presided. About two years later, on March 22, 1787, the first session of a South Carolina Conference was held in Charleston, with both Bishops Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke sharing responsibilities as presiding officers. Sessions of the 1785 Conference are shown in the tables below.

The 1866 South Carolina Conference was organized on April 2, 1866, in Charleston, South Carolina, by leaders of the Methodist Episcopal Church to minister to African Americans, many freed slaves, who would not accept the continued segregated worship of the races. A history of the 1866 Conference may be found in Passionate Journey by John W. Curry (St. Matthews: Bill Wise Printers, 1980.) Pursuant to the 1964 General Conference action which dissolved the Central Jurisdiction to achieve "racial inclusiveness at all levels of the church," the 181st Session of the South Carolina Conference (1785) passed a resolution requesting bishops of the two South Carolina conferences to appoint a committee to work out a plan of merger.* The two conferences became one in 1972. Sessions of the 1866 Conference are shown in tables below.

In 1914, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, voted to divide the South Carolina Annual Conference (1785) and instructed the conference to fix a line of division. At its 129th Session the South Carolina Conference (1785) created the Upper South Carolina Conference. The two were combined again in 1948. Sessions of the Upper South Carolina Conference are shown in tables below.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration
Columbia, South Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2008 and 2007, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Council. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. The prior year summarized comparative information has been derived from the Conference's 2007 financial statements and, in our report dated December 12, 2008, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note B, the statements do not include the Conference's investment in property and equipment as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Expenditures for such investments are charged as expenditures in the year of purchase. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are generally not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In our opinion, except for not capitalizing property and equipment and recording depreciation, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2008, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2008 AND 2007

Notes to Financial Statements

Note A. Nature of Activities

The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church governs the various boards, commissions, committees and agencies whose purpose is to carry out the programs of the United Methodist Church. The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church is a nonprofit religious organization and is exempt from paying income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. These financial statements report only those transactions maintained by the Treasurer of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Note B. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Financial reporting: The accompanying financial statements are based on the accrual method of accounting reflecting income earned regardless of when received and expenses incurred regardless of when paid.

The Conference has three net asset categories, which are described as follows:

Unrestricted net assets: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions.

Temporarily restricted net assets: Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met either by actions of the Conference and/or the passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets: Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for program operations. There are no permanently restricted net assets.

To insure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purpose.

Support and expenses: A contribution is deemed to have been received when the cash or other assets including securities, land, buildings, use of facilities, materials and supplies, intangible assets, services or unconditional promise to give such items in the future is received. An unconditional promise to give is a promise, which is not dependent on the occurrence of a specified future and uncertain event to bind the promisor.

Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as increase in net assets. The Conference reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets, or if they are designated as support for future periods. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

The financial statements present expenses in accordance with the overall service mission of the Conference displayed within their natural classifications.

Cash and cash equivalents: For purposes of reporting the statement of cash flows, the Conference considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Investments are measured at fair value in the statement of financial position. Investment income or loss (including gains and losses on investments, interest, and dividends) is included in the statement of activities as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless the income or loss is restricted by donor or law.

Property and equipment: The Conference has generally not recorded land or buildings as fixed assets on its balance sheet. In 2003, the Conference recorded the renovations to the conference center, based on its intention to start recording fixed assets along with the related depreciation. Property was to be recorded at cost with depreciation being provided on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of 10 to 39 years for buildings and 10 to 39 years for Improvements to Land and Building. The plan has been delayed while the Conference re-evaluates starting the policy of recording all current land and property versus continuing the previous policy. Therefore, the Conference did not record depreciation for the conference renovation. The Conference does not maintain investments in an equipment fund or record the related depreciation of such equipment as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Expenditures for such investments in the equipment fund are generally charged as expenditures in the year of purchase.

Note C. Investments

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In determining fair value, the Conference uses various methods including market, income and cost approaches. Based on these approaches, the Conference often utilizes certain assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk and/or the risks inherent in the inputs to the valuation technique. These inputs can be readily observable, market corroborated, or generally unobservable inputs. The Conference utilizes valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. Based on the observables of the inputs used in the valuation techniques, the Conference is required to provide the following information according to the fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy ranks the quality and reliability of the information used to determine fair values. Financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value will be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

|---------|--|
| Level 1 | Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in active exchange markets, such as the New York Stock Exchange. Level 1 also includes U.S. Treasury and federal agency securities and federal agency mortgage-backed securities, which are traded by dealers or brokers in active markets. Valuations are obtained from readily available pricing sources for market transactions involving identical assets or liabilities. |
| Level 2 | Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in less active dealer or broker markets. Valuations are obtained from third party pricing services for identical or similar assets or liabilities. |
| Level 3 | Valuations for assets and liabilities that are derived from other valuation methodologies, including option-pricing models, discounted cash flow models and similar techniques, and not based on market exchange, dealer, or broker-traded transactions. Level 3 valuation incorporate certain assumption and projections in determining the fair value assigned to such assets or liabilities. |

Management uses the following methods and assumption to estimate the fair value of the Conference's financial instrument.

Cash, cash equivalents', and receivables' carrying amounts approximate fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments. The fair value of the investments is based on quoted market rates. Debt instruments carrying value also approximates fair value based on the prices for the same of similar debt issues and on current rates offered to the Conference for debt of the same remaining maturities with similar collateral requirements.

FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2008 AND 2007

Notes to Financial Statements

Note I. Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan (MPP/CPP) and Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund (CPBF) (Continued)

The Conference contributes to the fund an amount equivalent to 3 percent (3%) of each minister's annual plan compensation (cash salary, tax-deferred contributions made and housing allowance or value of the use of a parsonage) limited by 200% of the denominational average compensation. In addition, the Conference contributed in 2007 $ 468 per month per Full Time Equivalent towards the defined benefit portion of the plan for clergy. For lay employees, the Conference contributes nine percent (9%) and the lay employee contributes a minimum of three percent (3%). CPP contributions for eligible fulltime ministers are the equivalent of three percent (3%) of the minister's plan compensation limited by 200% of the current denomination average compensation. Past service defined benefit funding is an annual actuarially determined amount approved by the Annual Conference. Contributions for each participant are fully vested. The Conference Treasurer remitted $ 5,465,815 in 2008 and $ 5,315,603 in 2007 to the General Board of Pensions. The Conference is not liable for any unfunded liabilities under the MPP/CPP/CPBF plans in force.

Past service expenses are charged to the Annual Conference. The RP 2000 Individual Annuity Mortality Table is used in the determination of these amounts.

Ministers' pension payments received by the Conference Treasurer are remitted to the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church.

The Conference participates in the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund which is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church. The fund covers service prior to 1982 for substantially all clergy and lay pastors. The Board of Pensions of the Conference acts as trustee responsible for deposits with the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church. The Conference did not make any contributions to the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund in 2008 or 2007. For service subsequent to 1981, ministerial and lay employees of the Conference are eligible to participate in the multi-employer retirement plans offered by the United Methodist Church as described below.

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) provided benefits for United States of America clergy from January 1, 1982 through December 31, 2006. It is primarily a defined contribution retirement plan, with the requirement that clergy must convert at least 75% of his or her total account balance to an annuity. This plan ended effective December 31, 2006.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provided disability and death benefits as well as certain minimum benefits related to pension coverage for certain ministerial employees. The CPP is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church. The total contributions to the plan for the year ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007 was $ 1,090,075 and $ 1,072,135 respectively. These amounts are included in program disbursements in the financial statements.

The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan became effective January 1, 2006. The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of United Methodist Church merged the Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund and the Personal Investment Plan to form the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP). Conference lay employees and conference and local church personnel are eligible to participate in a defined

Defined benefit plan	$ 3,451,478

Note J. Comparative Amounts

The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the organization's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2007 from which the summarized information was derived.

Note K. Concentration of Market and Credit Risk

Pooled investments include an overnight investment account with Bank of America totaling $ 2,971,046. The financial institution has a strong credit rating and management believes that credit risk related to this deposit is minimal. There are also four $ 100,000 certificates of deposit at First Federal of Charleston. In addition, the Conference has $ 800,000 invested with the United Methodist Development Fund.

Note L. Equitable Compensation Commission

The Conference treasurer holds investments in Van Kampen mutual funds (U.S. Government Fund Class A). This fund is reserved for the purpose of paying supplemental salary for pastors of local churches that cannot afford to pay the minimum salary for pastors as set by the Conference. Notes to Financial Statements

The investments were not recorded in the records or financial statements of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church until December 31, 2008. The investments were recorded at their fair market value.

Note M. Debt

The Conference has obtained a mortgage loan with Bank of America for an original principal balance of $ 1,585,505, which included the construction loan for the renovations and additions of the Conference office building in Columbia, South Carolina at the end of 2008 with a balance of $ 266,777. The payments of $ 8,543, including principal and interest, were set up for a payback period with a balloon payment at February 28, 2009. The interest rate is floating indexed to the LIBOR Daily Floating Rate. Additional principal payments are anticipated to be made during the payback period. The total principal payments during 2008 were $ 309,922. On March 28, 2009 the Conference refinanced the outstanding balance of loan. See Note N below.

Note N. Subsequent Events

On March 26, 2009 The Conference refinanced the remaining balance of the note payable discussed in Note M. The Conference signed a 36-month note payable in the amount of $ 216,713 with a floating interest rate equal to the LIBOR Daily Floating rate plus 2.5% points. Monthly principal and interest payments of $ 6,020 are due beginning March 30, 2009 and any outstanding principal and interest is due on February 28, 2012. The Conference building located in Columbia, SC serves as collateral for the note payable. The loan agreement requires that the Conference shall maintain a ratio of Debt Service Coverage of at least 1:1.0. "Debt Service Coverage Ratio" means the ratio of Changes in Unrestricted Net Assets plus depreciation and amortization (if included in unrestricted expenses) plus principal and interest payments on indebtedness (if included in unrestricted expenses), plus unrealized losses or minus unrealized gains on investments, to the sum of the required principal and interest payments on all current and long-term indebtedness. This ratio will be calculated at the end of each reporting period for which the Bank requires financial statements, using the results of the twelve-month period ending with that reporting period. The current portion of long-term liabilities will be measured as the last day of the calculation period. Bank of America notified the Conference on January 20, 2010, the organization was compliant with its loan agreement.

Future minimum payments are as follows:

Year	Principal Payments
2009	$ 56,188
2010	68,633
2011	70,573
2012	21,319

Note P. Postretirement Benefit Plan

The Conference sponsors a multi-employer defined benefit postretirement health care plan for ministerial employees of its member churches and employees of the Conference. The plan is contributor, whereby the retiree contributions can be adjusted for increases in the cost of health care. The plan is unfunded. A measurement date of December 31 is used for the plan.

On December 31, 2007, the Conference adopted the recognition and disclosure provisions of SFAS 158, Employers' Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans, an amendment of the FASB Statements No. 87, 106, and 132(r) (SFAS 158). SFAS 158 requires the Conference to recognize the funded status of its defined benefit plans in its Statement of Financial Position, with a corresponding adjustment to unrestricted net assets. The adjustment to unrestricted net assets at adoption represents the unrecognized prior service benefit and unrecognized net gain, all of which were previously netted against the funded status of the plan in the Conference's Statement of Financial Position pursuant to the provisions of SFAS 87 and 106. These amounts will subsequently be recognized as net gains consistent with the Conference's historical accounting policy for amortizing such amounts. In addition, actuarial gains and

The accumulated postretirement benefit obligation was computed using an assumed discount rate of 6% and 6% for 2008 and 2007, respectively. In 2009, the health care cost trend rate was assumed to be 10%, then the trend rate was assumed to decline by .05% beginning in 2010 for ten consecutive years to be 5%, then the trend rate was thereafter. The health care trend rate was assumed to be 10% in 2008.

Assumed health care rates have a significant effect on the amounts reported for the plan. A one percent change in assumed health care cost trend rate would have the following effect:

Effect on total service and interest cost components	$ 897,460	$ (714,811)

As of December 31, 2008, the Conference has approximately $ 8,146,726 designated by the Board to be used for payment of future postretirement costs. The Conference expects to make adjustments to the plan to allow for the liability to be reduced to a level equal to the Conference's funding. Any changes in the plan or revisions to assumptions that affect the amount of expected future benefits may have a significant effect on the amount of the reported obligation and future annual expense. The maximum conference subsidy pays of Medicare supplement premiums was reduced from 80% to 70% effective January 1, 2009.
